PREFACE

The purpose of this publication is to place in the hands of the public at the earliest possible date a brief analysis of the import and export trade of Canada for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1922, together with handy comparisons with the trade for 1921 and 1914. The statistics for 1914 have been introduced in compliance with the expressed desire of many correspondents of the Bureau of Statistics to secure data showing at a glance the present state of trade as compared with that of the period immediately preceding the outbreak of the late war. Figures of the import from and exports to the United Kingdom and the United States for the two latest years indicate the state and trend of commercial exchange with those countries.

More detailed statistics of imports and exports for 1920, 1921 and 1922, covering all the items of the trade classifications and all the principal countries in each case are given in the March issue of the Monthly Trade Report, which has just been issued. (This report is mailed to subscribers at the subscription price of $2.40 per annum or 20 cents the single copy.)

The final revised statistics for the fiscal year 1922, with details of customs duties collected, will appear in the Annual Trade Report. This report will also contain comparative figures for the years 1914 (pre-war), 1919, 1920 and 1921. It will not be issued until about the end of 1922, and will be sent, on request, to responsible parties without charge.

1.—SUMMARY OF THE TRADE OF CANADA, by Main Classes, during the Fiscal Years ended March 31, 1914, 1921 and 1922, with Portions Imported from and Exported to the United Kingdom and the United States.

PREFACE

The publication of condensed preliminary statements of Canadian trade proved popular in business circles on both previous occasions on which it was undertaken and it is anticipated that the following tables will also be found very useful.

The figures given are for the three fiscal years ended March 31, 1921, 1922 and 1923. Those for the two former periods are revised; those for 1923 unrevised. The classifications of imports and exports have been amplified by the addition of items and the introduction of numerous sub-group totals.

More detailed statistics of imports and exports for 1921, 1922 and 1923, covering all the items of the trade classifications and all the principal countries in each case, will be published in the March issue of the Monthly Trade Report, which will be issued about May 25. (This report is mailed to subscribers at the subscription price of $2.40 per annum or 20 cents the single copy.)

The final revised statistics for the fiscal year 1923, with details of customs duties collected, will appear in the Annual Trade Report. This report will also contain comparative figures for the years 1919, 1920, 1921 and 1922. It will not be issued until about the end of 1923, and will be sent, on request, to responsible parties, without charge.

Both the Monthly and Annual Trade Reports are published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

PREFACE

This publication is designed to present, in condensed and handy form, precis of Canadian trade statistics as at the close of the fiscal year ended March 31, 1924. The review of the year's trade, and of Canada's present position among the great commercial nations of the world, is followed by historical tables showing the development of Canadian external trade from Confederation down to date. The trade of the last three years is then analysed by main groups and by countries, and that of the latest year by both main groups and countries. Finally, there are tables detailing the trade in all principal commodities for the three latest years together with the trade with the United Kingdom and the United States for the two latest years.

The figures for 1924 are preliminary; those for earlier years are final.

REVIEW OF CANADA'S EXTERNAL TRADE, 1923-24

Canada's external trade, in common with that of every other country of the world, suffered a severe decline in volume and value following the war. The reduction in the value of goods imported and exported was much greater, proportionately, than the decline in the volume, this being due to the general drop in prices. Although the effect of price changes on the value of foreign trade cannot be exactly determined, it is certain that if the same prices had prevailed during the fiscal year 1924 as ruled during 1921 the total value of Canada's external trade would have been greater during the fiscal year just closed than it was three years ago.

The fiscal year ended March 31, 1922, marked the post-war low point in Canadian trade, the total in that year being the lowest since 1916. Production followed the same tendency. Up to 1921 producers kept their industries at a level of high output, partly to build up stocks that had been depleted during the war, and partly in anticipation of increased exporting business.

All these objects were attained in large measure. Canada came through the critical post-war period without suffering that extreme depression which prevailed in most countries. The lack of purchasing power in other countries, however, were heavily upon Canada's export trade, which declined more seriously than the import trade, and in 1921 there was an unfavourable trade balance of $29,730,763. Later, the Dominion's purchasing power being lowered, imports continued to decline, while exports took an upward tendency. These developments soon began to reduce the unfavourable trade balance, and, though imports were once more advancing, exports had so far overhauled them that the unfavourable balance of 1921 was converted into a favourable balance in 1922 amounting to $6,122,677, which was increased to $165,186,430 for the fiscal year 1924.

This improvement in the trade situation is reflected in the purchasing power of the Canadian dollar. During the calendar year 1920 it took on the average 102 Canadian cents to purchase 100 United States cents, but in 1923 the Canadian dollar was almost on a par with the United States dollar, 102 Canadian cents on the average being equal to 100 United States cents.

The total trade of Canada in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1924, was smaller than for the war years 1917 to 1919 and the post-bellum years 1920 and 1921, but it was greater than for the years 1915 and 1916 and almost double the trade for the fiscal year just prior to the war, viz: year ended March 31, 1914. So far as comparison can be made, it would appear that Canada's external trade is in as favourable a position as that of any of the important commercial countries of the world.

The statistics in the following table indicate the trend of Canadian trade from 1914 to 1924, (a) with all countries; (b) with the United Kingdom; and (c) with the United States:

With Canadian exports totalling over a billion dollars for the fiscal year 1924, a new high record has been established in the Dominion's international commerce. While exports reached the billion dollar figure during each year from 1917 to 1921, this was achieved under abnormal war-time demands or the peak prices of the post-bellum boom, and thus cannot be considered a reliable index of the expansion of the country's productive powers. For the fiscal year 1924 Canada's domestic exports reached a total of $1,045,100,000 and foreign exports $13,400,000, making a total export of $1,058,500,000. Inasmuch as during the same period the imports amounted to $893,400,000, the Dominion's favourable trade balance was more than $165,000,000. Compared with 1914, the exports of Canadian produce in 1924 shows an increase of $613,500,000, or 14 per cent, and the imports an increase of $274,200,000, or 44 per cent, while during the same interval the trade balance shows a betterment of $328,900,000.

The domestic exports under the headings of "grain and grain products" and "wood and paper" in 1924 comprised about 61 per cent of the total exports. These groups, however, included large proportions of partly and fully manufactured products. The exports under the heading of "grain and grain products", amounting to $363,608,617, included wheat flour valued at $62,783,118 and three milled products valued at $5,283,186, while the exports under "wood and paper," amounting to $273,354,778, consisted chiefly of paper valued at $96,957,962, planks and boards valued at $76,043,496, and wood pulp valued at $46,173,796. The exports of Canadian products under the heading of "grain and grain products" to the United Kingdom, amounting to $223,068,453, represented 61.9 per cent of the total domestic exports to the Mother Country, while the exports to the United States under "wood and paper" totalling $230,177,833, comprised 53 per cent of the Dominion's exports to that country.

With reference to the geographical distribution of Canada's trade, the table below shows that the continents of Europe and North America took 89.6 per cent of the Dominion's exports during the fiscal year 1924, the proportion shipped to each continent being 44.8 per cent, while they furnished Canada with 94.2 per cent of her imports, the proportion received from North America amounting to 71.6 per cent and from Europe to 22.6 per cent.

During the fiscal year 1924 Canada purchased goods from 89 countries and sold her products to 107 countries. Of the countries from which she purchased goods 25 were British and 64 foreign, while 29 of those to which she sold goods were British and 78 foreign.

The United States holds first place in Canada's import trade by a very wide margin. In 1924 the imports from the United States amounted to $601,295,121, or 67.3 per cent of the total. Next in order of importance were: United Kingdom $153,613,003 or 17.2 per cent; France $15,770,145, or 1.8 per cent; British East Indies $14,374,888, or 1.6 per cent; British West Indies, $13,819,291, or 1.5 per cent; Cuba $10,781,047, or 1.2 per cent; San Domingo $8,800,060, or 1.0 per cent; Switzerland $8,420,673, or 0.9 per cent; Japan $6,292,867, or 0.7 per cent; Netherlands $5,360,344, or 0.6 per cent; Germany $5,379,737, or 0.6 per cent; Belgium $5,340,875, or 0.6 per cent; and Argentina $4,173,562, or 0.5 per cent. Compared with the pre-war year 1914, the imports in 1924 from the United States show an increase of 51.7 per cent; from United Kingdom 16.3 per cent; from France 10.5 per cent; from British East Indies 100.0 per cent; from British West Indies 220.9 per cent; from Cuba 170.0 per cent; from San Domingo 103.4 per cent; from Switzerland 95.3 per cent; from Japan 142.3 per cent; from Netherlands 80.0 per cent; from Belgium 17.7 per cent; and from Argentina 1.5 per cent. The imports from Germany for the same two years show a decrease of 63.0 per cent.

The United States is Canada's best customer notwithstanding the effect of the Fordney-McCumber tariff on the Dominion's exports. The exports of Canadian products to the United States in 1924 amounted to $430,715,496 or 41.2 per cent of the Dominion's exports. Next in order of importance were the United Kingdom $360,094,021, or 34.5 per cent; Japan $26,931,860, or 2.6 per cent; Australia $19,923,997, or 1.9 per cent; France $18,879,097, or 1.8 per cent; Italy $18,501,578, or 1.8 per cent; Belgium $17,452,442 or 1.7 per cent; Germany $16,153,673, or 1.6 per cent; China $12,973,145, or 1.2 per cent; New Zealand $12,735,620, or 1.2 per cent; British West Indies $10,901,711 or 1.0 per cent; Newfoundland $10,507,868 or 1.0 per cent; Netherlands $9,488,976, or 0.9 per cent; Argentina $7,305,866 or 0.7 per cent; and Cuba $6,776,605, or 0.6 per cent. Comparing 1914 with 1924, Canada's exports to the United States show an increase of 163.6 per cent; to United Kingdom 67.3 per cent; to Japan 1581.2 per cent; to Australia 323.4 per cent; to France 425.0 per cent; to Italy 3600.0 per cent; to Belgium 304.6 per cent; to Germany 299.4 per cent; to China 2642.7 per cent; to New Zealand 568.4 per cent; to British West Indies 142.2 per cent; to Newfoundland 133.3 per cent; to Netherlands 137.5 per cent; to Argentina 247.6 per cent; and to Cuba 277.7 per cent.

The variety and capacity of Canada's manufacturing industries are constantly increasing. Numerous commodities of commerce in Canada that, a few years ago, were wholly imported, are now produced in the country in sufficient volume for the home demand and are also being exported in quantity, while certain very large manufacturing concerns are chiefly engaged in supplying foreign markets. No statistics are available to show what proportion of Canada's imports and exports for the fiscal year 1924 was raw materials, partly manufactured or fully manufactured goods. Statistics appear in tabulated form below setting forth this information not only for Canada, but also for the United States for certain years from 1900 to 1923. The table indicates that the products of the manufacturing industries of Canada and the United States are gradually displacing in their respective countries partly and fully manufactured goods which were formerly imported. Both countries are importing more raw materials for their industries than formerly. Canada's imports of raw materials in 1923 amounted to 28.4 per cent of her total imports, while the proportion of the raw materials imported into the United States was 48.3 per cent. It is evident, therefore, that Canada is not as dependent on foreign countries for her supply of raw materials as is the United States. While it is true that Canada continues to export large quantities of raw materials, it is a notable fact that the increase in the quantities of raw materials used in her manufacturing industries in recent years is much greater than the increase in the exports of these products. Just prior to the war the proportion of fully manufactured products imported into Canada was 68.9 per cent of her total imports and for the United States 36.6 per cent, but in 1923 the proportion for Canada was 61.9 per cent and for the United States 32.9 per cent. It will also be observed by reference to this table that Canada and the United States are both steadily increasing their exports of partly and fully manufactured products, while the exports of raw materials for the two countries show a downward tendency.

Canada has materially improved her position among the leading commercial countries of the world since 1913. The table below respecting the trade of the principal countries of the world for the calendar years 1913 and 1923 shows that, with respect to imports, Canada occupied eighth place among the principal importing countries in 1913, whereas in 1923 she had advanced to sixth place, being surpassed by the United Kingdom, United States, France, Germany and Japan, in the order given. In percentage of increase in import trade during the decade 1913 to 1923 Canada occupied twelfth place. In imports per capita Canada stood in fifth position in 1913 and sixth position in 1923. Canada occupied tenth place as an exporting country in 1913 while in 1923 she occupied sixth place, being surpassed by the United States, United Kingdom, France, Germany and British India. During the decade Canada's increase in export trade was 132.6%. The only country to surpass this record was the Union of South Africa with an increase of 154.8%. In respect to exports per capita, Canada stood in seventh place in 1913, but in 1923 she occupied second position, conceding first place to the Dominion of New Zealand. Though Canada, in 1923, in both imports and exports, occupied sixth place among the principal trading countries of the world, she held fifth position in respect to aggregate trade.

CONDENSED PRELIMINARY REPORT

ON THE

TRADE OF CANADA, 1925

WITH COMPARATIVE STATISTICS FOR THE
YEARS 1923 AND 1924

(Fiscal years ended March 31st)

1924/25

Published by Authority of the Hon. Thos. A. Low, M.P.
Minister of Trade and Commerce.

OTTAWA
F. A. ACLAND
PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
1925

PREFACE

The form of this report follows, very closely, that of earlier issues, but one new and important feature has been added. Tables 10 to 18, inclusive, analyse the trade of Canada with twenty-seven principal countries, showing the chief articles imported from or exported to each during the last two fiscal years. This is intended to meet the demand for a form of trade statistics that have not been available in print since 1916.

The remainder of the report follows the plan of the 1924 issue. There is a review of the year's trade and consideration of Canada's position among the great commercial nations of the world, historical tables summarizing the external commerce of the Dominion from Confederation down to date, analyses of current trends of trade by countries and by main groups of commodities and detailed tables of imports and exports of principal articles for the last three years, with trade with the United Kingdom and United States for the last two years.

The figures for 1925 are unrevised, those for earlier years are final.

NOTE: Statistics of trade with the United Kingdom include that with Irish Free State prior to 1925. For the latter year "United Kingdom" includes Great Britain and Northern Ireland only.

REVIEW OF CANADIAN TRADE, 1924-25

The outstanding feature of Canada's external trade during the year ended March 31, 1925 was the notable increase in the favourable balance of trade and the equally marked improvement in the trade balance with the United States. During the fiscal year 1922, Canada's favourable balance was only $6,122,677, compared with an unfavourable balance for the previous year of $29,730,763. For the year under review Canada's exports exceeded her imports by $284,429,106, an improvement over the previous year of $119,032,676, and, as compared with the fiscal year 1921, an improvement of $314,159,869. The unfavourable trade balance with the United States for the fiscal year 1924 was $159,613,538; for 1925 it was $82,778,586, an improvement of $76,834,952. This reduction in Canada's purchases from the United States and the maintenance of her exports at a high level have been largely responsible for the continued improvement in Canadian exchange. During the fiscal year 1921 it took, on the average, about 113 Canadian cents to purchase 100 United States cents, but during the fiscal year 1925, the Canadian dollar was almost on a par with the United States dollar, 100½ Canadian cents, on the average, being equal to 100 United States cents. In fact, during certain periods of the latter year, the Canadian dollar was at a premium in New York. The average value of the United States dollar in Canadian currency, by months, during the fiscal year 1925 was:

Analysis of Canada's Imports and Exports.—The total value of the trade of Canada (imports for consumption and Canadian exports combined) for the year under review was $1,865,999,890, as compared with a trade in 1924 of $1,938,717,923, and in 1923 of $1,734,030,687, being a decrease compared with the year 1924 of $72,718,033, or 3·7 per cent and compared with 1923 an increase of $131,969,203, or 7·6 per cent. The imports for 1925 show a decrease compared with 1924 of $96,434,330 or 10·8 per cent and with 1923 of $5,646,707 or 0·7 per cent, whereas the exports of Canadian produce for 1925 show an increase over the year 1924 of $23,716,297 or 2·3 per cent and over 1923 of $137,615,910 or 14·9 per cent. The total value of the imports for the year 1925 was $796,932,537, compared with an import value in 1924 of $893,366,867 and in 1923 of $802,579,244, while the exports of Canadian produce in 1925 were valued at $1,069,067,353, in 1924 at $1,045,351,056 and in 1923 at $931,451,443. Compared with 1921, the total trade for 1925 shows a decrease of $563,322,693, the decrease in imports amounting to $443,226,345 and in exports to $120,096,348. The improvement in Canada's favourable trade balance in 1925 compared with 1924, amounting to $119,032,676 was chiefly accounted for by decreased imports, amounting to $96,434,330.

The statistics in the following table indicate the trend of Canadian trade from 1914 to 1925 (a) with all countries; (b) with the United Kingdom; and (c) with the United States.

Reasons for Increases and Decreases in Canada's Trade.—It might be thought from a cursory examination of the imports in 1925, compared with 1924, that as the decrease in the total value of goods imported (amounting to $96,434,330) was confined largely to decreased imports of raw materials and semi-manufactured products used in Canadian industries, there would be a corresponding decline in the industrial activities of the Dominion. It is essential, however, in analysing such statistics not to rely wholly upon values, as they do not reveal the true increase or decrease in the physical volume of the trade of a country. It frequently happens, as in this instance, that quantity statistics tell a different story. While the imports of such materials as bituminous coal, raw cotton, raw silk, raw sugar and raw tobacco, and of certain semi-manufactured products show material decreases in values in 1925 as compared with 1924, the decreases in the quantities imported were proportionately much smaller, and in some of these items the quantities imported actually increased. Canadian manufacturers benefited by obtaining these products for their industries at a lower price per unit. Again, certain raw materials used in Canadian industries, such as hides and skins, crude petroleum and raw rubber, show substantial increases in the quantities imported. The falling off in the purchases from abroad of luxuries and of other products obtainable in Canada, has also contributed largely to the total decrease in the value of imports.

The increase in the exports of Canadian produce in 1925 compared with 1924, amounting to $23,716,297, was chiefly due to two causes: The exports of butter, meats, fish, rubber products, paper (chiefly newsprint), farm implements, machinery, seeds and leather, were much in excess of similar exports last year, while the higher price received for wheat helped to swell the total value of exports. In fact, if the average export price for wheat in 1925 had been the same as in 1924 the total value of Canadian exports would have shown a decrease instead of an increase.

Geographical Distribution of Canada's Trade.—The following table shows that the continents of Europe and North America took 90.7 per cent of the Dominion's exports in 1925 as against 89.6 per cent in 1924. The proportion shipped to Europe in 1924 was 44.8 per cent and in 1925 47.9 per cent; to North America in 1924 the proportion was 44.8 per cent, and in 1925 42.8 per cent. The same two continents furnished Canada in 1924 with 94.2 per cent and in 1925 with 93.3 per cent of her imports. The proportion received from Europe in 1924 was 22.6 per cent and in 1925 25.4 per cent and from North America 71.6 per cent in 1924 and 67.9 per cent in 1925.

Canada purchased goods from 96 countries and sold her products to 108 countries in 1925. She purchased merchandise from 28 British and 68 foreign countries, while she sold products to 33 British and 75 foreign countries.

The United States holds first place in Canada's import trade. From 1882 to date the imports from the United States have exceeded those from any other country. In 1925 the imports from the United States amounted to $510,003,256 or 64.0 per cent of the total imports. Next in order of importance were: the United Kingdom $151,100,822, or 19.0 per cent; France $18,436,361, or 2.3 per cent; the British West Indies $14,882,098, or 1.9 per cent; the British East Indies $12,929,744, or 1.6 per cent; Switzerland $7,801,575, or 1.1 per cent; Cuba

$7,798,128, or 1.0 per cent; Japan $7,005,056, or 0.9 per cent; British Guiana $6,938,760, or 0.9 per cent; Germany $6,772,590, or 0.8 per cent; Argentina $6,262,738, or 0.8 per cent; the Netherlands $5,077,323, or 0.6 per cent; Belgium $5,061,912, or 0.6 per cent; Peru $3,532,608, or 0.4½ per cent; the Dutch East Indies $2,951,820, or 0.4 per cent; San Domingo $2,686,000, or 0.3½ per cent; Mexico $2,550,815, or 0.3 per cent and China $2,521,874, or 0.3 per cent.

In the export field the United States this year, as last year, was Canada's best customer. The exports of Canadian produce to the United States in 1925 were valued at $417,457,171, or 39.1 per cent of the Dominion's total domestic exports. Next in order of importance were: the United Kingdom $395,850,982, or 37.0 per cent; Germany $24,234,685, or 2.3 per cent; Japan $22,011,088, or 2.1 per cent; Belgium $16,633,411, or 1.6 per cent; New Zealand $15,079,661, or 1.4 per cent; Italy $14,139,375, or 1.3 per cent; Newfoundland $12,701,428, or 1.2 per cent; the Netherlands $12,644,245, or 1.2 per cent; Australia $12,037,203, or 1.1 per cent; Russia $11,669,352, or 1.1 per cent; the British West Indies $10,848,487, or 1.0 per cent; Argentina $10,322,373, or 0.9 per cent; France $10,290,063, or 0.9 per cent; British South Africa $9,276,502, or 0.9 per cent; China $7,838,187, or 0.7 per cent; and Cuba $7,142,406, or 0.7 per cent. Probably the most notable feature in the distribution of Canada's export trade was the displacing during 1925 of Japan as Canada's third best customer by Germany, Japan dropping to fourth position and Germany advancing from eighth to third position. In 1924 France was Canada's fifth best customer but in 1925 she occupied only thirteenth position.

Imports and Exports of Canada via the United States:—The following table shows for the years 1922 to 1925 the imports into Canada from Overseas Countries via the United States.

It will be observed from the above table that the imports from the United Kingdom via the United States have steadily declined until for 1925 they amounted to only $551,072 or about 0.4 per cent of the total imports from the United Kingdom. The proportion of the imports from British Dominions and Possessions via the United States is also less than for the years 1922, 1923 and 1924, while the imports from foreign countries via the United States show very little change, the proportion in 1925 being a trifle less than in 1924, but greater than in 1922 or 1923.

When considering Canada's imports via the United States, it is interesting to note what proportion of Canada's exports is shipped via the United States. The table below shows Canada's exports to Overseas Countries via the United States for the last four years.

The above table shows that the shipments of Canadian products to Overseas Countries via the United States are gradually growing. This is especially true with respect to exports to the United Kingdom.

Relation Between Trade in Raw and Manufactured Products:—The variety and capacity of Canada's manufacturing industries are constantly increasing. Many classes of goods which were formerly imported are now being manufactured in the Dominion in sufficient volume not only to meet the requirements of the home market, but also for export. No statistics are as yet available to show what proportion of Canada's imports and exports for 1925 consisted of raw materials, partly manufactured, or fully manufactured goods. Statistics available for the years 1900 to 1924, indicate, however, that Canada is importing less manufactured commodities today than a few years ago, while the imports of raw materials for use in Canadian manufacturing industries show a constant increase. Though Canada exports large quantities of raw materials, it is a notable fact that the increase in the quantities of raw materials used in her manufacturing industries in recent years is greater than the increase in the exports of these products. It will be observed from the table below that prior to 1914 the proportion of the imports of raw materials to total imports for Canada and the United States was 21.8 per cent and 46.5 per cent, respectively, while in 1924 it was 28.4 per cent and 44.6 per cent respectively. In the year 1914 the proportion of imports of fully manufactured goods was, Canada 68.9 per cent and the United States 36.6 per cent while in 1924 the proportion for Canada was 60.4 per cent and the United States 36.9 per cent. With regard to exports, the table below shows that in 1914 the proportion of raw materials exported to total exports was, Canada 63.2 per cent and the United States 39.9 per cent, while in 1924 the proportion was, Canada 43.4 per cent and the United States 35.7 per cent. During 1914 the proportion of fully manufactured goods exported to total exports was, Canada 26.7 per cent and the United States 44.0 per cent, but in 1924 the proportion for Canada was 39.8 per cent and for the United States 50.2 per cent.

Canada's Position in International Trade:—During the period 1913 to 1924 Canada materially improved her position among the principal commercial nations of the world. Canada occupied eighth position among the leading importing countries in 1913, but in 1924 she only occupied tenth position, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, France, Japan, the Netherlands, Italy, Belgium and Argentina. With reference to exports, Canada in 1913 occupied tenth place but in 1924 she had advanced to sixth place, being surpassed by the United States, the United Kingdom, France, Germany and British India. Though Canada in 1924 occupied tenth place in imports and sixth place in exports, she held sixth place in aggregate trade (i.e. imports and exports combined), being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, France, Germany and British India. In percentage of increase in import trade from 1913 to 1924, Canada occupied sixteenth place among the leading importing countries, but in increase in exports she occupied second place, the Union of South Africa holding first place. With regard to imports per capita Canada stood in fifth place in 1913 but in 1924 she stood in eighth place, being surpassed only by New Zealand, the Netherlands, Switzerland, he United Kingdom, Denmark, Australia and Belgium. In exports per capita she occupied seventh place in 1913 and second place in 1924, the first place now being held by the Dominion of New Zealand. In respect of total trade per capita (i.e. imports and exports combined) Canada was in sixth place in 1913 and in 1924 she was in sixth place, being surpassed by New Zealand, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Australia and Denmark.

CONDENSED PRELIMINARY REPORT

ON THE

TRADE OF CANADA, 1926

WITH COMPARATIVE STATISTICS FOR THE
YEARS 1924 AND 1925

(Fiscal years ended March 31st)

1925/26

Published by Authority of the Hon. J. A. Robb, M.P., Acting Minister of Trade and Commerce.

PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
1926

PREFACE

This review and analysis of Canada's external trade is again presented in an enlarged and elaborated form. The additions made to the report last year met with general approval and this year's additions are along similar lines.

In the preliminary review (pages 5 to 23) the volume and value of the Dominion's external commerce, its fluctuations, distribution, and routes of transportation, are examined in respect to both current conditions and variations of recent occurrence. Several new analytical tables are now published for the first time, setting forth aspects of the trade situation not previously dealt with in any official publication. Canada's progress and present position among the great trading nations are explained in particular detail.

The main tables showing Canada's trade with all countries follow the arrangement used in previous years. Some items have been added to the detailed table of exports (No. 9).

Last year, tables analysing the trade with twenty-seven leading British and foreign countries, were added to the report—a new feature that met with general commendation and elicited many requests for further statements of the same character. This year the number of such tables is doubled so that the report now gives (with the United Kingdom and United States figures in Tables 8 and 9) particulars of the commercial exchange between Canada and fifty-six other countries, covering all but a very small remnant of the trade.

Statistics for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1926, are unrevised; those for earlier years are final.

This report has been prepared in the External Trade Branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, under Mr. W. A. Warne, B.A., Chief, from data supplied by the Department of Customs under Section 22 of the Statistics Act.

REVIEW OF CANADA'S FOREIGN TRADE, 1925-26

Canada's foreign trade was extremely active during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1926, reflecting a general improvement in the economic condition of the Dominion. While imports were less in value than for the "peak" year, 1921, exports were greater, being exceeded in only one year in the history of the Dominion, 1918.

Statistics of the trade are available in detail, but value is the only complete measure available. Changes in the total values of imports and exports over a given period may be due to two causes: (a) an increase or decrease in the quantities of goods imported or exported; or (b) an increase or decrease in the prices at which goods were imported or exported.

The average level of prices has changed only moderately in the past three or four years. On the other hand a comparison with pre-war years and with the period during and immediately following the war shows that there have been great changes in the level of prices materially affecting the comparability of trade statistics. It is certain, however, that the physical volume of the Dominion's imports and exports for the fiscal year 1926 was greater than for any other trade year in the Dominion's history.

The gradual growth in Canada's commerce prior to the war, the enormous expansion during the war period, the decline and revival after the post-war boom, first in imports and later in exports (which increased much faster than imports), have now resulted in Canada having the largest favourable trade balance PER CAPITA of any country in the world. For the fiscal year 1926, Canada's favourable trade balance amounted to $401,134,405, an increase over the previous year of $116,705,299. Only on one other occasion was the Dominion's favourable balance as large as in 1926, viz.: the war year 1918, when it amounted to $662,637,214. At the end of March, 1926, the favourable trade balance was almost entirely with the British Empire, the amount for the Empire being $392,631,842 and for foreign countries only $8,502,563. The unfavourable balance of trade with the United States, amounting to $123,970,454, was approximately compensated for by a favourable balance with other foreign countries.

The remarkable increase in the favourable balance during the past two or three years has contributed largely to the improvement in Canadian exchange. On the average during the fiscal year 1926, the Canadian dollar was practically on a parity with the United States dollar.

Analysis of Canada's Trade.—Canada's foreign trade during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1926, amounted to $2,255,939,869, compared with a similar trade in 1925 of $1,878,294,180 and in 1924 of $1,952,130,164, the increase over 1925 amounting to $377,645,689 or 20.1 per cent, and over 1924 to $303,809,705 or 15.5 per cent. Imports as well as exports show an improvement over the years 1925 and 1924, the increase in exports, however, being greater than in imports. Of the total increase in Canada's trade, 1926 compared with 1925, imports accounted for 34.5 per cent and exports for 65.5 per cent, whereas imports accounted for only 11.2 per cent of the total increase from 1924 to 1926, while exports accounted for 88.8 per cent. In 1926 Canada's import trade was valued at $927,402,732, as compared with $796,932,537 in 1925 and $893,366,867 in 1924; the increase over 1925 amounting to $130,470,195, or 16.4 per cent, and over 1924 to $34,035,865, or 3.8 per cent. The Dominion's export trade in 1926 (domestic and foreign combined) was valued at $1,328,537,137 compared with $1,081,361,643 in 1925 and $1,058,763,297 in 1924; the increase over 1925 amounting to $247,175,494, or 22.9 per cent, and over 1924 to $269,773,840, or 25.5 per cent. During the past three fiscal years the exports from Canada, distinguishing Canadian from foreign exports were:

Fiscal Year	Canadian Exports	Foreign Exports	Total Exports
	$	$	$
1924.....	1,045,351,056	13,412,241	1,058,763,297
1925.....	1,069,067,353	12,294,290	1,081,361,643
1926.....	1,315,192,791	13,344,346	1,328,537,137

The domestic exports for 1926 show an increase over similar exports in 1925 of $246,125,438 or 23.0 per cent., and over 1924 an increase of $269,841,735, or 25.8 per cent. Canada's total trade in 1926, while $194,647,132 less than that for the "peak" year since the war (1921), shows an improvement over 1925 of $377,645,689. The decrease in imports from 1921 to 1926 was $312,756,150, while exports show an increase of $118,109,018. Domestic exports increased $126,029,090, while foreign exports show a decrease of $7,920,072. Only in one year was the Dominion's export trade greater than in 1926, viz.: the war year 1918, when it totalled $1,586,169,792, domestic exports amounting to $1,540,027,788 and foreign exports to $46,142,004.

Increase in Imports, 1925-1926.—The increase in the imports of $130,470,195 in 1926 over 1925, was due to gains in the imports of agricultural and vegetable products of $29,831,592 (under this main group crude rubber shows an increase of $22,189,433; alcoholic beverages $6,130,444; fresh fruits $1,775,506; and vegetable oils $1,453,990; while raw sugar shows a decrease of $3,683,952); animal products $7,767,589 (chiefly butter $2,574,819; furs $2,326,937; and raw hides and skins $1,049,670); fibres and textiles $19,321,074 (principally silk and its products $5,666,097; raw cotton $3,920,269; binder twine $3,482,630; flax, hemp and jute $2,994,333; and manila and sisal grass $2,163,839); wood and paper $2,217,713; iron and its products $46,512,359; (mainly automobile parts $8,922,394; farm implements $6,841,664; machinery $6,209,454; rolling mill products $5,924,934; automobiles $5,703,850; and engines and boilers $5,520,251); non-ferrous metals $6,581,435 (chiefly electric apparatus $1,727,132; copper $1,451,783; brass $840,960; and silver bullion $339,749); non-metallic minerals, $8,020,600 (crude petroleum shows an increase of $5,736,060; coke $2,998,355; and refined petroleum $2,084,137; while coal shows a decrease of $6,600,680; chemical products $3,644,039; and miscellaneous commodities $6,573,748).

Increase in Exports, 1925-1926.—The excess of domestic exports in 1926 over 1925 amounting to $246,125,438, was due to increases in agricultural and vegetable products $162,596,795 (principally wheat $112,535,544; refined sugar $12,041,423; rubber goods $9,368,400; oats $8,193,257; potatoes $6,404,984; seeds $6,580,608; barley $5,061,540; and alcoholic beverages $4,982,244; while a few products show decreases, viz.: rye $2,007,620; wheat flour $951,094; and bran, shorts and middlings $518,748); animal products $27,944,002 (chiefly cheese $9,606,112; meats $8,078,955; cattle $4,708,618; and fish $3,293,255); wood and paper $25,064,936 (largely paper $10,163,019; wood pulp $8,344,629; and planks and boards $5,468,337); iron and its products $17,329,137 (chiefly automobiles $9,687,049; farm implements $2,285,629; pigs, blooms, etc. $848,814; and machinery $626,327); non-ferrous metals $7,105,400 (principally lead $3,560,442; nickel $2,654,999; copper, $2,220,376; and aluminium $766,783); raw gold, however, shows a decrease of $2,825,239; non-metallic minerals $3,839,859 (asbestos accounted for $2,178,161 of this increase and cement for $1,297,494); chemical products $1,288,308; and miscellaneous commodities $1,728,593. Exports of fibres and textiles show a decrease of $771,674.

Trade with the United Kingdom.—The trade of Canada with the United Kingdom during the year ended March 31, 1926, was valued at $672,988,590, compared with a similar trade in 1925 valued at $548,251,994, representing an increase of $124,736,596 or about 22.8 per cent. Imports accounted for 10.2 per cent of this increase and exports for 89.8 per cent. In 1925 Canada's imports from the United Kingdom were valued at $163,710,431 and in 1926 at $151,083,946, an increase of $12,626,485 or 8.3 per cent, while her total exports to the United Kingdom in 1926 were valued at $509,278,159 and in 1925 at $397,168,048, showing an increase in exports of $112,110,111 or 28.2 per cent. Domestic exports in 1926 totalled $508,249,000, and in 1925 $395,843,433, while the exports of foreign produce in 1926 were valued at $1,028,850,000 and in 1925 at $1,324,615,000. Compared with the "peak" year in Canadian trade during the post-bellum period (1921), the total trade shows an increase of $144,786,357. This increase was entirely confined to exports as the imports show a decrease, the increase in exports amounting to $195,049,488, and the decrease in imports to $50,263,131.

From 1925 to 1926 the total increase in imports, amounting to $12,626,485, was quite general as every main group shows an increase except fibres and textiles. Agricultural and vegetable products increased from $28,265,980 to $34,603,501 or $6,337,521. This was mainly due to increased imports of alcoholic beverages, which show a gain of $5,579,010. Animal products increased from $4,653,919 to $5,960,932, or $1,307,013. Butter, cheese and furs were largely responsible for this increase. Fibres and textiles decreased from $72,126,492 to $70,153,000.

or $1,973,014. The falling off in cotton goods and raw wool was chiefly responsible for the decrease in the imports of fibres and textiles. The imports of wood and paper increased from $3,438,101 to $3,473,664; iron and its products from $17,794,428 to $17,905,166; non ferrous metals from $4,010,443 to $5,303,872 and non-metallic minerals from $3,648,724 to $4,226,799 or $4 57× 075. The gain in non-metallic minerals was chiefly due to increased imports of coal amounting to $3,614,605. Chemical products increased from $4,146,061 to $4,282,489 and miscellaneous commodities from $6,999,798 to $7,800,530.

The exports of domestic produce from Canada to the United Kingdom from 1925 to 1926 show an increase of $112,406,143. This increase occurred mainly in the main groups of "agricultural and vegetable products" and "animal products", though the exports of the main groups of "wood and paper" and "iron and its products" also show increases. All the other main groups, however, show decreases. The exports of agricultural and vegetable products to the United Kingdom from 1925 to 1926 increased from $264,629,910 to $356,888,044 or $92,258,134. This increase occurred largely in the following commodities: Wheat $81,532,937; refined sugar $9,672,926; and barley $2,415,811. Animals and their products increased from $80,402,251 to $98,784,204 or $18,381,953. Cheese accounted for $8,456,675 of this increase, meats for $6,047,766 and cattle for $3,307,287. The increase in the exports of wood and paper from $16,359,997 to $19,131,234, or $2,771,237, occurred chiefly in wood pulp which increased $1,707,011 and newsprint paper $655,206; while the increase in the exports of iron and its products from $6,689,169 to $8,307,441, or $1,618,272, occurred principally in the exports of automobiles.

Trade with the United States.—During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1926, the trade of Canada with the United States amounted to $1,095,680,246 as against a trade in 1925 of $936,964,652, the increase amounting to $158,715,594 or 16·9 per cent. Imports accounted for 63 per cent of the total increase and exports for 37 per cent. In 1926 the imports from the United States amounted to $609,825,350 as compared with an import trade in the previous year of $509,780,009, representing an increase of $100,045,341 or 19·6 per cent, while exports to the United States in 1926 totalled $485,854,896 as compared with $427,184,643 in 1925, the increase during the year amounting to $58,670,253 or 13·7 per cent. In 1926 the domestic exports were $474,890,028 and in 1925 $417,417,144, while the foreign exports in 1926 amounted to $10,964,868 and in 1925 to $9,767,499, the increases being: Domestic $57,472,884 and foreign $1,197,369. Compared with the year, 1921, which was a record year, in Canada's trade with the United States, in both imports and exports, the total trade in 1926 shows a decrease of $321,198,510, a decrease in imports amounting to $246,351,470 and in exports to $74,847,040.

The increase in the imports, 1925 to 1926, amounting to $100,045,341, was largely due to increased imports of iron and its products, agricultural and vegetable products, and fibres and textiles. The imports under every main group show increases except the main group non-metallic minerals. The agricultural and vegetable products group increased from $76,561,849 to $98,530,605 or $21,968,756. The principal commodities responsible for this increase were rubber $18,377,845 and fresh fruits $1,594,836. Animals and their products increased from $28 588,214 to $32,996,830 or $4,408,616, the commodities chiefly responsible for this increase being, raw hides and skins, $1,769,332; furs $1,637,231; and meats $655,283. The main group fibres and textiles increased from $64,002,595 to $79,115,464, or $15,112,869; raw cotton being responsible for $3,921,014 of this increase; silk for $2,924,607; binder twine for $2,546,879; cotton goods for $1,840,917; manila and sisal grass for $1,663,919; and flax, hemp and jute products for $1,301,329. Wood and paper increased from $32,653,591 to $34,715,231; iron and its products from $113,541,924 to $158,029,982 or $44,488,058. The following iron and steel items largely accounted for this increase: automobile parts $8,895,532; farm implements $781,362; rolling mill products $5,930,253; automobiles $5,663,414; engines and boilers $499,858; and machinery $4,965,721. Non-ferrous metals increased from $33,297,222 to $38,911,300 or $5,614, 078; imports of copper being responsible for $1,416,901 of this increase, electric apparatus for $1,216,744, manganese oxide for $880,009, and brass for $656,081. The imports under the main group of non-metallic minerals decreased from $111,970,906 to $10,686,261, or $1,284,645. This decrease was chiefly due to falling off in imports of coal. Coal decreased $10,496,850, while imports of coke show an increase of $2,927,082; crude petroleum $547,553; and refined petroleum $2,021,052. Chemical products increased from $16,366,165 to $18,754,942 and miscellaneous commodities from $32,797,543 to $38,084,735.

The increase in the exports of Canadian produce to the United States in 1926 compared with 1925, amounting to $57,472,884 occurred in eight of the nine main groups, the fibres and textiles group showing a decrease. Agricultural and vegetable products increased from $42,587,129 to $65,964,214 or $23,377,085; seeds accounting for $6,950,537 of this increase, alcoholic beverages for $6,385,589, wheat for $6,114,410, and potatoes for $4,900,591. Animals and their products exported increased from $57,833,090 to $63,559,623 or $5,726,533; the principal commodities accounting for this increase were: milk and cream, fresh $1,764,752; meat $1,627,557; and cattle $1,581,445. Fibres and textiles, however, decreased from $4,894,415 to $4,621,774. The wood and paper group increased from $220,056,988 to $237,898,369 or $17,841,381; the exports of newsprint paper being responsible for $6,951,090 of this increase, planks and boards for $5,317,048, and wood pulp for $5,326,186. The exports under this main group account for practically 50 per cent of Canada's exports to the United States. Iron and its products increased from $5,063,148 to $7,582,833; non-ferrous metals from $57,334,402 to $58,555,643; and non-metallic minerals from $12,943,809 to $17,244,986 or $4,301,177. The exports of the following commodities were largely responsible for this increase, asbestos, (raw) for $1,745,535, cement for $1,096,480, and coal for $571,324. Chemicals and products increased from $7,826,076 to $9,204,155 and miscellaneous commodities from $8,878,087 to $10,258,431.

Trade of Canada with the British Empire.—Canada was the first of the British Dominions to grant a preference to goods the produce and manufacture of the United Kingdom and reciprocating British Dominions and possessions. This preference was extended by Order-in-Council from time to time to other portions of the British Empire until to-day it is applicable to practically every British Dominion and possession, except Newfoundland. In the case of Newfoundland, however, Canada grants free admission to fish and fish products.

The preference has stimulated imports from the United Kingdom and British Dominions and possessions since its inception in 1897. In 1896 imports from the United Kingdom amounted to only $32,824,505 and from other portions of the Empire to $2,388,647. A decade later the imports from the United Kingdom had increased to $69,183,915 and from other portions of the Empire to $14,605,519. This trade in 1926 was United Kingdom (including Irish Free State) $163,729,749 and other portions of the Empire $43,967,214. In 1896 the proportion of Canada's imports from the British Empire as a whole was 33.3 per cent and in 1926 only 22.4 per cent the relative decrease being with the United Kingdom and not with other portions of the Empire. The proportion of the Dominion's imports from other portions of the Empire in 1896 was 2.2 per cent and in 1926 4.8 per cent.

The exports of Canadian produce to the United Kingdom in 1896 were valued at $62,717,941 and to other portions of the Empire at $4,048,198. In 1906 the exports to the United Kingdom had increased to $127,456,465 and to other portions of the Empire to $10,964,757. For the fiscal year 1926 the exports to the United Kingdom (including Irish Free State) were $512,958,265 and to other portions of the Empire to $85,634,989. The proportion of Canada's domestic exports to the Empire as a whole shrank from 60.8 per cent in 1896 to 45.5 per cent in 1926. This shrinkage occurred in the exports to the United Kingdom as the proportion to other portions of the Empire rose from 3.7 per cent in 1896 to 6.5 per cent in 1926. The trade of Canada with the British Empire for the fiscal years 1896, 1906, 1914 and 1926 was as under:

TRADE OF CANADA WITH THE BRITISH EMPIRE

NOTE.—For comparative purposes the trade of Canada with the Irish Free State in 1926 is included with the United Kingdom.

With reference to the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with the British Empire an analysis will show that the bulk of the imports into Canada from the United Kingdom consists largely of manufactured products, whereas the imports from other portions of the British Empire are made up chiefly of raw materials and products in a semi-manufactured condition. The exports to the United Kingdom on the other hand are composed principally of raw materials and semi-manufactured products while the exports to other portions of the British Empire consist chiefly of manufactured products. During the fiscal year 1925 the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with the United Kingdom, was:—

	Imports %	Exports %
Raw materials.....	7.1	64.5
Partly manufactured.....	5.3	6.3
Fully manufactured.....	87.6	29.2

Trade of Canada with Other Countries.—With reference to the trade of Canada with other countries than the United Kingdom and the United States attention is directed to tables Nos. 10 to 27, pages 62 to 85, giving the trade of Canada in principal commodities with 54 British and foreign countries for the fiscal years 1925 and 1926.

The statistics in the following table indicate the trend of Canadian trade from 1914 to 1926, (a) with all countries; (b) with the United Kingdom; and (c) with the United States.

Basis of Canada's Increased Trade.—The increase in the Dominion's import trade 1926 compared with that for the year 1925, amounting to $130,470,195, was in large measure due to increased importations of raw materials and semi-manufactured products for use in Canadian industries. The increased imports of these classes of products account for over 50 per cent of the total increase. The increase (with the possible exception of raw rubber) was not due to higher prices, but almost entirely to an increase in the quantities imported, which in almost every instance were considerably in excess of those imported in 1925. The imports of raw rubber and raw sugar present some interesting comparisons. In 1925 the imports of raw rubber were—quantity 34,386,858 pounds, value $9,793,138, and in 1926—quantity 46,813,120 pounds, value $31,982,571, an increase in quantity of only 12,426,262 pounds and in value $22,189,433; whereas the imports of raw sugar in 1925 were—quantity 838,742,661 pounds, value $35,805,791, and in 1926—quantity 1,158,544,069 pounds, value $32,121,839, showing a decrease in quantity of 183,238,597 pounds and in value $3,683,952.

n increase in quantity of 319,801,408 pounds and a decrease in value amounting to $3,683,952. Probably the most notable increase in raw materials was in oxide of manganese, which increased from 44,258,603 pounds to 114,648,896 pounds. This increase was reflected in increased exports of ferro-manganese and other ferro-alloys, which show an increase, 1925 to 1926, from 830 tons, value $179,324, to 14,939 tons, value $1,547,376.

The increase in manufactured products from 1925 to 1926 was confined chiefly to the following commodities, viz.: farm implements, which increased from $6,495,000 to $13,337,000; machinery from $25,822,000 to $32,032,000; alcoholic beverages from $19,124,000 to $25,254,000; automobiles from $10,091,000 to $15,795,000; silk fabrics from $12,922,000 to $16,882,000; chemical products from $24,760,000 to $28,404,000; binder twine from $3,228,000 to $6,710,000 and refined petroleum from $12,899,000 to $14,983,000. The increased imports of raw materials, semi-manufactured products and certain manufactured products, such as axles for vehicles, automobile engines, automobile parts and tin plate (which may be virtually considered as raw materials since they are used in Canadian industries) would indicate a revival in the industrial activities of the Dominion. In the following table it will be noted that only four commodities out of the thirty listed show a decrease in the quantities imported, viz.: alumina, grease, peanut oil and raw wool.

The increase in the exports of domestic produce from Canada in 1926 compared with a similar trade in 1925, amounting to $246,125,438, was chiefly due to increased exports of products produced on Canadian farms or of commodities manufactured directly from such products, viz.: wheat, cheese, oats, meats, potatoes, flaxseed, barley, cattle and whiskey; products of the forest commodities manufactured directly from such products, viz.: newsprint paper, wood pulp, ed planks and boards; products of the mine or articles manufactured from such products, viz.: automobiles, lead and nickel; certain other products manufactured from imported materials, viz.: sugar and rubber tires. The increase in the value of these exports, with the possible exception of potatoes, was not mainly due to higher prices, but to an increase in the quantities exported. The increases in the seventeen commodities above noted account for over 90 per cent of the total increase in the Dominion's exports. An analysis of the statistics in the following table of exports will indicate that nine of the seventeen commodities mentioned, which were produced on Canadian farms or were manufactured from such products, will account for about 66 per cent of the total increase.

Geographical Distribution of Canada's Trade.—It will be observed on reference to the table below that in 1926 Europe and North America took 88.5 per cent of the Dominion exports as against 90.7 per cent in 1925 and 89.6 per cent in 1924. The proportion shipped to Europe in 1926 was 49.3 per cent compared with 47.9 per cent in 1925 and 44.8 per cent in 1924; while the proportion to North America in 1926 was 39.2 per cent compared with 42 per cent in 1925 and 44.8 per cent in 1924. From 1924 to 1926 the proportion of Canadian exports to the United Kingdom increased from 34.5 per cent to 38.6 per cent whereas the proportion to the United States decreased from 41.2 per cent to 36.1 per cent. The same two countries in 1926 furnished Canada with 93.6 per cent of her imports as against 93.3 per cent in 1925 and 94.2 per cent in 1924. The proportion received from Europe in 1926 was 24.1 per cent compared with 25.4 per cent in 1925 and 22.6 per cent in 1924 while the proportion received from North America in 1926 was 69.5 per cent compared with 67.9 per cent in 1925 and 71.6 per cent in 1924. From 1924 to 1926 the proportion of the Dominion's imports from the United Kingdom increased from 17.2 per cent to 17.6 per cent, while the proportion from the United States decreased from 67.3 per cent to 65.7 per cent. The imports from every continent in 1926 show an increase over 1924 and also over 1925, except in the case of South America and Africa, while Canada sold more goods to every continent in 1926 than in 1925 or 1924 except in the case of Oceania. In 1926 the Dominion sold goods to Asia and Oceania valued at $109,800,000 compared with $67,200,000 in 1924, the increase to Asia amounting to $37,700,000 and to Oceania to $4,900,000. The imports from Asia and Oceania also show substantial increases.

During 1926 many changes have taken place in the principal markets whence Canada received her supplies as well as in the chief markets to which she shipped her products. The table which follows giving the "Trade of Canada with Leading Countries, 1926" shows that the United States and the United Kingdom furnished the Dominion with 83.3 per cent of its imports as compared with 83.0 per cent in the previous year. Since 1882 the United States has occupied first place in the Dominion's import trade, the United Kingdom being in second place. With regard to the imports from other chief markets France occupied third position as in 1925, Cuba advanced from fifth place to fourth place, Germany from eighth to fifth, Japan from seventh to sixth, Belgium from thirteenth to ninth, Netherlands from twelfth to tenth, San Domingo from eighteenth to eleventh, Peru from fourteenth to twelfth and the Straits Settlements from twenty-eighth to thirteenth, while British India fell from fourth place to seventh place, British Guiana from eighth to fourteenth and Barbados from tenth to fifteenth.

The rank of the Dominion's leading customers, in 1926 shows as great a change as the rank of the chief suppliers of goods to Canada. The United Kingdom and the United States in 1926 took 74.6 per cent of the Dominion's exports as compared with 76.1 per cent in 1925. The United Kingdom again moved up to first place in Canada's export trade, the United States being a very close second. Of the other leading markets for Canadian goods Japan occupied third place, moving up from fourth and Germany moving down to fourth position, China from 1925 to 1926 rose from fifteenth position to fifth position, Netherlands from ninth to sixth, Australia from tenth to ninth, France from thirteenth to tenth, and Argentina is in twelfth position as in 1925, while Belgium fell from fifth position to seventh position, New Zealand from sixth to eighth, Italy from seventh to eleventh and Newfoundland from eighth to thirteenth.

Canada's Principal Imports.—The eighty (80) chief imports listed in the following table giving "Leading Commodities Imported into Canada, 1926" represent 85.7 per cent of the total imports into Canada. Of these seventy (70) show increases and ten (10) show decreases. The decreases occur in the imports of coal, sugar, woollen goods, cotton goods, settlers' effects, raw wool, dyeing and tanning materials, molasses, clocks and watches, and fish. While some of these commodities show decreases in values the quantities imported show increases,—notably coal, molasses and sugar, the quantities of coal increasing from 15,671,635 tons to 16,651,614 tons, molasses from 5,063,114 gallons to 6,058,389 gallons and sugar from 882,329,494 pounds to 1,174,443,304 pounds. The importer, therefore, obtained these products in the markets of the world at a lower price per unit than in the preceding year. The increases in the seventy (70) commodities were not wholly due to higher prices, but as well to increased quantities imported. the only notable exception being in the case of raw rubber, the average import value of which in 1925 was 28.5 cents per pound and in 1926, 68.3 cents per pound. In the case of other commodities that show increases in values the average import value in 1926 was on the whole on a par with that for 1925, with the possible exception of hides and skins, woollens, jute cloth and certain classes of foodstuffs. Fifteen commodities imported account for about 46 per cent of Canada's imports. These commodities in order of importance were:—coal, 6 per cent of the total imports; sugar, 3.5 per cent; woollen goods, 3.5 per cent; machinery, 3.4 per cent; raw rubber, 3.4 per cent; cotton goods, 3.3 per cent; crude petroleum, 3.2 per cent; raw cotton, 3.1 per cent; fruits, 3.0 per cent; alcoholic beverages, 2.7 per cent; automobile parts, 2.5 per cent; iron and steel plates and sheets, 2.4 per cent; silk goods, 2.3 per cent; electric apparatus, 1.7 per cent; and automobiles 1.7 per cent.

Canada's Principal Exports.—The fifty principal exports listed in the table below giving Leading Canadian Commodities Exported, 1926" make up 91.8 per cent of the Dominion's exports. Of these exports thirty-nine show increases and eleven decreases. The commodities show decreases were: wheat flour, raw gold, pulpwood, settlers' effects, unmanufactured leather, raw hides and skins, apples, rye, condensed milk, coal, and bran, shorts and middlings. In every instance where the values in 1926 were less than in 1925, the quantities exported show corresponding decrease, except in the case of coal. Those commodities showing an increase in value, 1925 to 1926, show a corresponding increase in the quantities, except in the case of iron ore, shingles, and butter. There were no abnormal changes in the average export values from 1925 to 1926 except for potatoes, the export value of which increased from about 74 cents per bushel to about $1.32 per bushel. Ten commodities exported in 1926 accounted for over 62 per cent of the increase in the Dominion's exports. These commodities arranged in order of importance were: wheat, 27.7 per cent of the total exports; printing paper, 7.8 per cent; wheat flour, 3 per cent; planks and boards, 5.0 per cent; wood pulp, 3.8 per cent; meats, 2.8 per cent; fish, 2.7 per cent; automobiles, 2.7 per cent; cheese, 2.5 per cent; and raw gold, 1.9 per cent.

Canada's Trade via the United States.—In recent years imports into Canada from Overseas countries via the United States have steadily declined. There was a slight increase however, in 1926, compared with 1925, which occurred in the imports from the British Empire. The statistics in the following table show that the imports from Overseas countries via the United States in 1925 and 1926, were: United Kingdom, 1925, $554,532, 1926, $1,853,066; Other British Empire, 1925, $3,779,361, 1926, $6,260,189; foreign countries, 1925, $7,281,781, 1926, $6,106,030 and from all Overseas countries, 1925, $11,615,674, 1926, $14,219,285. The proportions were: United Kingdom, 1925, 0.4 per cent, 1926, 1.1 per cent; Other British Empire, 1925, 8.6 per cent, 1926, 14.2 per cent; foreign countries, 1925, 7.9 per cent, 1926, 5.5 per cent; and from all Overseas countries, 1925, 4.2 per cent, 1926, 4.5 per cent.

The exports from Canada via the United States represent a very large proportion of the total exports to Overseas countries. In 1926 such exports show a considerable increase over the year 1925, due largely to increased exports of wheat via the United States. The statistics in the table below show that Canada's exports to Overseas countries via the United States, in 1925 and 1926, were: United Kingdom, 1925, $173,556,264, 1926, $237,327,986; Other British Empire, 1925, $18,350,573, 1926, $22,157,401; foreign countries, 1925, $55,452,730, 1926, $70,466,599; and to all Overseas countries, 1925, $257,359,567, 1926, $329,951,986. The proportions were: United Kingdom, 1925, 43.7 per cent, 1926, 46.6 per cent; Other British Empire, 1925, 23.1 per cent, 1926, 24.3 per cent; foreign countries, 1925, 36.9 per cent, 1926, 29.1 per cent; and to all Overseas countries, 1925, 39.3 per cent, 1926, 39.2 per cent. Statistics show that exports via the United States are gradually increasing, especially to the United Kingdom and foreign countries, while those to other portions of the Empire show little or no expansion.

It will be noted from the statistics in the following table giving "Principal Commodities Exported from Canada to Overseas Countries via the United States and Canadian Sea Ports, fiscal year 1926" that 39.2 per cent of the Dominion's exports to Overseas countries is shipped via the United States and 60.8 per cent via Canadian sea or river ports. The list of commodities given represents over 90 per cent of Canada's exports to Overseas countries, the proportion shipped via the United States being 41.3 per cent, and via Canadian sea or river ports 58.7 per cent. The exports from Canada to Overseas countries via the United States in 1926, amounting to $29,951,986, were the largest on record. The largest exports prior to 1926 were in 1918, which totalled $293,038,839. Canada's principal exports to Overseas countries via the United States in 1926 were wheat, wheat flour, automobiles, barley, bacon and hams, farm implements, rubber casings, oats, automobile parts, sugar, machinery and condensed milk.

Relation Between Trade in Raw and Manufactured Products.—During the first quarter of the present century Canada has passed through the same stages of development in her economic life as did the United States during the last quarter of the nineteenth century. In 1870, 67.7 per cent of the total exports from the United States consisted of raw materials, while in 1900, the percentage was only 40.2, but of fully manufactured products, the percentage of the total exports in 1870 was 28.6 and in 1900 48.6. From 1870 to 1900 the imports of raw materials into the United States increased from 25.2 per cent of her total imports to 44.0 per cent, while the imports of fully manufactured products decreased from 62.1 per cent to 40.2 per cent. The statistics for the year 1925 show a further increase in the percentage of fully manufactured products exported, as also in the percentage of raw materials imported for manufacturing purposes, but a further decrease in the percentage of fully manufactured products imported.

The most important factor to be considered in the economic survey of any country is the potential wealth represented by its natural resources. In this respect Canada has hardly a superior among the nations of the world. Not only is Canada very rich in natural resources but her potential wealth is so distributed among the farm, the forest, the mine and the fisheries that its development is greatly facilitated, and the process of realization goes hand in hand with the building up of high-grade manufacturing industries. While every branch of industry in the Dominion shows a steady increase, without doubt the development of manufacturing affords the most striking example of the advancement of the Dominion. While it is true that Canada continues to export large quantities of raw materials, it is a notable fact that the increase in the quantities of raw materials used in the manufacturing industries in recent years has been much greater than the increase in the exports of these products. Many classes of goods which were formerly imported into Canada in large volume are now being manufactured in the Dominion in sufficient quantity not only to meet the requirements of the home market but also for export.

No statistics are as yet available to show what proportion of Canada's imports and exports for 1926 consisted of raw materials, partly manufactured or fully manufactured goods. Statistics for the years 1900 to 1925 indicate, however, that Canada is importing a smaller proportion of manufactured commodities today than a few years ago, while the proportion of imports of raw materials for use in Canadian manufacturing industries show a constant increase. The same is true of the United States, and to a greater extent.

The table below shows that in 1914 the proportion of the imports of raw materials to total imports for Canada and the United States was 21.8 per cent and 46.5 per cent, respectively, while in 1925 it was 27.7 per cent and 49.2 per cent respectively. In 1914 the proportion of imports of fully manufactured goods was, Canada 68.9 per cent and the United States 36.6 per cent while in 1925 the proportion for Canada was 61.5 per cent and the United States 32.5 per cent. With regard to exports, the table shows that in 1914 the proportion of raw materials exported to total exports was, Canada 63.2 per cent and the United States 39.9 per cent, while in 1925 the proportion was, Canada 44.7 per cent and the United States 39.3 per cent. During 1914 the proportion of fully manufactured goods exported to total exports was, Canada 26.7 per cent and the United States 44.0 per cent, but in 1925 the proportion for Canada was 40.2 per cent and the United States 47.2 per cent.

Canada's Position in International Trade.—Canada occupies a much better position in international trade today than in 1913. Even during the past year she has slightly improved her position. This is especially true in respect to her visible trade balance. In 1913 Canada occupied eighth position among the leading importing countries of the world and in 1925 she still occupied the same position, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, France, Italy, Japan and the Netherlands. With respect to exports, Canada occupied tenth place in 1913, but in 1925 she had advanced to sixth place, being surpassed by the United States, United Kingdom, France, Germany and British India. Though Canada occupied eighth place in imports and sixth place in exports in 1925, she held sixth place in aggregate trade, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, France and British India. In percentage of increase of import trade from 1913 to 1925, Canada took fourteenth place among the great trading nations, and had first place in percentage increase of exports. With reference to imports per capita, Canada occupied fifth place in 1913 and eighth place in 1925, while in exports she occupied seventh place in 1913 and second place in 1925, being exceeded only by the Dominion of New Zealand. In respect to aggregate trade per capita Canada was in sixth place in 1913 and in 1925, being now surpassed by New Zealand, Australia, Denmark, Netherlands and Switzerland. With reference to visible trade balance, Canada in 1913 occupied seventeenth position among the leading commercial nations of the world and in 1925 she was in third position, with a favourable balance amounting to $392,800,000. In 1913, as also in 1925, the United States stood in first place and British India in second place. On a per capita basis, however, Canada in 1925 occupied first place by a wide margin in respect to her favourable trade balance, it amounting to $41.95 per head. From 1913 to 1925 the improvement in Canada's visible trade balance amounted to $615,700,000 or $71.56 per head. Canada, therefore, has a trade record that probably has not been equalled by any other country in the world.

NOTE.—For the twelve months ended March, 1926, the visible trade balance of Canada was larger than that for the United States, the favourable balance for Canada amounting to $401,134,000, and that for the United States to $352,364,000. The trade of Canada and the United States for the twelve months ended March 31, 1926, was:—

Canada's Principal Imports and Exports, 1914 and 1926.—The two tables below showing

(A) Quantity and Value of Principal Commodities Imported into Canada, 1914 and 1926, and (B) Quantity and Value of Principal Canadian Commodities Exported from Canada, 1914 and 1926; with percentage relation of quantity and value of 1926 to 1914, demonstrate that the physical volume of the trade in 1926 is much greater than in the year immediately preceding the war, viz.: 1914. In table B (Principal Exports) only three items listed out of thirty-seven, for which quantity statistics are available, show decreases, viz.: coal, flaxseed, and silver ore and bullion, while other items show, in most instances, a marked increase in the physical volume exported. Table A (Principal Imports) shows a larger number of items in which decreases have occurred, yet these are greatly outnumbered by the items of increase, and in the aggregate the net physical increase is substantial.

PREFACE

This review and statistical summary of Canadian external trade follows very closely the lines of last year's issue.

In the analytical review some new aspects are considered and in the main tables increased numbers of items are shown.

The special review "Sixty Years of Trade Progress" has been added in compliance with the general demand for retrospective data occasioned by the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation.

The trade with twenty-one additional countries has been segregated in the tables in the latter part of the report. This makes seventy-seven countries for which the imports and exports are shown by principal items or groups.

The figures for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1927, are unrevised; those for earlier years are final.

R. H. COATS,
Dominion Statistician

REVIEW OF CANADA'S FOREIGN TRADE, 1926-27

The foreign trade of Canada during the year 1926-27, was, on the whole, satisfactory. The year was marked by steady improvement in practically every phase of the industrial and commercial activities of the country. The more rapid flow of capital into the basic industries during the past year is especially noteworthy. These factors indicate that the Dominion has successfully passed through the post-war liquidation period, with favourable prospects for still greater expansion.

Canada's export trade from 1921 to 1925 expanded more rapidly than her import trade and as a result there was a steadily increasing favourable trade balance. During the past fiscal year, however, exports show a decrease of $61,100,000, while imports, due to the Dominion's increased buying power, have increased $103,600,000, thus reducing by the total of these amounts the favourable trade balance, which amounted to $401,400,000 in 1926, to $236,700,000. On March 31, 1927, Canada's favourable trade balance was largely with the British Empire, as the following statistics show—

Country	"Favourable" balance (+)
	"Unfavourable" balance (-)
United Kingdom.....	(+)284, 100, 000
Other British Empire.....	(+) 44, 900, 000
United States.....	(-)208, 400, 000
Other Foreign Countries.....	(+)116, 100, 000
Net "Favourable" Balance.....	(+)236, 700, 000

On December 31, 1926, Canada stood in third place, as a year ago, among the trading nations of the world, with regard to favourable trade balance, being exceeded by the United States and British India; even with the reduced favourable balance above mentioned Canada leads the word on a per capita basis. (For complete details see section on "Canada's Position in International Trade" page 25).

Changes in the total values of imports and exports over a given period may be due to two causes: (a) an increase or decrease in the quantities of goods imported or exported; or (b) an increase or decrease in the values at which goods were imported or exported. An analysis of Canada's foreign trade shows that the physical volume of both imports and exports in 1926 was greater than for any other year. Statistics have been compiled for the years ended March 31, 1921 to 1926, based on 1914 average values, which demonstrates this as follows:

Fiscal Years	Imports		Exports (Canadian)
	Declared Values	Based on 1914 Average Values	Declared Values	Based on 1914 Average Values

A similar analysis for the year 1927 has not been compiled to date, but a cursory examination of the trade figures for that year seems to indicate that the elimination of price changes would show an increased volume of imports over 1926, but a slightly decreased volume of exports.

Analysis of Canada's Trade.—The foreign trade of Canada for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1927, amounted to $2,298,465,647, compared with a similar trade in 1926 of $2,256,028,869 and in 1925 of $1,878,294,180, the increase over 1926 amounting to $42,436,778 or 1.9

per cent, and over 1925 to $420,171,467 or 22.3 per cent. Imports show an improvement over the years 1926 and 1925, while exports show a decline compared with 1926, but an increase over 1925. In 1927 Canada's import trade was valued at $1,030,892,505, as compared with $927,328,732 in 1926, and $796,932,537 in 1924, the increase over 1926 amounting to $103,563,773 or 11.1 per cent, and over 1925 to $233,959,968 or 29.3 per cent, while export trade in 1927 (domestic and foreign combined) was valued at $1,267,573,142, compared with $1,328,700,137 in 1926, and $1,081,361,643 in 1925; the decrease compared with 1926 amounting to $61,126,995 or 4.6 per cent, whereas the increase compared with 1925 amounted to $186,211,499 or 17.2 per cent. During the past three fiscal years the exports from Canada, distinguishing domestic from foreign were:

The domestic exports of Canada for 1927 show a decrease compared with similar exports in 1926 of $63,198,285 or 4.8 per cent, but an increase over 1925 of $183,090,153, or 17.1 per cent. The United States had a population of 75,000,000 before the total foreign trade of that country was as large as that of Canada today.

Increase in Imports, 1926-1927.—The increase in imports of $103,563,773 in 1927 over 1926, was due to gains in each of the main groups, except "fibres and textiles", which shows a slight decrease. The increase in the agricultural and vegetable products group was $9,680,690 (under this group alcoholic beverages increased $4,058,242; sugar and its products $3,892,363; corn $3,108,914; fruits $2,983,574; vegetable oils $2,112,807; seeds $1,407,216; green coffee $573,167 and vegetables $556,533; while crude rubber decreased $9,793,835); the animal products group increased $4,028,577, (the chief increases under this group were: furs $2,704,616; unmanufactured leather $1,063,526; manufactured leather $654,845; fish $472,910; and eggs $340,357; while meats decreased $556,239 and lard $308,870); the fibres and textiles group decreased $1,177,900; while the wood and paper group increased $7,559,202 (the principal items under this group to show increases were: unmanufactured wood, $2,630,417; paper $1,955,844; books and printed matter $1,592,217; and manufactured wood, $1,380,724); the iron and its products group increased $48,232,685 (the chief increases occurred in automobiles $11,287,853; machinery $9,050,005; automobile parts $7,225,352; rolling mill products $6,111,570; farm implements $5,609,638; and engines and boilers $2,060,595); the non-ferrous metals group increased $5,054,857 (the chief increases were: aluminium $1,538,093; electric apparatus $916,190; clocks and watches $796,533; tin in blocks $680,541; and brass $620,076); while the non-metallic group increased $17,750,767 (the principal increases under this group were: crude petroleum $6,357,000; coal $6,008,842; refined petroleum $1,739,322; glass and glassware $1,340,550 and sulphur $977,733). The chemicals and allied products group increased $3,440,439, while the miscellaneous group increased $8,994,456.

Decrease in Exports, 1926-1927.—The total decrease in the exports of Canadian produce, 1927 compared with 1926, amounted to $63,198,285. Six of the main groups show decreases and three increases. The following groups shows decreases: agricultural and vegetable products, animal products, fibres and textiles, iron and its products, non-ferrous metals, and chemical products, while the following show increases, wood and paper, non-metallic minerals and miscellaneous commodities. The agricultural and vegetable products group decreased $31,064,510 (the chief decreases under this group were: oats $15,638,938; wheat $11,269,448; flaxseed $7,511,185; and refined sugar $4,864,688; while alcoholic beverages increased $3,630,276 and barley $2,692,913); the animal products group decreased $23,683,828 (under this group cheese shows a decrease of $8,762,408; meats $7,703,228; cattle $6,502,422; and butter $5,421,536; while raw furs show an increase of $3,087,339); the fibres and textiles group decreased $1,274,483 while the wood and paper group increased $5,445,307 (under this group printing paper shows an increase of $14,292,314; and unmanufactured wood a decrease of $7,674,892). The iron and its products group shows a decrease of $450,253; the non-ferrous metals group a decrease of $16,-837,073 (under this group raw gold shows a decrease of $19,113,752, while zinc shows an increase of $2,611,555); the non-metallic group increased $3,940,993 (the chief items to show increases were: coal $3,103,287; crude petroleum $820,558, and raw asbestos $693,794; while cement shows a decrease of $1,127,418); the chemical products group decreased $923,375 (the exports of fertilizers under this group decreased $786,029); while the miscellaneous group increased $1,648,-937 (under this group films increased $1,055,418, and musical instruments $760,288).

The most notable decrease in Canadian exports occurred in the item "Gold-bearing quartz, nuggets, etc." which, from 1926 to 1927, decreased from $25,968,094 to $6,854,342 or $19,113,752. The decrease in the exports was not due to a falling off in the production of gold in Canada, (the production during the calendar year 1925 was valued at $35,880,000 and in 1926 at $35,-749,000) but to the fact that in the calendar year 1926 the Royal Mint, Ottawa, purchased about 78 per cent of the Canadian output, while in 1925 it purchased only about 7 per cent.

Trade with the United Kingdom.—Canada's trade with the United Kingdom during the year ended March 31, 1927, was valued at $611,963,386, compared with a similar trade in 1926 valued at $672,997,353, being a decrease of $61,033,967 or 9.1 per cent. The decrease occurred almost entirely in exports. In 1927 Canada's imports from the United Kingdom were valued at $163,941,052 and in 1926 at $163,731,210, an increase during the year of only $209,842 or 0.1 per cent, while her exports to the United Kingdom in 1927 were valued at $448,022,334 and in 1926 at $509,266,143, showing a decrease in exports of $61,243,809 or 12.0 per cent.

Although from 1926 to 1927 the total increase in imports was only $209,842, six of the main groups show increases, viz: agricultural and vegetable products, fibres and textiles, wood and paper, non-ferrous metals, chemical products and miscellaneous commodities. The three main groups to show decreases were: animal products, iron and its products and non-metallic minerals. These decreases, especially those in the iron and its products group ($2,898,253) and the non-metallic minerals group ($4,973,078) were due to the coal strike in Great Britain, which materially affected the exports of iron and steel, and coal, from the United Kingdom to Canada, as also to other countries. If these conditions had not existed in Britain, the increase in the imports would probably have been as great as in 1926. From 1926 to 1927 the imports of agricultural and vegetable products increased from $34,613,364 to $38,254,029, or $3,640,665. The increase in the imports of alcoholic beverages (which gained $4,108,357) was responsible for this increase. The main group of animal products decreased from $5,960,932 to $5,407,837, or $553,095. Decreases in the imports of butter and cheese were largely responsible for the decrease. Fibres and textiles increased from $70,163,647 to $72,752,164, or $2,588,517. The increase in the imports of raw wool, noils and tops, yarns, carpets and woollen tissues was mainly responsible for the gain in the fibres and textiles group. The wood and paper imports increased from $3,473,664 to $3,918,098, or $444,434. The increase in this group may be distributed as follows: paper $223,436; books $129,343; and wood $91,655. The iron and its products imports decreased from $17,907,204 to $15,008,951, or $2,898,253. The falling off in the imports of rolling mill products ($3,257,734), vehicles ($168,265) and tubes and pipes ($106,555) was chiefly responsible for the decrease in the imports of iron and its products. The imports of non-ferrous metals increased from $5,302,581 to $5,642,570, or $339,989, while the non-metallic minerals decreased from $14,226,799 to $9,253,721, or $4,973,078. The decrease in the non-metallic mineral group was principally due to a decrease in the imports of coal ($4,651,860). The chemical products group increased from $4,282,489 to $4,906,256, or $623,767 and the miscellaneous group from $7,800,530 to $8,797,426, or $996,896.

The exports of domestic produce from Canada to the United Kingdom from 1926 to 1927 show a decrease of $61,361,459. Six of the main groups show decreases and three show increases. The agricultural and vegetable products group decreased from $357,051,044 to $330,073,479, or $26,977,565. Under this group wheat decreased $18,915,625; refined sugar $7,495,163; oats $7,139,914; barley $2,914,654; and fresh apples $1,551,364; while the exports of wheat flour increased $5,694,630; rye $2,824,441; rubber goods $1,799,925; and raw tobacco $1,532,668. Animal products decreased from $98,879,095 to $67,819,473, or $31,059,622. The principal commodities under this group to show decreases were: meats $10,129,493; cheese $9,446,529; cattle $6,092,559; and butter $4,541,089. The fibres and textiles group decreased from $1,237,763 to $860,030, or $377,733, while the wood and paper group decreased from $19,147,838 to $15,835,904, or $3,311,934. The falling off in the exports of unmanufactured wood ($3,532,188) was responsible for the decrease in the wood and paper group. The exports of iron and its products decreased from $8,307,441 to $8,129,365, or $178,076; while the exports of non-ferrous metals decreased from $15,605,732 to $14,174,289, or $1,431,443. The decrease in the exports of aluminium in blocks, etc., and silver ore and bullion, amounting to $1,056,133 and $529,160 respectively, accounted for the decrease in the non-ferrous metals group. The non-metallic minerals group, however, increased from $1,220,494 to $2,394,119, or $1,103,625; the chemical products group increased from $3,318,614 to $3,567,256, or $248,642; and the miscellaneous group from $3,469,539 to $4,092,186, or $622,647. The increase in the exports of coal ($821,059) and of crude petroleum ($344,342) was largely responsible for the increase in the exports of non-metallic minerals to the United Kingdom, while the increase in the exports of cameras ($396,270) and films ($293,276) accounted mainly for the increase in the exports under the miscellaneous group. For further details as to the trade of Canada with the United Kingdom 1926 and 1927, see table No. 8, pages 48 to 65 for imports, and table No. 9, pages 66 to 76 for exports.

Trade with the United States.—The trade of Canada with the United States for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1927, amounted to $1,167,039,699, as compared with trade in 1926 of $1,095,671,872, the increase amounting to $71,367,827 or 6.5 per cent. In 1927 the imports from the United States amounted to $687,707,719, as compared with an import trade in 1926 of $609,719,637, representing an increase of $77,988,082 or 12.8 per cent, while exports to the United States in 1927 totalled $479,331,980, as compared with $485,952,235 in 1926, the decrease during the year amounting to $6,620,255 or 1.3 per cent. In 1927 the domestic exports were $466,419,539 and in 1926 $474,987,367, while the foreign exports in 1927 amounted to $12,912,441 and in 1926 to $10,964,868. The domestic exports show a decrease of $8,567,828 and foreign exports an increase of $1,947,573. The increase in the imports from 1926 to 1927, amounting to $77,988,082, was principally due to increased imports of iron and steel ($48,600,000), non-metallic minerals ($21,300,000), miscellaneous commodities ($6,900,000), wood and paper ($6,400,000). Fibres and textiles decreased $12,100,000. The agricultural and vegetable products group decreased from $98,495,849 to $97,104,543, or $1,391,306. Under this group fruits show an increase of $2,770,665, corn $1,965,903, and vegetables $595,675, while raw rubber shows a decrease of $5,654,886 and raw sugar $447,705. The imports under the animal products group increased from $32,954,470 to $35,439,469 or $2,484,999. Furs under this group increased $1,407,362, unmanufactured leather $945,124, manufactured leather $423,119, and eggs $419,292, while meats decreased $814,298 and lard $341,277. Fibres and textiles decreased from $79,105,295 to $66,925,517, or $12,179,778. Raw cotton under this group decreased $8,661,567, binder twine $2,793,847, flax, hemp and jute $1,759,752, hats and caps $312,558, and raw wool $280,082, while manila and sisal grass increased $720,522, and raw silk $455,674. The imports under wood and paper increased from $34,714,964 to $41,122,392, or $6,407,428. The increases under this group were: unmanufactured wood $2,592,724, paper $1,478,278, books $1,336,528, and manufactured wood $999,898. The iron and its products group increased from $158,027,944 to $206,655,021, or $48,627,077. The principal commodities responsible for the increase in iron and its products were: automobiles $11,158,992, machinery $8,533,037, rolling mill products $8,088,278, automobile parts $7,184,372, farm implements $5,442,354, engines and boilers $1,964,419, iron ore $634,469, and tubes and pipes $415,387. The imports under non-ferrous metals increased from $38,911,300 to $42,872,108, or $3,960,808. Under this group electric apparatus increased $1,851,659, aluminium and products $1,483,366, tin in blocks, etc., $800,688, and brass $609,035, while copper decreased $385,871. The imports under the group of non-metallic minerals increased from $110,678,814 to $131,984,446, or $21,305,632. Coal imports accounted for $10,356,866 of the increase under this group, crude petroleum for $6,235,771, refined petroleum for $1,706,807, sulphur for $979,006, clay and its products for $784,557 and glass for $648,336. The chemical products group increased from $18,746,266 to $20,630,534, or $1,884,268, while the imports under the miscellaneous group increased from $38,084,735 to $44,973,689, or $6,888,954.

The decrease in the exports of Canadian produce to the United States from 1926 to 1927 amounted to $8,567,828. Five of the main groups show increases and four decreases. The exports under the main group of agricultural and vegetable products decreased from $65,964,214 to $59,953,683, or $6,010,531. Under this group flaxseed decreased $7,511,203, bran and shorts $1,957,383, and all grains $1,730,555, while the exports of alcoholic beverages increased $4,166,612 and potatoes $1,508,717. The animal products group increased from $63,464,732 to $75,320,135, or $11,855,403. Under this group the following commodities show increases: meats $2,909,431, cheese $2,351,549, raw furs $2,188,986, animals $1,813,834, fish $1,031,308, milk and cream $896,167, and unmanufactured leather $732,943. The exports under the fibres and textiles group decreased from $4,628,071 to $3,451,081, or $1,176,990. The falling off in the exports of raw wool, amounting to $909,970, was mainly responsible for the decrease in the fibres and textiles group. The wood and paper group increased from $237,906,110 to $242,019,601, or $4,113,491. Under this group paper, chiefly newsprint, increased $11,778,876, while unmanufactured wood, principally planks and boards, decreased $6,145,697, and manufactured wood, chiefly wood pulp, decreased $1,656,036. The iron and its products group increased from $7,582,833 to $10,680,762, or $3,097,929. The exports of farm implements accounted for $1,668,589 of the increase under this group, and pigs, blooms and ingots for $1,257,116. The non-ferrous metals group decreased from $58,740,061 to $39,007,020, or $19,733,041. The decrease in the exports of raw gold, amounting to $19,120,373, was largely responsible for the decrease in the non-ferrous metals group. The non-metallic minerals group increased from $17,244,986 to $17,251,325, or $6,339, while the chemical products group decreased from $9,197,929 to $8,092,371, or $1,105,558, and the miscellaneous group increased from $10,258,431 to $10,643,561, or $385,130. For further details as to Canada's trade with the United States, 1926 and 1927, for imports, see table 8, pages 48 to 65, and for exports, see table 9, pages 66 to 76.

Trade of Canada with Other Countries.—With reference to the trade of Canada with other countries than the United Kingdom and the United States, attention is directed to tables Nos. 10-34, pages 77 to 107, giving the trade of Canada in leading commodities with 75 British and foreign countries for the fiscal years 1926 and 1927.

Tariff Legislation.—Canada was the first of the British Dominions to grant a preference to goods, the produce and manufacture of the United Kingdom and reciprocating British Dominions and Possessions. Provision was made in the Customs Tariff Act which went into force on April 23, 1897, to grant a preference of $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on imports of all commodities, except liquors and tobacco, from the United Kingdom and reciprocating British Dominions and Possessions. On June 30, 1898, the preference was increased to 25 per cent, and on June 30, 1900, it was further increased to $33\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. It was enacted in the Customs Tariff Act, 1907, (which provided a tripartite tariff scale, viz: The British Preference, the Intermediate and the General), that the Government may, by Order in Council, extend the provisions of the British Preferential Tariff to any British country. The British Preferential Tariff is practically $33\frac{1}{4}$ per cent less than the General Tariff, while the Intermediate Tariff is somewhat lower than the General.

The British Preferential Tariff today is applicable to practically every British Dominion and Possession, except Newfoundland. In the case of Newfoundland, however, Canada grants free trade in fish and fish products. It will be noted from the following table giving "Trade of Canada with the British Empire and Foreign Countries" that when the British Preferential Tariff was enacted in 1897, Canada's imports from the United Kingdom in 1896 amounted to only $32,824,505, being some $6,208,501 less than for the year 1886. From 1886 to 1896 imports from the United Kingdom show a decrease of about 16 per cent, whereas from 1896 to 1927 the increase was about 400 per cent. The British Preferential Tariff was no doubt responsible for the increase in imports, not only from the United Kingdom, but from other parts of the Empire as well.

It was also enacted in the Customs Tariff Act, 1907, that the Government may, by Order in Council, extend the provisions of the Intermediate Tariff in whole or in part, to any British or foreign country that grants equivalent treatment to Canada. Prior to 1907 Canada had no bargaining machinery of the kind. To-day we have trade treaties or agreements with Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, Finland, France, Japan, Italy and the Netherlands. In 1925 the provisions of the Intermediate Tariff were extended to Spain. Goods, the produce and manufacture of the following countries, get the benefits of the French and Italian treaties, when conveyed without transshipment to a sea or river port of Canada from a country enjoying the benefits of the British

Preferential or Intermediate Tariffs or from any British country entitled to the benefits of the Convention or from any country accorded most favoured nation treatment in tariff matters by Canada, while Canadian goods get various tariff concessions in these countries, viz:—

France	Italian possessions
Colombia	Argentine Republic
Norway	Denmark
Switzerland	Russia (since terminated)
The United Kingdom	Sweden
Italy	Venezuela
British Dominions and possessions	Finland
French possessions	Czecho-Slovakia
Economic Union of Belgium and Luxembourg and possessions
The Netherlands and possessions.

It will be noted by reference to the table giving "Trade of Canada with British and Foreign Countries" that the trade treaties and agreements negotiated with foreign countries have had the effect of stimulating Canadian trade. In the fiscal year 1914 imports from Foreign Countries except the United States, amounted to $68,365,014; in 1922 they had increased to $82,736,883 and in 1927 they totalled $129,791,342, while Canadian exports to Foreign Countries, except the United States, in 1914 amounted to $29,573,097; in 1922 they were $101,816,627; and in 1927 they had increased to $245,296,956.

TRADE OF CANADA WITH THE BRITISH EMPIRE AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES

(Fiscal Years 1886, 1896, 1906, 1914, 1922 and 1927)

NOTE.—For comparative purposes the trade of Canada with the Irish Free State in 1927 is included with the United Kingdom.

Seasonal Changes in Foreign Trade.—The seasonal movement of Canada's foreign trade for 1927 shows no abnormal tendencies except in the exports for the month of June, due to heavy shipments of wheat in that month. It will be observed from the statistics in the following table showing "Canada's Monthly Imports and Exports" that the imports for the summer months are usually greater than for the other months of the year, though the monthly variations are not as marked as direct shipping facilities would indicate, the chief port, Montreal, being closed for a considerable portion of each year. Exports, however, as a result of the influence of agricultural products, reach a low point during the summer months, rise to a peak during the fall months, and gradually decline during the winter and spring months. The very large increase in recent years of the exports of pulp and paper and other manufactured products the export of which is not seasonal but almost constant, has had the effect of reducing the proportionate seasonal fluctuation of total exports.

Canada's Increased Imports.—The increase in the Dominion's import trade in 1927, compared with that for the year 1926, amounting to $103,563,773, was only partially due to an increase in the imports of products for use in Canadian industries, which accounted for only about 15 per cent of the total increase. The imports of foodstuffs (mainly fruits, grains and vegetables), alcoholic beverages, anthracite coal, seeds and other raw or semi-manufactured products not indigenous to Canada, account for probably another 20 per cent, while the increase in the imports of manufactured products (mainly automobiles, which increased $11,289,000; machinery $9,050,000; farm implements $5,610,000; woollen goods $3,628,000; silk fabrics $2,979,000; structural iron $2,137,000; paper $1,956,000; books and printed matter $1,592,000; manufactured wood $1,381,000; glass $1,341,000; refined sugar $1,061,000; electric apparatus $916,000; gasoline $837,000; silk clothing $813,000) will account for the balance or 65 per cent of the total increase. Attention is directed to the statistics in the following table giving "Imports of Sixty-Three Leading Commodities for Canadian Industries, 1927". Of the forty-seven (47) commodities for which quantity statistics are available, thirty-six (36) show increases and eleven (11) decreases. It will be noted further that of the commodities that show increases in quantity, six (6) show decreases in values, viz:—

Commodity	Increase in Quantity	Decrease in Value
	Pounds	$
Raw rubber.....	3,411,494	9,793,835
Raw cotton.....	7,235,662	8,687,792
Raw hides.....	4,499,621	272,360
Raw wool.....	2,973,915	12,653
Cotton yarn.....	309,586	234,711
Artificial silk yarn.....	100,752	693,643

The following commodities, however, show decreases in quantity, but increases in value, viz:—

Commodity	Decrease in Quantity	Increase in Value
	Pounds	$
Raw sugar.....	28,985,169	2,825,827
Raw cocoa.....	2,832,900	31,463
Glycerine for explosives.....	374,450	147,670

In the case of commodities that show an increase or decrease in both quantity and value it will be found in most instances that the increase or decrease in the value was proportionately less than in the quantity. In other words the Canadian manufacturer obtained his imported raw materials, as a rule, at a lower price in 1927 than in 1926.

Geographical Distribution of Canada's Trade.—It will be noted by reference to the statistics in the following table giving "Trade of Canada by Continents, 1925, 1926 and 1927" that in 1927 Europe and North America took 88.6 per cent of the Dominion's exports, as compared with 88.5 per cent in 1926, and 90.7 per cent in 1925. The proportion shipped to Europe in 1927 was 48.2 per cent, compared with 49.3 per cent in 1926, and 47.9 per cent in 1925; while the proportion sent to North America in 1927 was 40.4 per cent, compared with 39.2 per cent in 1926 and 42.8 per cent in 1925. From 1925 to 1927 the proportion of Canada's exports to the United Kingdom decreased from 37.0 per cent to 35.7 per cent, whereas the proportion to the United States decreased from 39.1 per cent to 37.2 per cent. Europe and North America furnished Canada in 1927 with 93.6 per cent of her imports as compared with 93.6 per cent in 1926 and 93.3 per cent in 1925. The proportion furnished by Europe in 1927 was 23.5 per cent, as compared with 24.1 per cent in 1926 and 25.4 per cent in 1925, while the proportion furnished by North America in 1927 was 70.1 per cent, compared with 69.5 per cent in 1926 and 67.9 per cent in 1925. From 1925 to 1927 the proportion of Canada's imports from the United Kingdom decreased from 19.0 per cent to 15.9 per cent while the proportion from the United States increased from 64.0 per cent to 66.7 per cent. The imports from every continent in 1927 show an increase over 1925 and 1926, except in the case of South America in 1925 and Asia in 1926, while Canada sold more goods to every Continent in 1927 than in 1925 but less than in 1926 to Europe, North America and Asia. Imports from the Continents of South America, Asia, Oceania and Africa increased from $59,300,000 to $66,500,000 from 1926 to 1927, while Canadian exports to the same Continents from 1926 to 1927 decreased from $150,500,000 to $143,200,000.

Canada's Imports from Principal Countries.—Increases occurred in Canada's import trade from 26 of the 35 principal countries in 1927, whereas only nine show decreases. Of the total increase in Canada's imports in 1927, amounting to $103,563,773, the imports from the United States show an increase of $77,988,082; from Germany $5,037,654; from France $4,838,782; from Australia $3,254,143; from Belgium $2,710,135; and from China $2,493,597; while imports from the following principal countries decreased, viz: Cuba $2,986,709; British Straits Settlements $1,917,571; British India $1,596,539; Fiji $1,336,662 and Mexico $1,311,488. During 1927 many changes have taken place in the principal markets whence Canada received her supplies. The statistics in the following table, "Canada's Imports from Thirty-Five Leading Countries, 1927," indicate that the United States and the United Kingdom furnished the Dominion with 82.6 per cent of its imports. Since 1882 the United States has occupied first place in Canada's import trade, the United Kingdom being in second position. With reference to the imports from other chief markets, France occupied third place as in 1926. Germany has moved from fifth place to fourth place, while Japan has moved into fifth place, being in sixth place last year. Belgium has moved from ninth position to sixth, Switzerland from eighth to seventh, while Cuba dropped from fourth to ninth position.

Canada's Exports to Principal Countries.—During the year 1927 the exports from Canada of domestic produce show a decrease of $63,198,286. Decreases occurred in 19 of the 40 principal countries, whereas 21 show increases. The principal countries to show decreases were: the United Kingdom $61,361,459; China $10,956,507; United States $8,567,828; Japan $4,765,831; New Zealand $3,023,494; Norway $1,739,783; Cuba $1,698,011 and Belgium $1,461,625; while the following countries show increases: Italy $10,026,430; Germany $3,676,984; Australia $3,554,135; Netherlands $2,897,771; British India $2,574,678; Brazil $2,459,088; Greece $2,313,363; Irish Free State $1,328,997 and France $1,267,970. During 1927 many changes, as in imports, have taken place in the chief markets to which Canada shipped her products. It will be noted by reference to the statistics in the following table giving "Canada's Domestic Exports to Forty Leading Countries, 1927", that the United States and the United Kingdom took 72.9 per cent of the Dominion's exports. The United States has moved into first position once more, the United Kingdom being second. Of the other leading markets for Canadian products, Germany in 1927 occupied third place, moving up from fourth; and Japan fourth place, moving down from third. The Netherlands has moved from sixth to fifth place, and Italy has moved from eleventh to sixth place. Belgium occupied seventh place as last year. Australia has moved to eight from ninth place, France from tenth to ninth place, while New Zealand has moved down to tenth place from eighth, and China to eleventh from fifth place. Argentina and Newfoundland occupied the same positions in 1927 as in 1926, viz: twelfth and thirteenth, while British India has moved to fourteenth place from sixteenth, and British South Africa from fourteenth to fifteenth place.

Canada's Principal Imports.—It will be observed by reference to the statistics in the following table giving "One Hundred Leading Commodities Imported into Canada, 1927" that the total value of these commodities represents 82.6 per cent of Canada's total imports. Of these, seventy-six (76) show increases in value, and twenty-four (24) show decreases, while forty-one of the commodities for which there are quantity statistics show increases and eleven (11) show decreases. While nine (9) of these show decreases in values, the quantities show increases,—notably raw cotton, which increased from 128,560,963 pounds to 135,796,625 pounds; raw hides from 53,408,984 pounds to 57,908,605 pounds; raw rubber from 46,813,120 pounds to 50,224,614 pounds; grey and white cotton from 29,977,869 yards to 31,428,798 yards; raw wool from 13,449,506 pounds to 16,423,421 pounds; canned vegetables from 13,756,578 pounds to 13,977,167 pounds; molasses from 6,058,389 gallons to 6,695,372 gallons; cotton yarn from 3,130,064 pounds to 3,439,650 pounds; and artificial silk yarn from 1,958,455 pounds to 2,059,217 pounds.

In the case of a large number of commodities that show increases in both quantities and values the price per unit in 1927 was less than in 1926, notably in the following commodities: crude petroleum, automobiles, plates and sheets, worsteds and serges, vegetable oils, coloured cottons, corn, raw tobacco, green coffee, band and hoop iron, manila and sisal grass, noils and tops (wool), nuts, woollen yarn, raw silk, tweeds, fertilizers, sulphur, canned fruits and wool dress goods to be dyed. The importer therefore, obtained these products, both raw and manufactured, in the markets of the world at a lower price per unit than in 1926. Twenty commodities account for about 47 per cent of Canada's imports. These commodities in order of importance were: Coal, 6 per cent of the total imports; machinery 4 per cent; crude petroleum 3.5½ per cent; raw sugar 3.4 per cent; automobile parts, 2.9½ per cent; spirits and wines, 2.8 per cent; automobiles, 2.6¼ per cent; iron plates and sheets, 2.3¼ per cent; raw rubber, 2.1½ per cent; silk fabrics and velvets, 2.0¾ per cent; green fruits, 2.0½ per cent; raw cotton, 1.9½ per cent; farm implements 1.8½ per cent; electric apparatus, 1.6½ per cent; engines and boilers 1.4½ per cent; worsteds and serges, 1.3¾ per cent; books and printed matter, 1.3½ per cent; raw furs, 1.3 per cent; gasoline 1.2 per cent; and tea 1.1¼ per cent.

Canada's Principal Exports.—By reference to the statistics in the following table showing "Seventy Leading Canadian Commodities Exported from Canada, 1927" it will be noted that they represent 94-8 per cent of Canada's total domestic exports and that the total decrease in these commodities accounts for 95-8 per cent of the total decrease of $63,198,285. Of these seventy (70) leading commodities, thirty-five (35) show decreases and a similar number increases, but the decreases exceeded the increases in value by $60,577,561. Thirty (30) of these leading commodities for which there are quantity statistics, however, show increases and twenty-four (24) decreases. The principal commodities to show increases and decreases were:

The most notable decrease occurred in raw gold, which was not due to decreased output but to other causes stated elsewhere. There were no abnormal changes in the average export values in 1927, except in the case of wheat, which apparently brought a little lower price in the world's markets. Exports of sugar, cattle, meats, dairy products and oats show pronounced decreases, very largely due to a partially restricted market in Britain, (which is Canada's chief market) owing to the coal strike. Ten commodities exported in 1927 accounted for over 63 per cent of the Dominion's total export. These commodities were: Wheat, 28·2 per cent; printing paper, 9·3 per cent; wheat flour, 5·5 per cent; planks and boards 4·8 per cent; wood pulp, 4 per cent fish, 2·7½ per cent; automobiles, 2·5½ per cent; meats, 2·3½ per cent; barley, 2·0¾ per cent; and cheese, 2 per cent.

Canada's Trade via the United States.—Canada's imports from overseas countries via the United States in recent years have steadily declined, especially those from the British Empire. This decrease has followed: (1) general propaganda to utilize Canadian sea and river ports, and (2) additional concessions to goods imported under the Preferential tariff if they came direct. Provision has been made in trade treaties and agreements negotiated with foreign countries that goods must be imported via a Canadian sea or river port in order to obtain the full benefits of special rates of duty. There was a decrease in imports via the United States during the year 1927 compared with 1926 of $1,485,065, the decrease in the imports from the British Empire amounting to $3,552,714, while the imports from foreign countries show an increase of $2,094,649. The following table provides an analysis of this feature of Canadian import trade for the last four fiscal years.

The exports from Canada to Overseas countries via the United States continue to remain about stationary, the proportions for the past three fiscal years being: 1925, 39-3 per cent; 1926, 39-2 per cent; and 1927, 39-5 per cent. The total value of commodities exported to Overseas countries in 1927 was $19,667,108 less than for the year 1926, wheat accounting for $13,655,313 or about 70 per cent of this decrease. The decrease in wheat also accounted for 66 per cent of the total decrease to the United Kingdom. Comparisons for four years are as follows:—

The subjoined table giving "Principal Commodities Exported from Canada to Overseas Countries via the United States and via Canadian Sea or River Ports, 1927", illustrates the details of this movement. The commodities listed represent 94.6 per cent of all goods shipped to Overseas Countries via the United States, and 85.5 per cent of those going via Canadian sea or river ports. During the past two or three years a considerable amount of Canadian grain exported from Fort William and Port Arthur to Overseas countries via the United States has been re-routed from United States lake ports via the St. Lawrence route for ocean shipment at Montreal. The amount of Canadian grain re-routed for export at Montreal during the calendar years 1925 and 1926 was:—

Grains	1925	1926
	Bushels	Bushels
Barley.....	1,439,000	361,000
Oats.....	2,395,000	697,000
Rye.....	1,170,000	370,000
Wheat.....	17,779,000	15,794,000
Total.....	22,783,000	17,222,000

This re-routed Canadian grain in these years was not recorded as an export at Montreal as it had already been recorded as an export at Fort William or Port Arthur. It was recorded, however, as "in transit" grain from the United States via the Port of Montreal.

In order to obtain the actual amount of barley, oats, rye and wheat shipped via Canadian sea and river ports, this re-routed Canadian grain should be added to the quantity already thus recorded and deducted from the quantity shown as exported via United States channels.

PRINCIPAL CANADIAN COMMODITIES EXPORTED TO OVERSEAS COUNTRIES WITH PORTIONS SHIPPED VIA THE UNITED STATES (INDIRECT) AND VIA CANADIAN SEA OR RIVER PORTS (DIRECT)—YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 1927

Relation Between Trade in Raw and Manufactured Products.—The development of a country industrially is often indicated by the character of the goods it imports and exports. In the early years of Canada's development the imports were made up chiefly of manufactured products and the exports of raw and semi-manufactured products. Since the opening of the twentieth century, this is almost reversed, a large percentage of the imports consisting of raw and semi-manufactured products for use in Canadian manufacturing industries, and the exports consisting to a considerable degree of products which have undergone some process of manufacture. Thus, the imports of partly and fully manufactured goods from 1900 to 1926 increased from $129,693,000 to $676,463,000, while exports of similar goods during the same period increased from $98,906,000 to $695,325,000. Since the opening of the present century Canada has passed through much the same stages of development in her economic life as did the United States during the last quarter of the nineteenth century. From 1870 to 1900 imports of raw materials into the United States increased from 25.2 per cent of the total imports to 44.0 per cent, while the imports of manufactured goods during the same years decreased from 62.1 per cent to 40.2 per cent. The exports of raw materials from the United States from 1870 to 1900 decreased from 67.7 per cent of the total exports to 40.2 per cent, and the exports of manufactured goods increased from 28.6 per cent to 48.6 per cent. Statistics for 1926 show a further improvement in this respect. Imports of raw materials from 1900 to 1926 increased from 44.0 per cent to 54.5 per cent of the total imports, and imports of manufactured goods decreased from 40.2 per cent to 27.7 per cent, while the exports of raw materials during the same period decreased from 40.2 per cent to 33.4 per cent of the total exports, and exports of manufactured goods increased from 48.6 per cent to 53.0 per cent. Canada has not developed so rapidly in this respect as the United States, i.e., in increasing exports of manufactured goods but curtailing imports, while curtailing exports of raw materials but increasing imports, but she has made considerable progress in this regard since 1910, though the tendency for the year 1926 was in the opposite direction as the following table shows:—

With reference to the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with the British Empire and Foreign Countries, analysis shows that the bulk of the imports into Canada from the United Kingdom and the United States consists of manufactured products, while the exports are made up very largely of raw and semi-manufactured products. During the fiscal year 1926 the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with the United Kingdom and the United States was:—

	Imports from		Exports to
	United Kingdom	United States	United Kingdom	United States
	%	%	%	%
Raw materials.....	8.2	34.3	66.8	33.9
Partly manufactured.....	5.2	7.4	5.1	28.2
Fully manufactured.....	86.6	58.3	28.1	37.9

With regard to the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with countries other than the United Kingdom and the United States, it will be found on analysis that Canada's imports from countries with highly developed manufacturing industries consist of manufactured products, and her exports to those countries are made up very largely of raw and semi-manufactured products, but on the other hand Canada's trade with countries whose industries are not highly developed consists, in the case of imports, chiefly of raw and semi-manufactured products, and in the case of exports, very largely of manufactured products. No statistics have been compiled showing relation between trade in raw and semi-manufactured products with foreign countries, except the United States, but a partial compilation has been made for the British Empire, for the year 1926. This analysis clearly demonstrates that the Imports into Canada from the British Empire, except the United Kingdom, consist chiefly of raw and semi-manufactured products, while the exports are made up mainly of manufactured products. The statistics in the following table demonstrate this:—

Canada's Position in International Trade.—Canada continues to improve her position among the leading trading nations of the world. The following table giving "Comparison of the Trade of the Principal Countries of the World" shows that Canada in 1913 occupied eighth place in imports among the chief trading countries of the world, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, Germany, the United States, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Italy, but in 1926 she had advanced to seventh place, the Netherlands moving from fifth down to eighth place, Belgium from sixth to eleventh, and Italy from seventh up to sixth place, while Japan moved from thirteenth place up to fifth place. In exports, Canada in 1913 was in tenth position, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, France, the Netherlands, British India, Belgium, Italy and Argentina, but in 1926 she had moved up to fifth position, the Netherlands moving from fifth down to tenth position, British India being still in sixth position, as in 1913; Belgium moving from seventh down to eleventh position, Italy from eighth down to ninth position, and Argentina moving from ninth up to eighth position, while Japan moved from thirteenth position in 1913 up to seventh position in 1926. With respect to total trade, Canada occupied ninth position in 1913 among the principal trading countries of the world, but in 1926 she occupied fifth position, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany and France.

Canada has also made a creditable showing in increase of trade, both in amount and percentage, from 1913 to 1926. In the amount of her increase in imports she occupied sixth place, being exceeded by the United States, United Kingdom, Japan, Argentina and Australia, in exports, second place, being exceeded only by the United States, and in total trade fourth place, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom and Japan, while in percentage of increase in trade from 1913 to 1926, Canada occupied eleventh position in imports, second position in exports, Japan being in first position, and fourth position in total trade, being exceeded by Japan, New Zealand and the United States.

With regard to trade per capita Canada has made remarkable progress since 1913. In the year 1913 with respect to imports per capita Canada occupied fifth place, and in 1926 she was in seventh place. In exports, in 1913 she occupied seventh place, but in 1926 she had advanced to second place, being exceeded only by New Zealand. In total trade per capita Canada in 1913 occupied sixth place, and in 1926 she had advanced to second position, New Zealand being in first place.

In the year 1913 Canada occupied seventeenth position with reference to visible trade balance among the leading commercial nations of the world, but in 1926 she was in third position with a favourable trade balance of $275,600,000. In 1913 as in 1926, the United States occupied first place and British India second place. Although Canada's favourable trade balance in 1926 was $117,200,000 less than in 1925, she still leads the world in favourable trade balance per capita, it amounting on December 31, 1926, to $29.34 per head. From 1913 to 1926 the improvement in Canada's visible trade balance amounted to $498,500,000 or $58.95 per head. Canada, therefore, has a trade record that probably has not been surpassed by any other country.

CANADA'S EXPORTS COMPARED WITH EXPORTS OF OTHER COUNTRIES.—

Canada to-day ranks high among the leading nations of the world in production and export of many staple products. In production of printing paper, nickel, asbestos and cobalt she leads the world, and in output of lead and gold she occupies third place, while in export trade she leads the world in exports of wheat and printing paper, and occupies second place in exports of wheat flour and wood pulp. These four staple products comprise almost fifty per cent of Canada's total export trade.

Wheat Exports.—As a result of the rapid increase in the production of wheat in the Prairie Provinces during the past fifteen years and of the elimination of Russia as a leading factor in the grain trade, Canada has definitely established her position as the second wheat-producing country of the world, the United States being first. With regard to exports, Canada, for the calendar year 1926, occupied first place, with an export of 250,116,000 bushels, the United States being second, with 138,165,000 bushels. For the past five calendar years Canada's exports of wheat have exceeded those of the United States. For the fiscal year 1900 Canada's exports of wheat were only 16,845,000 bushels; for 1910 they amounted to 49,741,000 bushels; for 1920 to 77,978,000 bushels, and for 1927 they were 248,497,000 bushels. Wheat now ranks first among Canada's exports. The exports of wheat for the chief wheat-exporting countries during the calendar year 1926 were:

Country	Bushels
Canada.....	250,116,000
United States.....	138,165,000
Argentina.....	75,534,000
Australia.....	53,027,000
Hungary.....	11,831,000
Jugo-Slavia.....	8,859,000
British India.....	6,614,000

Wheat Flour Exports.—As a wheat-flour exporting country Canada ranks second among the countries of the world, the first place being occupied by the United States. Canada has made marvellous progress in the flour-milling industry since the opening of the present century. This is reflected in the increase of flour exports since 1900. For the fiscal year 1900, exports were only 768,000 barrels; ten years later they amounted to 3,064,000 barrels; in 1920 they had increased to 8,863,000 barrels; and for the last fiscal year (1927) they totalled 10,148,000 barrels.

During the calendar year 1926 Canada's exports of flour amounted to 10,457,000 barrels, and those for the United States to 11,850,000 barrels. The exports of wheat flour during the calendar year 1926 for the chief exporting countries were:

Country	Barrels

Newsprint Paper Exports.—According to statistics issued by the Newsprint Service Bureau, Canada lead the world as a producer of newsprint paper during the calendar year 1926, with an output of 3,764,000,000 pounds, the United States was second with 3,374,000,000 pounds; the United Kingdom third with 1,124,000,000 pounds; and Germany fourth with 998,000,000 pounds. Statistics for the first four months of 1927, compared with similar period in 1926, show an increase in the output of Canadian newsprint of 13 per cent, while during the same period the output of the United States shows a decrease of 7 per cent.

In the fiscal year 1890 Canada's total exports of paper were valued at only $122; ten years later they amounted to $29,741, while in 1910 the total exports of newsprint paper were valued at $2,612,243, no quantity statistics being available prior to 1913. During the fiscal year 1920 Canada's exports of newsprint paper amounted to 1,427,251,300 pounds, value $53,203,792, whereas for the year 1927 they had increased to 3,543,762,900 pounds, value $116,452,158. Today Canada's exports of newsprint paper rank second among her principal exports, wheat being in first place.

In comparison with the world's chief exporters of newsprint paper Canada in 1926 occupied first position by a very wide margin, her exports being almost nine times as great as those for Germany, her next competitor. During the calendar year 1926 the exports of newsprint paper for the chief paper-producing countries of the world were:

Country	Pounds	Country	Pounds
Canada.....	3,463,971,800	Austria.....	103,576,300
Germany.....	390,339,600	Netherlands.....	71,385,400
Sweden.....	383,582,700	Japan.....	59,183,500
Finland.....	317,161,600	United States.....	38,517,600
Norway.....	305,162,700	Czecho-Slovakia.....	37,924,200
Newfoundland.....	238,076,200	Switzerland.....	19,969,100
United Kingdom.....	213,612,300

The total quantity of newsprint paper exported by the thirteen leading exporting countries was 5,642,463,000 pounds, of which amount Canada contributed 3,463,971,800 pounds or 61 per cent, and the other twelve countries combined, 2,178,491,200 pounds or 39 per cent. Canada's exports, therefore, exceeded those of the other twelve countries combined by 1,285,480,600 pounds. Today Canada's exports of newsprint paper are probably greater than those of the rest of the world combined.

Wood Pulp Exports.—Canada's great advance as a newsprint producer and exporter has been based on the wonderful development of her wood pulp industry, since the beginning of the twentieth century. In order of importance wood pulp ranks fifth among Canada's exports today. In the fiscal year 1890 Canada's exports of wood pulp were valued at only $168,180; ten years later they were valued at $1,816,016, no quantities being available prior to 1908. In the year 1910 Canada's exports of wood pulp were 590,345,600 pounds, value $5,204,597; in 1920 they had increased to 1,538,958,200 pounds, value $41,383,482, while for the year 1927 they amounted to 1,895,935,100 pounds, value $49,887,739.

During the calendar year 1926 Canada occupied second position among the world's exporters of wood pulp, with an export of 2,010,557,600 pounds, the first place being held by Sweden, with an export of 3,311,847,800 pounds, while Norway was in third place with an export of 1,596,478,400 pounds. In exports of chemical pulp Canada occupied second position, the first place being held by Sweden, by a wide margin, and third place by Finland. With regard to exports of mechanical pulp Canada stood in third position, the first place being held by Norway and the second by Sweden.

During the calendar year 1926 the world's chief exporters of wood pulp, arranged in order of importance were:

Country	Chemical Pulp	Mechanical Pulp	Total Wood Pulp

ADDENDUM

During the two months that elapsed during the compilation of this report, the trade situation, as indicated by external trade statistics, improved rapidly. Imports for April and May, 1927, showed a substantial gain over the same months of 1926. In the exports there was about double the amount of increase, so that the "favourable" balance of trade showed a strong upward tendency.

In this two months' period imports increased from $153,854,000 to $168,710,000, and exports of Canadian produce from $151,507,000 to $187,121,000; the increase in imports amounting to $14,856,000 and exports to $35,614,000. Imports from the United Kingdom increased from $23,135,000 to $25,477,000 and exports of Canadian produce thereto from $51,424,000 to $78,571,000; while imports from the United States increased from $104,939,000 to $115,918,000 and Canadian exports from $62,036,000 to $66,676,000. Imports from the United Kingdom increased $2,342,000 and exports thereto $27,149,000, while imports from the United States increased $10,979,000 and exports to the United States $4,640,000.

The "favourable" trade balance for the two months was $20,992,000, compared with $143,000 in the same two months of 1926. For the twelve-months' period ending May, 1927, it was $257,500,000, while for the latest fiscal year, as shown in the body of this report, it was $236,700,000.

Imports and Exports of Canada by Main Groups, with Amounts imported from and exported to the United Kingdom and the United States for the Two Months ended May, 1927, were:

REVIEW OF SIXTY YEARS OF TRADE PROGRESS

As Canada this year celebrates the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation it is fitting to point out the more important facts of trade progress, 1867 to 1927. During the sixty years since Confederation, an expansion and development has taken place that has not been surpassed by many of the oldest and largest countries. From an isolated community, Canada has become a nation trading with practically every country of the world. In volume of trade she today ranks fifth among the commercial nations, being exceeded only by the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany and France, while in trade per capita she occupies second place, being exceeded only by New Zealand. In respect to favourable trade balance (calendar year 1926) she occupied third place, the United States being in first place and British India in second place, while her favourable trade balance per capita, amounting to $29.34, was the largest in the world.

TOTAL TRADE.—Canada's total trade with all countries for the fiscal year 1927, amounting to $2,298,465,647, was about twenty times what it was at Confederation, viz: $119,791,879; at the ushering in of the twentieth century it was only about three times as great, the total trade in 1900 amounting to $355,889,231. From Confederation to 1900 Canada's trade increased only $236,097,352 or 197 per cent, while from 1900 to 1927 it increased $1,942,576,416 or 546 per cent.

The total trade with the United Kingdom in 1868 was $55,523,133 and in 1927 it was $611,963,386 or eleven times as great as at Confederation, whereas in 1900 it amounted to $152,016,009, being only about three times that of 1868. From 1868 to 1900 the total trade with the United Kingdom increased $96,492,876 or 174 per cent, while from 1900 to 1927 the increase was $459,947,377 or 303 per cent.

Canada's trade with the United States from Confederation to 1927 increased from $48,009,700 to $1,167,039,699 or 24 times, while the total trade in 1900, amounting to $162,187,822, was only a trifle more than three times as great as in 1868. From 1868 to 1900 Canada's total trade with the United States increased $114,178,122 or 238 per cent, while from 1900 to 1927 the increase was $1,004,851,877 or 619 per cent.

IMPORT TRADE.—From 1868 to 1927 total imports from all countries increased from $67,090,159 to $1,030,892,505 or about fifteen times, while at the opening of the present century the imports were $172,651,676, being only two and one-half times what they were in 1868. The total increase in imports from Confederation to 1900 was $105,561,517 or 157 per cent, while from 1900 to 1927 it amounted to $858,240,829 or 497 per cent.

Imports from the United Kingdom from Confederation to 1927 increased from $37,617,325 to $163,941,052, being about four and one-third times greater than in 1868. In 1900 the imports amounted to $44,280,041. From 1868 to 1900 imports from the United Kingdom increased $6,662,716 or 18 per cent, and from 1900 to 1927 they increased $119,661,011 or 270 per cent.

Canada's imports from the United States were: 1868, $22,660,132; 1900, $102,224,917; and 1927, $687,707,719. From 1868 to 1927 they increased thirty times and from 1868 to 1900, four and one-half times. From 1868 to 1900 imports from the United States increased $79,564,785 or 351 per cent and from 1900 to 1927 $585,482,802 or 572 per cent.

Origin of Imports.—In 1868, 90 per cent of Canada's imports was supplied by the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion from the United Kingdom being 56.1 per cent, and the United States 33.8 per cent. In 1900 the United Kingdom and the United States supplied Canada with 84.9 per cent of her total imports, the proportion from the United Kingdom being 25.7 per cent, and from the United States 59.2 per cent, while in 1927, 83 per cent of Canada's total imports came from the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion from the United Kingdom falling to 15.9 per cent, and from the United States rising to 66.7 per cent. From 1868 to 1927 the percentage of imports from the United Kingdom fell from 56.1 to 15.9 per cent, while the percentage from the United States rose from 33.8 to 66.7.

There has been a gradual growth in the percentage of imports from countries other than the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion in 1868 amounting to 10.1 per cent; in 1900 to 15.1 per cent; and in 1927 to 17.4 per cent. In 1868 the 10.1 per cent represented an import value of only $6,813,000; in 1900 the value was $26,146,000; and in 1927, $179,300,000. Of this amount, Europe, except the United Kingdom, supplied $78,100,000; North America, except the United States, $34,700,000; South America, $20,000,000; Asia $32,000,000; Oceania $12,500,000; and Africa $2,000,000. In 1868 Canada drew supplies from a very limited number of countries; now the list of countries numbers more than 100,—British countries over 30, and foreign countries over 70.

Imports of Raw Materials.—The constantly increasing import into Canada from year to year of raw and semi-manufactured materials reflects the ever-increasing volume and variety in manufacturing processes in the Dominion. The following statistics of imports of materials for Canadian industries for the years 1880, 1900 and 1927 demonstrates the expansion of Canadian manufacturing industries since 1880.

EXPORT TRADE.—Canada's export trade shows a greater expansion than her import trade. Total exports of domestic produce to all countries from 1868 to 1927 increased from $48,504,899 to $1,252,157,506, or about 26 times, while in 1900 the exports, amounting to $168,972,301, were only about three and one-half times greater than in 1868. From Confederation to 1900 domestic exports increased $120,467,402 or 248 per cent, while from 1900 to 1927 they increased $1,083,185,205 or 641 per cent.

The exports of domestic produce to the United Kingdom were: 1868, $17,905,808; 1900, $96,562,875; and in 1927, $446,876,101. The exports in 1927 were 25 times greater than in 1868 but they were only five and one-half times greater in 1900 than 1868. From 1868 to 1900 the domestic exports to the United Kingdom increased $78,657,067 or 439 per cent, and from 1900 to 1927, $350,313,226 or 363 per cent.

Canada's domestic exports to the United States were: 1868, $25,349,568; 1900, $57,996,488; and in 1927, $466,419,539. From 1868 to 1927 exports to the United States increased eighteen times and from 1868 to 1900 two and one-third times. From Confederation to 1900 exports to the United States increased $32,646,920 or 127 per cent, and from 1900 to 1927, $408,423,051 or 704 per cent.

Destination of Exports.—In 1868 the exports to the United Kingdom and the United States combined were 89.2 per cent of the total exports of domestic produce, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 36.9 per cent, and the United States 52.3 per cent. In 1900 similar exports to the United Kingdom and the United States were 91.3 per cent, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 57.1 per cent, and the United States 34.2 per cent; while for the year 1927 the domestic exports of Canada to the United Kingdom and the United States were 72.9 per cent; the proportion for the United Kingdom being 35.7 per cent, and the United States 37.2 per cent. From 1868 to 1927 Canada's domestic exports to the United Kingdom fell from 36.9 per cent to 35.7 per cent, while similar exports to the United States fell from 52.3 per cent to 37.2 per cent. The proportion of Canada's domestic exports to "Other Countries" than the United Kingdom and the United States, in 1868 was 10.8 per cent; in 1900 it had dropped to 8.7 per cent, but by 1927 it had risen to 27.1 per cent. This increase was due to a decline in the proportion exported to the United States. At Confederation the proportion exported to "Other Countries", being 10.8 per cent of Canada's total domestic exports, represented an export value of $5,249,000; in 1900 the proportion of 8.7 per cent represented a value of $14,413,000, while in 1927 the proportion of 27.1 per cent represented a value of $338,900,000. The increase in Canadian exports to "Other Countries" from 1868 to 1900 was $9,164,000 or 174 per cent, while from 1900 to 1927 the increase was $324,487,000 or 2251 per cent. During the year 1927 the exports to "Other Countries" amounting to $338,900,000, was distributed by Continents as follows: Europe, except United Kingdom, $155,900,000; North America, except United States, $39,800,000; South America, $33,000,000; Asia, $63,500,000; Oceania, $33,200,000; and Africa, $13,500,000. While in 1868 Canadian products reached a very limited number of countries, today they find their way into every country of the world. Canada now sells to more than 113 countries; British Countries buying goods from Canada number over 30, and foreign countries over 80.

The statistics in the following table for the years 1868, 1900 and 1927, arranged in order of importance of the articles in the latter year, give the story in its main details.

TRADE BALANCES.—From Confederation to 1927—60 years—exports from Canada to all countries have exceeded imports in twenty-four years, while imports have exceeded exports in thirty-six years. The net excess of exports over imports during the past sixty years totalled $1,574,621,000. The largest excess of exports in a single fiscal year was in 1918, a "war year", amounting to $622,637,000; while the largest excess of imports, amounting to $294,139,000, occurred in 1913. Since Confederation there has been an excess of exports to the United Kingdom in forty-eight years, while an excess of imports has occurred in twelve years. The net excess of exports to the United Kingdom over the whole 60 years has amounted to $5,406,040,000. The largest excess of exports, amounting to $779,749,000, was in the war year 1918, while the largest excess of imports, amounting to $36,985,000, occurred in 1872. Since 1889, exports to the United Kingdom have exceeded imports in every year. Over eighty per cent of the great trade balance against the United Kingdom, has been built up since the outbreak of the war. About 55 per cent of this accumulated during the war period, and 45 per cent since.

During the past sixty years Canada's trade balance with the United States has been "unfavourable" in fifty-four years, while in only six years has it been "favourable". Since Confederation the excess of imports from the United States over exports has amounted to the colossal sum of $4,833,959,000. From 1882 to date Canada's trade balance with the United States has been "unfavourable" in every year. Canada had a "favourable" trade balance with the United States the first four years following Confederation and during the years 1880 and 1882. The largest excess of imports from the United States over exports, amounting to $374,734,000, occurred during the war year 1917; the largest excess of exports over imports, amounting to $8,664,000, occurred in 1870.

PREFACE

All the regular features of previous issues of this report are continued in the present number. It consists of two sections—"Review of Canada's Foreign Trade, 1927-28" and "Condensed Statistical Record of Canadian Trade."

In the "Review" several new analyses have been made and further illustrative tables introduced.

The main tables have been expanded by the addition of new items of importance.

The number of tables showing trade with specific countries has been increased, statistics of imports from and exports to Bulgaria, the Canary Islands, French Africa, Hungary, Jugo-Slavia and Portuguese Africa now appearing for the first time. In all, eighty-three countries are now dealt with. Tables appearing in former issues have also been revised and somewhat expanded to meet altered conditions.

Throughout the report, figures for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1928, are unrevised; those for earlier years are final.

The "Review of Canada's Foreign Trade" was written by Mr. W. A. Warne, B.A., Chief of the External Trade Branch, and the "Condensed Statistical Record" was compiled by Mr. Ernest Green, Assistant Chief of the Branch.

R. H. COATS,
Dominion Statistician.

DOMINION BUREAU OF STATISTICS,
OTTAWA, June 1, 1928.

REVIEW OF CANADA'S FOREIGN TRADE, 1927-28

The foreign trade of Canada during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1928, reached a greater physical volume than in any previous year. The increase in imports was responsible for this improvement, as there was a slight decline in exports.

The average level of prices has changed only moderately during the past three or four years. On the other hand a comparison with pre-war years, and with the period during and immediately following the war, shows that changes in the level of prices have materially affected the comparability of trade statistics. Figures compiled for each fiscal year, 1921 to 1927, based on 1914 average import and export values, show that Canada's import trade in 1927, revalued at 1914 average import values, was $135,193,000 greater than for the high record year 1926, while the export trade in 1927, revalued at 1914 average export values, was only $21,366,000 less than for the year 1926. The particulars are set forth in the following table:—

Statistics of the volume of trade, based on 1914 values, have not yet been compiled for 1928, the only figures for this year being on the basis of declared values. The foregoing table shows that the total foreign trade of Canada, from 1921 to 1927, on the basis of declared values, has decreased about six per cent, but when allowance has been made for the fluctuation in import and export prices, it has increased about fifty per cent. During the same period imports show a decrease at current prices of about seventeen per cent and exports an increase of about five per cent, but when price changes have been eliminated, imports show an increase of about thirty-seven per cent, and exports of about sixty-one per cent.

The gradual growth in the foreign trade of Canada prior to the war, the remarkable expansion during the war, the decline and subsequent revival following the post-war boom, first in imports and then in exports (which increased more rapidly than imports) resulted in Canada having a favourable trade balance in 1926 of $401,400,000, which was surpassed on only one other occasion, viz: in the war year 1918. During the past year or so imports have increased rapidly, while gross export values have declined slightly, due to lower prices, with the result that Canada's favourable trade balance on March 31, 1928, was reduced to $141,500,000. On March 31, 1927 and 1928, Canada's favourable trade balance was largely with the British Empire, as the following statistics show:—

Balance of Trade with—	"Favourable" balance (+) "Unfavourable" balance (—)
	1927	1928

On December 31, 1927, Canada stood in third place, as it did a year ago, among the trading nations of the world, with regard to favourable trade balance, being exceeded by the United States and British India. Even with the reduced favourable balance above mentioned Canada leads the world on per capita basis. (For complete details see section on "Canada's Position in International Trade" page 32.)

Analysis of Canada's Trade.—The total trade of Canada for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1928, was valued at $2,359,412,000, compared with $2,298,466,000 in 1927, and $2,256,029,000 in 1926; the increase over 1927 amounting to $60,946,000 or 2.2 per cent, and over 1926 to $103,383,000 or 4.6 per cent. Imports in 1928 show a decided improvement over 1927 and 1926, while exports show a decline. Imports in 1928 amounted to $1,108,956,000, compared with an importation in 1927 valued at $1,030,893,000, and in 1926 at $927,329,000; the increase in the imports over 1927 amounting to $78,063,000 or 7.3 per cent, and over 1926 to $181,627,000 or 19.6 per cent. Export trade (domestic and foreign combined) was valued at $1,256,456,000 in 1928, at $1,267,573,000 in 1927, and $1,328,700,000 in 1926; the decrease in 1928 compared with 1927 amounting to $17,117,000 or 1.4 per cent, and compared with 1926 to $78,244,000 or 5.9 per cent. The domestic exports of Canada in 1928 totalled $1,228,208,000, in 1927 $1,252,158,000, and in 1926 $1,315,356,000; the decrease in 1928 compared with 1927 amounting to $23,950,000 or 1.9 per cent, and with 1926 to $87,148,000 or 6.7 per cent.

Increase in Imports, 1927-1928.—The increase in the import trade, 1928, compared with similar trade in 1927, amounting to $78,063,000, was contributed to by increases in each of the main groups, except in the Non-Metallic Minerals and Miscellaneous Commodities groups, which show decreases of $3,734,000 and $2,378,000 respectively. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group increased from $213,098,000 to $238,186,000 or $25,088,000. (Under this group alcoholic beverages increased from $29,312,000 to $45,900,000 or $16,588,000; fruits from $30,297,000 to $34,379,000 or $4,082,000; corn from $10,911,000 to $13,058,000 or $2,147,000; vegetables from $6,595,000 to $8,176,000, or $1,581,000; and cocoa and chocolate from $3,421,000 to $4,788,000 or $1,367,000; while raw sugar decreased from $35,375,000 to $33,266,000 or $2,109,000, and seeds from $3,492,000 to $2,281,000 or $1,211,000). The Animals and Animal Products group increased from $53,214,000 to $65,790,000 or $12,576,000. (The chief increases under this group were: raw hides from $9,057,000 to $14,141,000 or $5,084,000; furs from $13,365,000 to $16,653,000 or $3,288,000; butter from $2,549,000 to $5,533,000 or $2,984,000; unmanufactured leather from $5,134,000 to $5,960,000 or $826,000; and fish from $2,626,000 to $3,097,000 or $471,000; while eggs in the shell decreased from $1,317,000 to $477,000 or $840,000). The Fibres and Textiles Products group increased from $183,584,000 to $186,996,000 or $3,412,000. (Principal imports under this group to show increases were: raw cotton from $20,171,000 to $24,640,000 or $4,469,000; artificial silk manufactures from $4,255,000 to $6,077,000 or $1,822,000; raw silk from $4,066,000 to $5,074,000 or $1,008,000; and jute cloth or canvas from $6,891,000 to $7,863,000 or $972,000; while imports of binder twine decreased from $4,076,000 to $2,295,000 or $1,781,000; dyed cotton fabrics from $9,637,000 to $7,942,000 or $1,695,000; silk fabrics from $19,560,000 to $18,600,000 or $900,000; manila and sisal grass from $5,031,000 to $4,255,000 or $776,000; and dress goods (wool) to be dyed from $2,225,000 to $1,567,000 or $658,000. The Wood, Wood Products and Paper group increased from $47,963,000 to $51,751,000 or $3,788,000. (Under this group unmanufactured wood increased from $13,104,000 to $14,287,000 or $1,183,000; books and printed matter from $13,741,000 to $14,832,000 or $1,091,000; manufactured wood from $9,758,000 to $10,713,000 or $965,000; and paper from $11,360,000 to $11,918,000 or $558,000). Iron and Its Products group increased from $229,429,000 to $259,573,000 or $30,144,000. (The imports to show increases under this group were: farm implements from $18,946,000 to $29,636,000 or $10,690,000; machinery from $4,108,000 to $48,601,000 or $7,519,000; automobiles from $27,083,000 to $34,422,000 or $7,339,000; automobile parts from $30,336,000 to $33,237,000 or $2,901,000; and engines and boilers from $14,922,000 to $17,007,000 or $2,085,000; while rolling mill products decreased from $46,693,000 to $44,067,000 or $2,626,000). The Non-Ferrous Metals Products group increased from $52,748,000 to $60,190,000 or $7,442,000. (The chief increases were: alumina and cryolite from $4,108,000 to $6,333,000 or $2,225,000; electric apparatus from $16,932,000 to $19,044,000 or $2,112,000; copper bars and rods from $2,981,000 to $4,025,000 or $1,044,000; and nickel-plated ware from $1,619,000 to $2,309,000 or $690,000). The Non-Metallic Minerals Products group decreased from $156,785,000 to $153,049,000 or $3,736,000. (The chief decreases in this group were: anthracite coal from $35,097,000 to $31,826,000 or $3,271,000; crude petroleum (except for ships' stores) from $36,490,000 to $34,126,000 or $2,364,000; refined petroleum oil from $16,723,000 to $15,958,000 or $765,000; and glass from $8,638,000 to $8,129,000 or $509,000; while the following show increases: coal and fuel oil for ships' stores, from nil to $2,815,000 or $2,815,000; clay products from $8,590,000 to $9,662,000 or $1,072,000; and asphalt from $472,000 to $902,000 or $430,000). The Chemical and Allied Products group increased from $31,844,000 to $33,572,000 or $1,728,000. (The imports under this group showing increases were: fertilizers from $3,492,000 to $4,145,000 or $653,000; and paints and varnishes from $4,607,000 to $5,015,000 or $408,000) Miscellaneous Commodities decreased from $62,227,000 to $59,849,000 or $2,378,000. (The decrease in this group was largely due to the fact that coal and fuel for ships' stores amounting to $2,815,000 in 1928, formerly included under "ships' stores," have been allocated to the group "Non-Metallic Mineral Products").

Decrease in Exports, 1927-1928.—Canada's domestic exports for 1928 compared with 1927 show a decrease of $23,950,000. Five of the main groups show decreases and four increases. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group decreased from $574,994,000 to $555,110,000 or $19,884,000. (The principal decreases occurred in the following items: sugar from $15,116,000 to $6,261,000 or $8,855,000; wheat flour from $68,720,000 to $59,879,000 or $8,841,000; oats from $8,599,000 to $4,275,000 or $4,324,000; barley from $25,875,000 to $23,473,000 or $2,402,000; seeds from $9,383,000 to $7,196,000 or $2,187,000; vegetables from $12,341,000 to $10,474,000 or $1,867,000; and hay from $3,246,000 to $1,684,000 or $1,562,000; while the following items show increases: rye from $6,050,000 to $10,649,000 or $4,599,000; alcoholic beverages from $24,838,000 to $27,287,000 or $2,449,000; and rubber products from $26,695,000 to $28,626,000 or $1,931,000). The Animals and Animal Products group decreased from $167,291,000 to $165,845,000 or $1,446,000. (The chief items to show decreases were: meats from $29,409,000 to $24,472,000 or $4,937,000; cheese from $24,956,000 to $21,101,000 or $3,855,000; butter from $3,351,000 to $1,053,000 or $2,298,000; swine from $3,892,000 to $2,306,000 or $1,586,000; fish from $34,499,000 to $33,519,000 or $980,000; milk and cream (fresh) from $8,741,000 to $7,841,000 or $900,000; and eggs from $670,000 to $194,000 or $476,000; while the following show increases: raw hides from $7,059,000 to $11,714,000 or $4,655,000; furs from $20,609,000 to $24,315,000 or $3,706,000; unmanufactured leather from $8,365,000 to $11,186,000 or $2,821,000; and cattle from $11,579,000 to $13,877,000 or $2,298,000). The Fibres and Textile Products group increased from $7,665,000 to $10,904,000 or $3,239,000. (The chief commodities to show increases under this group were: raw wool from $1,539,000 to $3,150,000 or $1,611,000; artificial silk from $35,000 to $552,000 or $517,000; binder twine from $1,626,000 to $2,053,000 or $427,000; and cotton products from $631,000 to $1,010,000 or $379,000). The Wood, Wood Products and Paper group increased from $284,120,000 to $284,543,000 or $423,000. (Paper under this group (chiefly newsprint), increased from $123,222,000 to $134,985,000 or $11,763,000; books and printed matter from $1,027,000 to $1,139,000 or $112,000; while unmanufactured wood (principally laths, planks and boards and shingles), decreased from $107,855,000 to $99,370,000 or $8,485,000; and manufactured wood (largely wood pulp) from $52,015,000 to $49,048,000 or $2,967,000). The Iron and Its Products group decreased from $74,285,000 to $62,754,000 or $11,531,000. (The chief decreases were: automobiles, from $31,751,000 to $24,841,000 or $6,910,000; automobile parts from $4,665,000 to $2,567,000 or $2,098,000; farm implements from $17,413,000 to $15,643,000 or $1,770,000; while machinery increased from $4,756,000 to $6,167,000 or $1,411,000.) The Non-Ferrous Metals Products group increased from $80,639,000 to $90,840,000 or $10,201,000. (The main increases under this group were: aluminium in bars, blocks, etc., from $5,348,000 to $10,822,000 or $5,474,000; nickel from $12,921,000 to $17,026,000 or $4,105,000; raw gold from $6,854,000 to $9,036,000 or $2,182,000; copper from $14,917,000 to $15,593,000 or $676,000; while lead decreased from $13,464,000 to $11,881,000 or $1,583,000; and silver from $12,976,000 to $11,862,000 or $1,114,000). The Non-Metallic Mineral Products group decreased from $28,510,000 to $25,281,000 or $3,229,000. (The chief commodity to show decrease was coal which decreased from $7,187,000 to $4,746,000 or $2,441,000). The Chemical and Allied Products group increased from $16,575,000 to $17,893,000 or $1,318,000. (The chief increases occurred in fertilizers which increased from $4,613,000 to $5,414,000 or $801,000; and acids which increased from $2,640,000 to $3,330,000 or $690,000). The Miscellaneous Commodities group decreased from $18,077,000 to $15,036,000 or $3,041,000. (The exports of films under this group decreased from $5,104,000 to $3,542,000 or $1,562,000; settlers' effects from $6,995,000 to $5,798,000 or $1,197,000; and cameras from $1,276,000 to $639,000 or $637,000).

Trade with the United Kingdom.—The total trade of Canada with the United Kingdom for the year ended March 31, 1928, was valued at $598,661,000, compared with a similar trade in 1927 of $611,958,000, and in 1926 of $672,997,000; the decrease in 1928 compared with 1927 being $13,297,000 or 2·2 per cent, and with 1926 $74,336,000 or 11·0 per cent. Imports from the United Kingdom in 1928 amounted to $185,889,000 compared with an import in 1927 of $163,939,000, and in 1926 of $163,731,000; the increase in 1928 over 1927 amounting to $21,950,000 or 13·4 per cent, and over 1926 to $22,158,000 or 13·5 per cent. Total exports to the United Kingdom in 1928 totalled $412,772,000, in 1927 $448,019,000, and in 1926 $509,266,000; the decrease in 1928 compared with 1927 being $35,247,000 or 7·9 per cent, and 1926 $96,494,000 or 18·9 per cent. Domestic exports to the United Kingdom amounted to $410,700,000 in 1928, to $446,873,000 in 1927, and to $508,238,000 in 1926; the decrease in 1928 compared with 1927 amounting to $36,173,000 or 8·1 per cent, and 1926 to $97,538,000 or 19·2 per cent.

During 1928 imports from the United Kingdom compared with 1927 show increases under seven of the main groups, the decreases occurring in Fibres and Textiles and in Chemical Products. Imports under the main group of Agricultural and Vegetable Products increased from $38,254,000 to $51,134,000 or $12,880,000. (Under this group, alcoholic beverages (chiefly whiskey) increased from $25,468,000 to $38,693,000 or $13,225,000, while the imports of tea decreased from $5,849,000 to $5,280,000 or $569,000). The Animals and Animal Products group increased from $5,405,000 to $6,091,000 or $686,000. (Unmanufactured leather, under this group, increased from $728,000 to $1,501,000 or $773,000; while the imports of meats decreased from $436,000 to $310,000 or $126,000). The Fibres and Textiles Products group decreased from $72,752,000 to $71,464,000 or $1,288,000. (The chief decreases under this group were wool and its products from $39,140,000 to $37,364,000 or $1,776,000; and cotton and its products from $15,133,000 to $13,797,000 or $1,336,000; while imports of artificial silk manufactures increased from $2,425,000 to $3,561,000 or $1,136,000; and flax, hemp and jute from $6,006,000 to $6,653,000 or $647,000). The main group of Wood, Wood Products and Paper increased from $3,918,000 to $4,360,000 or $442,000. (Under this group the chief increases were: books and printed matter from $1,992,000 to $2,182,000 or $190,000; wood and products from $565,000 to $726,000 or $161,000; and paper from $1,361,000 to $1,452,000 or $91,000). Iron and Its Products group increased from $15,009,000 to $17,726,000 or $2,717,000. (Increases occurred in the following items under this group: rolling mill products from $4,388,000 to $5,329,000 or $941,000; machinery from $4,335,000 to $5,104,000 or $769,000; castings and forgings from $333,000 to $597,000 or $264,000; engines and boilers from $775,000 to $965,000 or $190,000; wire from $1,000,000 to $1,170,000 or $170,000; and pigs and ingots, etc. from $240,000 to $364,000 or $124,000). The Non-Ferrous Metals Products group increased from $5,643,000 to $5,795,000 or $152,000. The Non-Metallic Minerals Products group increased from $9,254,000 to $14,468,000 or $5,214,000. (Coal under this group increased from $1,715,000 to $6,688,000 or $4,973,000; clay products from $3,507,000 to $3,909,000 or $402,000; while glass decreased from $1,502,000 to $1,331,000 or $171,000). The Chemicals and Allied Products group decreased from $4,907,000 to $4,422,000 or $485,000. (Glycerine under this group decreased from $642,000 to $90,000 or $552,000). The Miscellaneous Commodities group increased from $8,797,000 to $10,429,000 or $1,632,000. (Ships and vessels under this group increased from $188,000 to $995,000 or $807,000).

Canada's domestic exports to the United Kingdom in 1928, compared with 1927, show increases under five of the main groups and decreases under four, the total decreases exceeding the total increases by $36,173,000. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group decreased from $330,070,000 to $310,219,000 or $19,851,000. (The chief export items to account for this decrease were: wheat, which decreased from $251,907,000 to $244,816,000 or $7,091,000; refined sugar from $8,762,000 to $2,728,000 or $6,034,000; wheat flour from $24,615,000 to $20,247,000 or $4,368,000; and oats from $3,674,000 to $1,395,000 or $2,279,000). The Animals and Animal Products group decreased from $67,819,000 to $48,683,000 or $19,136,000. (The principal decreases under this group were: bacon and hams from $18,058,000 to $10,241,000 or $7,817,000; cattle from $6,340,000 to $130,000 or $6,210,000; cheese from $21,669,000 to $17,828,000 or $3,841,000; and butter from $2,206,000 to $15,000 or $2,191,000; while the exports of furs increased from $7,276,000 to $9,185,000 or $1,909,000; and unmanufactured leather from $1,430,000 to $2,453,000 or $1,023,000). The Fibres and Textile Products group increased from $860,000 to $1,897,000 or $1,037,000. (Under this group raw wool increased from $101,000 to $720,000 or $619,000; and cotton products from $143,000 to $424,000 or $281,000). The Wood, Wood Products and Paper group from $15,835,000 to $17,171,000 or $1,336,000. (Paper under this group increased from $3,163,000 to $4,486,000 or $1,323,000; unmanufactured wood (chiefly planks and boards) from $8,066,000 to $8,627,000 or $561,000; while manufactured wood (chiefly wood pulp) decreased from $4,488,000 to $3,916,000 or $572,000). Iron and Its Products group increased from $8,129,000 to $8,195,000 or $66,000. (Automobiles under this group increased from $3,904,000 to $4,718,000 or $814,000; and machinery from $1,106,000 to $1,350,000 or $244,000; but decreases in other iron and steel commodities practically counterbalanced these gains). The Non-Ferrous Metals Products group increased from $14,174,000 to $15,696,000 or $1,522,000. (Under this group the chief increases were: nickel from $4,142,000 to $5,785,000 or $1,643,000; aluminium in bars, blocks, etc. from $92,000 to $846,000 or $754,000; copper ore from $1,207,000 to $1,771,000 or $564,000; while exports of lead decreased from $5,391,000 to $4,256,000 or $1,135,000; and zinc from $2,187,000 to $1,218,000 or $969,000). The Non-Metallic Minerals Products group decreased from $2,324,000 to $1,933,000 or $391,000. (Coal under this group decreased from $918,000 to $216,000 or $702,000; while the exports of stone and its products increased from $82,000 to $276,000 or $194,000). The Chemicals and Allied Products group increased from $3,567,000 to $4,234,000 or $667,000 while the Miscellaneous Commodities group decreased from $4,092,000 to $2,669,000 or $1,423,000. The increase in the exports of acids to the United Kingdom, which advanced from $1,756,000 to $2,235,000 or $479,000, was responsible for the gain in the Chemicals and Allied Products group, while the decrease in the exports of cameras and films accounted for the decline in the exports of Miscellaneous Commodities. Cameras decreased from $1,207,000 to $401,000 or $806,000, and films from $2,146,000 to $1,341,000 or $805,000.

Trade with the United States.—Canada's total trade with the United States during the year ended March 31, 1928, was valued at $1,216,090,000, compared with a similar trade in 1927 valued at $1,166,357,000 and in 1926 at $1,094,570,000; the increase over 1927 being $49,733,000 or 4.4 per cent, and over 1926 $121,520,000 or 11.1 per cent. In 1928 Canada's imports from the United States were valued at $719,443,000, in 1927 at $687,022,000, and in 1926 at $608,618,000; the increase in 1928 compared with 1927 amounting to $32,421,000 or 4.7 per cent, and with 1926 to $110,825,000 or 18.2 per cent; whereas the total exports to the United States amounted to $496,647,000 in 1928, to $479,335,000 in 1927, and to $485,952,000 in 1926; the increase 1928 over 1927 being $17,312,000 or 3.6 per cent, and over 1926 $10,695,000 or 2.2 per cent. The exports of Canadian produce to the United States in 1928 totalled $478,006,000, in 1927 $466,422,000, and in 1926 $474,987,000; the increase in 1928 compared with 1927 amounting to $11,584,000 or 2.5 per cent, and with 1926 to $3,019,000 or 0.7 per cent.

The imports from the United States in 1928 compared with 1927 show increases in seven of the main groups and decreases in two, the groups to show decreases being Non-Metallic Minerals Products and Miscellaneous Commodities. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group increased from $97,104,000 to $102,209,000 or $5,105,000. (The chief commodities to show increases under this group were: fruits from $27,032,000 to $30,087,000 or $3,035,000; vegetable oil from $7,141,000 to $9,822,000 or $2,681,000; vegetables from $5,311,000 to $6,496,000 or $1,185,000; and raw tobacco from $5,171,000 to $5,595,000 or $426,000; while the imports of corn decreased from $8,641,000 to $6,772,000 or $1,869,000; raw rubber from $20,356,000 to $19,292,000 or $1,064,000; and raw sugar from $1,100,000 to $384,000 or $716,000). The Animals and Animal Products group increased from $35,437,000 to $40,582,000 or $5,145,000. (Under this group raw hides increased from $7,092,000 to $10,185,000 or $3,093,000; furs from $9,626,000 to $12,304,000 or $2,678,000; while imports of eggs in the shell decreased from $1,301,000 to $450,000 or $851,000). The Fibres and Textiles Products group increased from $66,926,000 to $69,431,000 or $2,505,000. (Raw cotton under this group increased from $20,163,000 to $24,629,000 or $4,466,000; and raw silk from $3,532,000 to $3,856,000 or $324,000; while the imports of binder twine decreased from $2,655,000 to $866,000 or $1,789,000; and wool and its products from $2,676,000 to $3,389,000 or $713,000). The Wood, Wood Products and Paper group increased from $41,122,000 to $43,992,000 or $2,870,000. (The principal increases were:

unmanufactured wood (chiefly lumber) from $12,852,000 to $13,927,000 or $1,075,000; books and printed matter from $11,114,000 to $11,955,000 or $841,000; manufactured wood from $8,334,000 to $8,943,000 or $609,000; and paper from $8,822,000 to $9,168,000 or $346,000). Iron and Its Products increased from $206,655,000 to $233,991,000 or $27,336,000. (The chief increases under this group were: farm implements from $18,494,000 to $29,133,000 or $10,639,000; automobiles from $26,702,000 to $34,017,000 or $7,315,000; machinery from $35,710,000 to $42,343,000 or $6,633,000; automobile parts from $30,195,000 to $33,104,000 or $2,909,000; and engines and boilers from $14,073,000 to $15,928,000 or $1,855,000; while imports of rolling mill products decreased from $39,473,000 to $36,227,000 or $3,246,000). The Non-Ferrous Metals Products group increased from $42,225,000 to $48,385,000 or $6,160,000. (Under this group aluminium (chiefly alumina) increased from $5,103,000 to $7,521,000 or $2,418,000; electric apparatus from $14,596,000 to $16,762,000 or $2,166,000; and nickel-plated ware from $1,340,000 to $1,751,000 or $411,000). The Non-Metallic Minerals Products group decreased from $131,955,000 to $117,448,000 or $14,507,000. (Decreases in this group occurred in the following items: coal (except for ships' stores) from $59,806,000 to $51,502,000 or $8,304,000; crude petroleum (except for ships' stores) from $29,409,000 to $21,461,000 or $7,948,000; and coke from $5,371,000 to $4,594,000 or $777,000; while the imports of asphalt increased from $468,000 to $891,000 or $423,000). The Chemicals and Allied Products group increased from $20,623,000 to $22,246,000 or $1,623,000. (The chief increases were: fertilizers from $2,415,000 to $2,921,000 or $506,000; dyeing and tanning materials from $2,159,000 to $2,555,000 or $396,000; and paints and varnishes from $3,116,000 to $3,328,000 or $212,000). The Miscellaneous Commodities group decreased from $44,973,000 to $41,157,000 or $3,816,000. (Under this group the principal decreases were: articles for exhibition from $5,098,000 to $2,098,000 or $3,000,000; while settlers' effects show an increase from $6,334,000 to $7,744,000 or $1,410,000. Ships' stores also show a large decrease, but this was due to coal and fuel oil for ships' stores being shown as separate items under the Non-Metallic Minerals group in 1928.

The Dominion's domestic exports to the United States in 1928 show an increase over similar exports in 1927 of $11,584,000. Four of the main groups show increases and five decreases, but the increases in the four main groups were greater than the decreases in the five main groups. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group decreased from $59,557,000 to $56,091,000 or $3,866,000. (The chief decreases were: seeds from $8,587,000 to $6,439,000 or $2,148,000; potatoes from $6,673,000 to $4,593,000 or $2,080,000; and wheat from $11,178,000 to $9,504,000 or $1,674,000; while alcoholic beverages increased from $22,162,000 to $24,132,000 or $1,970,000; and bran, shorts and middlings from $1,906,000 to $2,626,000 or $720,000). The Animals and Animal Products group increased from $75,320,000 to $92,244,000 or $16,924,000. (Under this group cattle increased from $5,015,000 to $13,527,000 or $8,512,000; raw hides from $6,787,000 to $11,417,000 or $4,630,000; meats from $7,244,000 to $11,289,000 or $4,045,000; unmanufactured leather from $6,571,000 to $8,223,000 or $1,652,000; and furs from $12,943,000 to $14,336,000 or $1,393,000; while the exports of milk and its products decreased from $12,304,000 to $10,934,000 or $1,370,000; and fish from $14,471,000 to $13,821,000 or $650,000). The Fibres and Textiles Products group increased from $3,451,000 to $4,922,000 or $1,471,000. (The principal increases were: raw wool from $1,416,000 to $2,352,000 or $936,000; and binder twine from $431,000 to $823,000 or $392,000). The Wood, Wood Products and Paper group decreased from $242,019,000 to $238,986,000 or $3,033,000. (Under this group the exports of unmanufactured wood (chiefly planks and boards, laths and shingles) decreased from $89,750,000 to $79,884,000 or $9,866,000; and manufactured wood (principally wood pulp) decreased from $41,415,000 to $38,088,000 or $3,327,000; whereas the exports of paper (chiefly newsprint) increased from $110,189,000 to $120,209,000 or $10,020,000). Iron and Its Products group decreased from $10,680,000 to $8,831,000 or $1,849,000. (Farm implements under this group decreased from $4,205,000 to $3,523,000 or $682,000; and pigs, ingots, etc., from $3,380,000 to $2,735,000 or $645,000). The Non-Ferrous Metals Products group increased from $39,007,000 to $44,114,000 or $5,107,000. (The chief increases were: aluminium in bars, blocks, etc., from $4,207,000 to $7,919,000 or $3,712,000; raw gold from $6,836,000 to $8,990,000 or $2,154,000; and nickel from $5,997,000 to $7,132,000 or $1,135,000; while the exports of silver decreased from $5,788,000 to $4,498,000 or $1,290,000; and zinc from $349,000 to $110,000 or $239,000). The Non-Metallic Minerals Products group decreased from $17,251,000 to $15,- 509,000 or $1,742,000. (The principal decreases were: raw asbestos from $6,978,000 to $6,535,000 or $443,000; stone and its products from $5,080,000 to $4,699,000 or $381,000; coke from $990,000 to $722,000 or $268,000; mica from $425,000 to $243,000 or $182,000; and crude petroleum oil from $674,000 to $482,000 or $192,000). The Chemicals and Allied Products group increased from $8,092,000 to $8,678,000 or $586,000; while the Miscellaneous Commodities group decreased from $10,644,000 to $8,630,000 or $2,014,000. Under the Chemical group the principal increases were: fertilizers $3,683,000 to $4,776,000 or $1,093,000 while calcium carbide exports decreased from $691,000 to $78,000 or $613,000; whereas under Miscellaneous Commodities, settlers' effects decreased from $6,238,000 to $5,148,000 or $1,090,000; and films from $2,271,000 to $1,408,000 or $863,000.

Trade with Other Countries.—It will be observed by reference to the following table giving "Trade of Canada with the British Empire and Foreign Countries" that when the British Preferential Tariff was enacted, in 1897, Canada's imports from the United Kingdom (1896) amounted to only $32,824,000, being some $6,209,000 less than for the year 1886. From 1886 to 1896 imports from the United Kingdom decreased about 16 per cent, whereas from 1896 to 1928 they increased about 466 per cent. The British Preferential Tariff was no doubt largely responsible for the increase in imports, not only from the United Kingdom, but from other parts of the Empire as well. This table also shows that the trade treaties and agreements negotiated with British and foreign countries have had the effect of stimulating Canada's trade. In the fiscal year 1914 imports from the British Empire, except the United Kingdom, amounted to $22,456,000, in 1922 to $31,974,000 but in 1928 they had increased to $63,162,000, while imports from foreign countries, except the United States, totalled $68,365,000 in 1914, $82,737,000 in 1922 and in 1928 they had increased to $140,433,000. Exports, however during the same years show a greater advance. In 1914 exports to the British Empire, except the United Kingdom, were valued at $23,388,000, in 1922 at $46,474,000 and in 1928 they had advanced to $84,248,000, while in 1914 exports to foreign countries, except the United States, were valued at $29,573,000, in 1922 at $101,816,000, and in 1928 they amounted to $250,924,000.

With further reference to the trade of Canada with other countries than the United Kingdom and the United States, attention is directed to tables Nos. 10-36, pages 85 to 117, giving the trade of Canada in leading commodities with 81 British and foreign countries for the fiscal years 1927 and 1928.

TRADE OF CANADA WITH THE BRITISH EMPIRE AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES

(Fiscal Years 1886, 1896, 1906, 1914, 1922 and 1928)

NOTE:—For comparative purposes the trade of Canada with the Irish Free State in 1928 is included with the United Kingdom.

Relation between Trade in Raw and Manufactured Products:—The character of the goods which make up its import and export trade very often indicates the industrial development of a country. Canada, for some years after Confederation, was not engaged in manufacturing to any great extent, and consequently her imports consisted largely of manufactured products while her exports were chiefly raw materials and semi-manufactured goods. Since 1900, however, there has been a gradual increase in the amount of raw materials and semi-manufactured products imported for the industries of the Dominion, while there has been a marked increase in the exports of those products which have undergone some process of manufacture. Canada, during the present century, has passed through much the same stages of development in her economic life as did the United States from 1870 to 1900. During this period imports of raw materials into the United States increased from 25.2 per cent to 44.0 per cent of the total imports and manufactured products decreased from 62.1 per cent to 40.2 per cent, while exports of raw materials from the United States during the same interval decreased from 67.7 per cent to 40.2 per cent of the total exports and the exports of manufactured products increased from 28.6 per cent to 48.6 per cent. Statistics for 1927 show a further improvement though it is not so marked as in 1926. Compared with 1926, the 1927 statistics show that imports of raw materials into the United States decreased from 54.5 per cent to 51.1 per cent of the total imports and exports increased from 33.4 per cent to 35.0 per cent of the total exports, whereas imports of manufactured products increased from 27.7 per cent to 31.1 per cent and exports decreased from 53.0 per cent to 50.9 per cent.

From 1900 to 1927 imports of manufactured products into Canada increased from $111,400,000 to $662,300,000 or 494.5 per cent, while similar imports into the United States increased from $341,500,000 to $1,321,100,000 or 286.9 per cent; whereas exports of manufactured products from Canada, from 1900 to 1927, increased from $68,900,000 to $490,400,000 or 611.8 per cent, while exports of similar products from the United States increased from $666,300,000 to $2,471,900,000 or 270.9 per cent. While Canada has not made as rapid a development in this respect as the United States, i.e., in increasing exports of manufactured products and curtailing imports, while curtailing exports of raw materials but increasing imports, she has made some progress in this respect since 1910, though the tendency for the years 1926 and 1927 was in the opposite direction as the statistics in the following table show:—

In Canada grains, chiefly wheat, and in the United States raw cotton, grains, principally wheat, and raw tobacco are the leading commodities which comprise the bulk of the exports of raw materials. It is of interest to note the results in Canada and the United States when certain staple raw materials, of farm origin, which are reproducible annually, are eliminated; such as grains, fresh fruits and vegetables, seeds and raw tobacco for both countries as also raw cotton for the United States. The results, for the years 1900 to 1927, are set forth in the following table:—

The statistics in the above table indicate that the value of the exports of "Other raw materials" from Canada from 1900 to 1927, i.e., total exports of raw materials less exports of certain specified raw materials, increased from $48,500,000 to $155,800,000 or 221.3 per cent, while the proportion of the total domestic exports decreased from 28.8 per cent to 12.4 per cent, whereas the value of the exports of "Other raw materials" from the United States during the same period, i.e., total exports of raw materials less exports of certain specified raw materials, increased from $82,700,000 to $333,900,000 or 303.7 per cent, while the proportion of the total domestic exports increased from 6.0 to 7.0 per cent. In the case of Canada the percentage of the exports of "Other raw materials" of the total domestic exports from 1900 to 1920 varied considerably, but from 1920 to 1927 it was practically constant varying only from 12.1 to 15.9 per cent; while in the case of the United States the percentage of the exports of "Other raw materials" of the total domestic exports from 1900 to 1927 varied only slightly, viz., from 4.8 to 7.9 per cent.

With reference to the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with the British Empire and Foreign Countries, analysis shows that the bulk of the imports into Canada from the United Kingdom and the United States consists of manufactured products, while the exports are made up very largely of raw and semi-manufactured products. During the fiscal years 1926 and 1927 the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with the United Kingdom and the United States was:—

	Imports from				Exports to
	United Kingdom		United States		United Kingdom		United States
	1926	1927	1926	1927	1926	1927	1926	1927

With regard to the relation between the trade in raw and manufactured products with countries other than the United Kingdom and the United States, it will be found on analysis that Canada's imports from countries with highly developed manufacturing industries consist of manufactured products, and her exports to those countries are made up very largely of raw and semi-manufactured products, but on the other hand Canada's trade with countries whose industries are not highly developed consists, in the case of imports, chiefly of raw and semi-manufactured products, and in the case of exports, very largely of manufactured products. No statistics have been compiled showing relation between trade in raw and semi-manufactured products with foreign countries, except the United States, but a partial compilation has been made for the British Empire, for the year 1926. This analysis clearly demonstrates that the imports into Canada from the British Empire, except the United Kingdom, consist chiefly of raw and semi-manufactured products, while the exports are made up mainly of manufactured products. The statistics in the following table demonstrate this:—

Seasonal Fluctuations.—The seasonal movement of Canada's external trade for 1928 shows no abnormal tendencies except in the exports for the months of April, May and June, principally due to heavy exports of wheat in those months. The table of "Canada's Monthly Imports and Exports" shows that the imports for the summer months are usually greater than for the other months of the year, though the monthly variations are not as marked as the lack of direct shipping facilities via the St. Lawrence in winter would indicate. Exports, however, as a result of the influence of agricultural products, especially wheat, reach a low point during the summer months, rise to a peak during the autumn, gradually decline during the winter, and with the opening of navigation on the St. Lawrence in the spring, show an upward tendency. The very large increase in recent years of the exports of pulp and paper and other manufactured products, the export of which is not seasonal but almost constant, has had the effect of reducing the proportionate seasonal fluctuations of Canada's total exports. The trade figures for March in each year are greater for imports than for any other month, while in the case of exports they are not, as a rule, as large as those for the spring and fall months, when large quantities of grains, especially wheat, are being shipped. The totals for March are always greater than those for April. March figures must include all entries at all ports to the close of the fiscal year (March 31). In all other months the records are closed at Ottawa on the last day of the month. Late reports (which in the case of the great, but distant, port of Vancouver, may cover four or five days' business) are regularly included in totals for the succeeding month. April totals include nothing for March, while they are short some amounts carried forward into May.

Trade by Continents.—Europe is Canada's best customer, but we purchase more goods from North America than from any other continent. During 1928 Europe and North America took 89.1 per cent of Canada's total exports, as compared with 88.6 per cent in 1927 and 89.6 per cent in 1924. The proportion shipped to Europe in 1928 was 46.9 per cent, compared with 8.2 per cent in 1927 and 44.8 per cent in 1924; while the proportion sent to North America in 1928 was 42.2 per cent compared with 40.4 per cent in 1927 and 44.8 per cent in 1924. From 1924 to 1928 the proportion of Canada's exports to the United Kingdom decreased from 34.5 per cent to 33.4 per cent, while the proportion to the United States decreased from 41.2 per cent to 38.9 per cent. Europe and North America furnished Canada in 1928, with 92.2 per cent of her total imports as against 93.6 per cent in 1927 and 94.2 per cent in 1924. The proportion furnished by Europe in 1928 was 24.5 per cent compared with 23.5 per cent in 1927 and 2.6 per cent in 1924, whereas the proportion furnished by North America in 1928 was 67.7 per cent, in 1927, 70.1 per cent and in 1924, 71.6 per cent. From 1924 to 1928 the proportion of the imports furnished by the United Kingdom decreased from 17.2 per cent to 16.8 per cent, and from the United States 67.3 per cent to 64.9 per cent. Canada purchased more goods from every continent in 1928 than in the years 1924 to 1927, except in the case of Asia, the purchases from Asia for 1926 exceeding those in 1928. Canada sold more goods to every continent except Oceania in 1928 than in 1924 or 1925. Canada sold less goods to Europe in 1928 than in the years 1926 or 1927, the sales, however, to North America in 1928 were greater than in 1926 or 1927, as also to Africa, but to South America the sales were less than in 1927, but greater than in 1926, and to Asia they were less than in 1926 though greater than in 1927; while to Oceania they were less than in 1926 or 1927. From 1924 to 1928 imports from South America increased from $16,800,000 to $32,400,000, from Oceania from $3,500,000 to $18,300,000, and from Asia from $30,400,000 to $32,400,000, while exports to South America increased from $15,700,000 to $27,400,000, to Asia from $49,900,000 to $65,700,000, while those to Oceania decreased from $3,500,000 to $26,300,000. Purchases from and sales to the continents of Europe, North America and Africa, from 1924 to 1928, show substantial increases.

Imports from Principal Countries.—Increases are shown in Canada's imports from 26 of the 35 principal countries in 1928. Of the total increase in imports in 1928, amounting to $78,063,000, the British Empire accounted for $35,011,000 and foreign countries for $43,052,000. The principal countries to show increases were: United States $32,421,000; United Kingdom $21,950,000; Colombia $6,463,000; Argentina $4,193,000; New Zealand $3,684,000; Fiji $3,087,000; France $2,482,000; Barbados $2,425,000; Germany $2,026,000; British Guiana $1,480,000; British India $1,359,000 and Japan $1,335,000; while the principal countries to show decreases were: San Domingo $3,563,000; Cuba $2,490,000; China $2,470,000 and Mexico $1,199,000. During 1928 many changes took place in the principal markets whence Canada received her supplies. The table "Canada's Imports from Thirty-Five Leading Countries, 1928" indicates that the United States and the United Kingdom supplied Canada with 81.7 per cent of her imports. Since 1882 the United States have held first place in Canada's import trade, the United Kingdom being second. As regards other markets, France has occupied third place for the past four years; Germany was in fourth place in 1927 and 1928, advancing from fifth place in 1926 and ninth place in 1925; Japan and Belgium occupied fifth and sixth places respectively in 1927 and 1928; Argentina has displaced Switzerland moving from fourteenth place in 1927 to seventh place in 1928; British India was eighth and the Netherlands ninth in 1928, British India displacing Cuba, which moved down to fifteenth place, and the Netherlands moving up from tenth place. Switzerland occupied tenth place in 1928; New Zealand eleventh place, moving up from eighteenth; Colombia twelfth, moving up from thirty-third; while Barbados and British Guiana occupied thirteenth and fourteenth place respectively, moving up from nineteenth and seventeenth places in 1927.

In 1868, 89.9 per cent of Canada's imports was supplied by the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion from the United Kingdom being 56.1 per cent, and the United States 33.8 per cent. In 1900 the United Kingdom and the United States supplied Canada with 84.9 per cent of her total imports, the proportion from the United Kingdom being 25.7 per cent, and from the United States 59.2 per cent, while in 1928, 81.7 per cent of Canada's total imports came from the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion from the United Kingdom falling to 16.8 per cent, and from the United States rising to 64.9 per cent. From 1868 to 1928 the percentage of imports from the United Kingdom fell from 56.1 per cent to 16.8 per cent, while the percentage from the United States rose from 33.8 to 64.9.

There has been a gradual growth in the percentage of imports from "Other Countries" than the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion in 1868 amounting to 10.1 per cent; in 1900 to 15.1 per cent; and in 1927 and 1928 17.4 and 18.3 per cent respectively. In 1868 the 10.1 per cent represented an import value of only $6,813,000; in 1900 the 15.1 per cent an import value of $26,146,000 and in 1927 and 1928 the 17.4 and 18.3 per cent, respectively, represented import values of $180,000,000 and $203,500,000; increase 1927 to 1928 $23,500,000. Of these amounts, Europe, except the United Kingdom, supplied $78,100,000 in 1927 and $85,800,000 in 1928, increase $7,700,000; North America, except United States, $34,700,000 in 1927 and $30,600,000 in 1928, decrease $4,100,000; South America, $20,000,000 in 1927 and $32,400,000 in 1928, increase $12,400,000; Asia, $32,000,000 in 1927 and $32,400,000 in 1928, increase $400,000; Oceania, $12,500,000 in 1927 and $18,300,000 in 1928, increase $5,800,000; and Africa, $2,700,000 in 1927 and $4,000,000 in 1928, increase $1,300,000.

Exports to Principal Countries.—During 1928 exports of domestic produce show a decrease of $23,950,000 compared with 1927, but an increase over the year 1925 of $159,141,000. Decreases occurred in exports to 19 of the 40 principal countries, whereas 21 show increases. Of the total decreases, 1927 to 1928, that in the exports to the British Empire amounted to $1,160,000, while there was an increase in the exports to foreign countries of $17,210,000. The principal countries to show decreases were: United Kingdom $36,169,000; France $5,274,000; Australia $4,774,000; Italy $4,072,000; Brazil $2,394,000; New Zealand $2,172,000; Argentina $2,016,000; Greece $1,741,000; Irish Free State $1,732,000; Cuba $1,441,000; Dutch East Indies $1,288,000; and Uruguay $1,158,000. Principal countries to show increases were: United States $11,583,000; the Netherlands $9,164,000; Germany $7,833,000; Japan $3,028,000; Norway $1,638,000; Sweden $1,196,000; British India $1,048,000 and Hong Kong $1,006,000.

Many changes have taken place in the chief markets to which Canada shipped her products in 1928. The table "Canada's Domestic Exports to Forty Leading Countries, 1928" shows that the United States and the United Kingdom took 72.3 per cent of the Dominion's exports. The United States occupied first place in 1928 as in 1925 and 1927, though she was in second place in 1926, while the United Kingdom occupied second place in 1928 as in 1925 and 1927, but first place in 1926. Of the other leading markets for Canadian products, Germany occupied third place in 1928, as also in 1925 and 1927, but fourth place in 1926; the Netherlands moved from fifth up to fourth place, displacing Japan; Japan was fifth in 1928, fourth in 1925 and 1927, and third in 1926; Belgium moved from seventh to sixth place, though she was fifth in 1925 and seventh in 1926; Italy occupied seventh place moving down from sixth place, while Australia occupied eighth place in 1928 as in 1927. In 1928 China, Newfoundland and New Zealand occupied ninth, tenth and eleventh places, respectively, though in 1927, New Zealand was in tenth place, China in eleventh (but fifth in 1926), and Newfoundland in thirteenth place.

In 1868 the exports to the United Kingdom and the United States combined were 89.2 per cent of the total exports of domestic produce, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 36.9 per cent, and the United States 52.3 per cent. In 1900 similar exports to the United Kingdom and the United States were 91.3 per cent, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 57.1 per cent, and the United States 34.2 per cent; while for the year 1928, the domestic exports of Canada to the United Kingdom and the United States were 72.3 per cent; the proportion for the United Kingdom being 33.4 per cent, and the United States 38.9 per cent. From 1868 to 1928 Canada's domestic exports to the United Kingdom fell from 36.9 per cent to 33.4 per cent, while similar exports to the United States fell from 52.3 per cent to 38.9 per cent. The proportion of Canada's domestic exports to "Other Countries" than the United Kingdom and the United States, in 1868 was 10.8 per cent; in 1900 it had dropped to 8.7 per cent, but by 1927 it had risen to 27.1 per cent and in 1928 to 27.7 per cent. This increase was due to a decline in the proportion exported to the United States. At Confederation the proportion exported to "Other Countries," being 10.8 per cent of Canada's total domestic exports, represented an export value of $5,249,000; in 1900 the proportion of 8.7 per cent a value of $14,413,000, while in 1927 the proportion of 27.1 per cent represented a value of $338,800,000 and in 1928 the proportion of 27.7 per cent a value of $339,500,000, increase from 1927 to 1928 of $700,000. The increase in Canada's domestic exports to "Other Countries" from 1868 to 1900 was $9,164,000 or 174 per cent, while from 1900 to 1928 the increase was $325,100,000 or 2,257 per cent. During 1927 and 1928 the exports to "Other Countries," amounting to $338,800,000 and $339,500,000, were distributed by Continents as follows: Europe, except United Kingdom, 1927 $155,900,000, 1928 $164,100,000, increase $8,200,000; North America, except United States, 1927 $39,800,000, 1928 $41,100,000, increase $1,300,000; South America, 1927 $32,900,000, 1928 $27,400,000, decrease $5,500,000; Asia 1927 $63,500,000, 1928 $65,700,000, increase $2,200,000; Oceania, 1927 $33,200,000, 1928 $26,300,000, decrease $6,900,000; and Africa, 1927 $13,500,000, 1928 $14,900,000, increase $1,400,000.

Trade Balances.—On March 31, 1921, the visible trade balance was unfavourable to Canada to the amount of $29,730,000, but since then, as well as during the war and the post-bellum boom, it has been favourable. During the past two years there has been a substantial decline in the favourable trade balance until on March 31, 1928, it was only $141,500,000, compared with $401,371,000 two years ago. This decline does not indicate a curtailment in industrial activities, as there has been a marked development in many lines of industry during the past two years. The phenomenon is due to Canada's increased purchasing power, not only at home but also abroad. It will be observed from the table showing "Canada's Trade Balances with Leading Countries" that the Dominion's exports in 1928 to the continents of Europe, Asia, Oceania and Africa, exceeded the imports from those continents, while the exports to the continents of North and South America were less than the imports.

There have been marked changes in the trade balances with the leading commercial countries of the world. In 1914 Canada had a favourable trade balance with Europe of $65,032,000, which had increased to $305,645,000 in 1928, while the number of countries in Europe with which she had a favourable balance increased from seven to sixteen. From 1914 to 1928 the Dominion's annual credit balance with the United Kingdom increased from $90,252,000 to $226,887,000; and with the Netherlands from $2,494,000 to $26,928,000; with Germany from a debit balance of $10,152,000 to a credit balance of $25,270,000; with Italy from a debit balance of $1,435,000 to a credit balance of $14,504,000; with Belgium credit balances from $330,000 to $10,963,000; with Denmark credit balances from $525,000 to $6,267,000; with Norway credit balance from $359,000 to $5,605,000; and with Greece from a debit balance of $433,000 to a credit balance of $4,038,000. For 1914 Canada had a debit trade balance with France of $10,466,000 which had increased to $16,436,000 for 1928, while the annual debit balance with Switzerland during the same period increased from $4,268,000 to $8,075,000. Canada's trade balance with North America has been unfavourable for some years. In 1914 it amounted to $221,963,000 and in 1928 it was $211,471,000, while the number of countries in North America with which Canada had an unfavourable trade balance in 1914 and 1928 was practically the same. The Dominion's annual unfavourable trade balance with the United States increased, 1914 to 1928, from $219,354,000 to $222,797,000; with the British West Indies it decreased from a credit balance of $143,000 to a debit balance of $2,184,000; while with San Domingo the debit balance decreased from $2,882,000 to $2,040,000, and with Cuba from $2,124,000 to $198,000. During the same period the annual credit trade balance with Newfoundland increased from $2,900,000 to $10,018,000, and with Mexico from a debit of $1,419,000 to a credit of $1,387,000. With the continent of South America the debit balance increased from $4,770,000 in 1914 to $4,891,000 in 1928, the most notable change occurring in the trade with Colombia, which increased a debit balance of $125,000 to $5,839,000. From 1914 to 1928 the unfavourable trade balance with Asia amounting to $8,118,000 was converted into a favourable balance of $33,482,000, the principal countries responsible for this change being British India and Japan, the trade balance with the former increasing from a debit balance of $4,589,000 to a credit balance of $1,803,000, and with the latter from a debit of $1,015,000 to a credit of $20,468,000. The favourable balance with Oceania from 1914 to 1928 increased from $2,603,000 to $7,827,000, and with Africa from $3,459,000 to $10,908,000. In 1926 the favourable trade balance with Oceania amounted to $23,829,000, the decrease in 1928 compared with 1926 amounting to $16,002,000, was due to decreased exports to Australia and New Zealand, and increased imports of raw sugar from Australia and butter from New Zealand.

Principal Commodity Imports.—The table giving "One Hundred Leading Commodities Imported into Canada, 1928" shows that the total value of these commodities amounted to $918,063,000 or 82.8 per cent of Canada's total imports. Of the one hundred commodities listed sixty five (65) show increases in value and thirty-five (35) decreases. Of the fifty-two (52) commodities for which there were quantity statistics one only shows decrease in quantity but increase in value; five (5) show increases in quantity and decreases in value; while twenty-nine (29) show increases in both quantity and value; and seventeen (17) decreases in both quantity and value. Of the forty-eight (48) commodities for which there were no quantity statistics thirty-five (35) show increases and thirteen (13) decreases. The statistics for the five (5) commodities which show increases in quantity but decreases in value, 1928 compared with 1927, were:—

Commodity		Imports, 1928		Increase in Quantity	Decrease in Value
		Quantity	Value
			$		$
Crude petroleum (except for ships' stores).....	Gal.	786,475,279	34,125,572	92,639,849	2,364,364
Raw rubber.....	Lb.	58,062,095	21,337,146	7,837,481	976,200
Gasoline.....	Gal.	112,250,169	11,549,807	24,699,948	923,557

Manila and sisal grass.....	Lb.	52,412,400	4,255,080	431,700	775,820

In the case of the forty-six (46) commodities that show either an increase in both quantity and value or a decrease in both quantity and value, the price per unit for twenty-six (26) was less in 1928 than in 1927. The twenty-six (26) commodities imported of which the average import price was lower in 1928 than in 1927, were: alumina, bars and rods (iron and steel), binder twine, canned vegetables, coal, dress goods (wool) to be dyed, dried fruits, dyeing and tanning materials, grey cottons, hemp, iron ore, jute canvas or cloth, molasses, pigs and ingots (iron and steel), planks and boards, plates and sheets, printed or dyed cottons, raw silk, rice, soda and sodium compounds, structural iron and steel, tea, tin ingots, vegetable oil, woollen yarns, and worsteds and serges. Twenty (20) commodities account for nearly fifty (50) per cent of Canada's total imports. These commodities in order of importance were: coal, machinery, spirits and wines, crude petroleum oil, automobiles, raw sugar, automobile parts, farm implements, green fruits, raw cotton, plates and sheets (iron and steel), raw rubber, silk fabrics, electric apparatus, engines and boilers, raw furs, books and printed matter, raw hides, worsteds and serges, and corn.

Imports for Canadian Industries.—An analysis of statistics of "Imports of Sixty-Three Leading Commodities for Canadian Industries, 1928" shows that the increase in the Dominion's total imports for the fiscal year 1928 over 1927, amounting to $78,063,000, was only partly due to increased imports for the use of Canadian industries. The total value of the commodities listed as for Canadian industries amounted to $358,767,000 or 32.3 per cent of the total imports, while the increase in these commodities was $15,846,000 or 20.3 per cent of the increase in total imports. This increase ($15,846,000) in the imports of commodities for Canadian industries is greater by $3,737,000 than the increase ($12,109,000) of 1927 over 1926. According to degree of manufacture the imports and increases, 1928 compared with 1927, of the sixty-three commodities for Canadian industries mentioned, may be apportioned as under:—

Degree of Manufacture	Imports, 1928		Increase, 1928 over 1927
	Value	Per cent of Total	Value	Per cent of Total
Raw materials.....	$ 179,885,000	% 50.1	$ 12,869,000	% 81.2
Semi-manufactured.....	92,449,000	25.8	859,000	5.4
Fully manufactured.....	86,433,000	24.1	2,118,000	13.4
Total (63 commodities).....	358,767,000	100.0	15,846,000	100.0

The statistics in the above table indicate that of the total imports for Canadian industries, 1928, raw materials comprised 50.1 per cent, but of the total increase in these commodities, 1927 to 1928, they comprised 81.2 per cent.

Thirty (30) of the sixty-three (63) commodities listed show increases in value and thirty-three (33) show decreases, while twenty-eight (28) of the forty-eight (48) commodities, for which there are quantity statistics, show increases and twenty (20) show decreases. Of the forty-eight (48) commodities for which there are quantity statistics, only one (1) shows decrease in the quantity and increase in the value, viz: raw cotton, which decreased in quantity 2,434,000 pounds but increased in value $4,469,000. Eight show increases in quantity but decreases in value; twenty show increases in both quantity and value; and nineteen decreases in both quantity and value. Of the fifteen commodities entered at value only, nine show increases and six show decreases. The imports of the eight commodities which show increases in quantity and decreases in value were (in order of importance): crude petroleum, raw rubber, raw coffee, skelp iron for pipe, manila and sisal grass, gums and resins, oil for soap industry, and rubber (hard, recovered, etc.).

In the case of commodities that show an increase or decrease in both quantity and value it will be found in most instances that the fluctuation in value was proportionately less than in the quantity. In other words the Canadian manufacturer obtained his imported raw materials, as a rule, at a lower price in 1928 than in 1927.

The increase in the sixty-three commodities for use in Canadian industries in 1928 amounted to $15,846,000. The amount of increase in imports not accounted for in this table, amounting to $62,217,000, was made up chiefly of two general categories, viz.: (1) Commodities not indigenous to Canada or not strictly regarded as trade in the general acceptance of the term, such as: Fresh fruits $24,859,000, increase $3,571,000 (chiefly in bananas, lemons and oranges); corn $13,058,000, increase $2,147,000 (while corn is indigenous to Canada this increase was probably due to the Dominion's poor crop in 1926, and practically a crop failure in 1927); settlers' effects $9,192,000, increase $1,394,000; nuts (edible) $5,058,000, increase $849,000; containers (outside coverings) $4,088,000, increase $619,000; menageries $1,116,000, increase $445,000; asphalt $902,000, increase $430,000; dried currants $627,000, increase $308,000; and rice $2,358,000, increase $242,000; and (2) Manufactured commodities, viz.: Alcoholic beverages $45,472,000, increase $16,493,000; farm implements $29,636,000, increase $10,690,000; machinery $48,601,000, increase $7,519,000; automobiles $34,422,000, increase $7,339,000; electric apparatus $19,044,000, increase $2,112,000; books and printed matter $14,832,000, increase $1,091,000; structural iron $8,656,000, increase $985,000; jute cloth and canvas $7,863,000, increase $972,000; cotton fabrics (grey and white) $4,182,000, increase $852,000; fertilizers $4,145,000, increase $653,000; carpets (wool) $2,806,000, increase $625,000; paper $11,918,000, increase $559,000; leather manufactures $4,558,000, increase $456,000; tableware of china $4,114,000, increase $443,000; paints and varnishes $5,015,000, increase $408,000; and jewellery $1,858,000, increase $382,000.

Principal Commodity Exports.—The table giving "Seventy Leading Canadian Commodities Exported from Canada, 1928" shows that the value of these commodities amounted to $1,160,723,000 or 94.4 per cent of our total domestic exports. Twenty-seven (27) of the commodities listed show increases in value and forty-three (43) show decreases. Four (4) of the commodities for which there are quantity statistics show increases in the quantity, but decreases in value; four (4) show decreases in quantity but increases in value, while seventeen (17) show increases in both quantity and value, and twenty-nine (29) show decreases in both quantity and value. Six (6) of the commodities for which there are no quantity statistics show increases and ten (10) show decreases. A further analysis shows that of the fifty-four (54) commodities for which there were quantity statistics, thirty-three (33) were exported at a lower average export price per unit in 1928 than in 1927, and twenty-one (21) at a higher average export price. The total value, however, of the thirty-three (33) commodities for which the average export price was lower in 1928 than in 1927 amounted to $822,000,000, while the total value of the twenty-one (21) commodities for which the average export price was higher amounted to $222,000,000. The above analysis indicates that the physical volume of Canada's exports in 1928 was greater than in 1927, and possibly the greatest on record, and further it indicates that the decrease in Canada's domestic exports, 1928 compared with 1927, amounting to $23,950,000, was entirely due to lower average export prices.

The statistics in the following table clearly demonstrate that if the average export price for certain staple products had been the same in 1928 as in 1927, the Dominion's exports in 1928 would have been $20,354,000 greater (instead of $23,950,000 less) than in 1927:—

Trade via the United States.—Canada's imports from overseas countries via the United States in recent years have steadily declined, especially those from the British Empire. This decrease has followed: (1) general propaganda to utilize Canadian sea and river ports, and (2) additional concessions to goods imported under the Preferential tariff if they came direct. Provision has been made in trade treaties and agreements negotiated with foreign countries that goods must be imported via a Canadian sea or river port in order to obtain the full benefits of special rates of duty. There was a decrease in imports via the United States during the year 1928 compared with 1927 of $643,626, the decrease in the imports from the British Empire amounting to $1,545,840, while the imports from foreign countries show an increase of $902,214. The following table provides an analysis of this feature of Canadian import trade for the last five fiscal years:—

The exports from Canada to overseas countries via the United States continue to remain about stationary, the proportions for the past four fiscal years being: 1925, 39.3 per cent; 1926, 39.2 per cent; 1927, 39.5 per cent., and 1928, 38.9 per cent. The total value of commodities exported to overseas countries in 1928 was $18,677,477 less than for the year 1927, wheat accounting for $11,723,373 or about 63 per cent of this decrease. The decrease in wheat also accounted for 80 per cent of the total decrease to the United Kingdom. Comparisons for five years are as follows:—

The subjoined table giving "Principal Commodities Exported from Canada to Overseas Countries via the United States and via Canadian Sea or River Ports, 1928", illustrates the details of this movement. The commodities listed represent 92.3 per cent of all goods shipped to overseas countries via the United States, and 85.5 per cent of those going via Canadian sea or river ports. During the past two or three years a considerable amount of Canadian grain exported from Fort William and Port Arthur to overseas countries via the United States has been re-routed from United States lake ports via the St. Lawrence route for ocean shipment at Montreal. The amount of Canadian grain re-routed for export at Montreal during the calendar years 1925, 1926 and 1927 was:—

Grains	1925	1926	1927
	Bushels	Bushels	Bushels
Barley.....	1,439,000	361,000	2,533,000
Oats.....	2,395,000	697,000	597,000
Rye.....	1,170,000	370,000	2,052,000
Wheat.....	17,779,000	15,794,000	34,025,000
Total.....	22,783,000	17,222,000	39,207,000

This re-routed Canadian grain was not recorded as an export at Montreal because it had already been recorded as an export at Fort William or Port Arthur. It was recorded, however, as "in transit" grain from the United States via the Port of Montreal.

In order to obtain the actual amount of barley, oats, rye and wheat shipped via Canadian sea and river ports, this re-routed Canadian grain should be added to the quantity already thus recorded and deducted from the quantity shown as exported via United States channels.

PRINCIPAL CANADIAN COMMODITIES EXPORTED TO OVERSEAS COUNTRIES, WITH PORTIONS SHIPPED VIA THE UNITED STATES (INDIRECT) AND VIA CANADIAN SEA OR RIVER PORTS (DIRECT)—YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 1928

Canada's Position in International Trade.—Canada continues to improve her position among leading commercial nations, as shown by the table giving "Comparison of the Trade of the Principal Countries of the World". In 1913 Canada occupied eighth place in imports among the leading trading countries, being exceeded in value of imports by the United Kingdom, Germany, the United States, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Italy, but in 1927 she had advanced to fifth place, displacing the Netherlands, Belgium and Italy. In export trade, Canada in 1913 was in tenth position, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, France, the Netherlands, British India, Belgium, Italy and Argentina, but in 1927 she had moved up to fifth position, displacing the Netherlands, British India, Belgium, Italy and Argentina. With regard to aggregate trade, Canada occupied ninth position in 1913, but in 1927 (as in 1926) she occupied fifth position, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany and France.

Canada has also made remarkable progress in proportionate increase of trade, both in amount and percentage, from 1913 to 1927. In the amount of increases in imports she occupied seventh position, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany, Japan, France and Argentina; in exports, fourth place, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom and France, and in aggregate trade, fifth position, being exceeded by the United States, United Kingdom, France and Japan. In percentage of increase in trade from 1913 to 1927, Canada occupied eleventh place in imports, second in exports (being exceeded only by Japan), and sixth place in aggregate trade, being exceeded by Japan, New Zealand, Union of South Africa, Denmark and the United States.

With reference to trade per capita, Canada has made a very creditable showing since 1913. In that year Canada occupied fifth place in imports per capita and in 1927 she occupied seventh place. In exports per capita Canada in 1913 occupied seventh place and in 1927 she had advanced to second place, being exceeded only by New Zealand. In aggregate trade Canada in 1913 occupied sixth place in trade per capita and in 1927 she had moved up to second place, New Zealand being in first place as in 1926. In 1927 the aggregate trade per capita of New Zealand amounted to $309.87, imports totalling $149.57 and exports $160.30; while that for Canada amounted to $240.05, imports amounting to $112.06 and exports to $127.99.

In 1913 Canada occupied seventeenth position among the principal commercial nations of the world with reference to visible trade balance, it being unfavourable in that year to the extent of $222,000,000 or $29.61 per capita, but in 1927 she was in third position, with a favourable trade balance of $151,700,000. In 1927, as in 1913, the United States occupied first place and British India second place in amount of favourable trade balances. Although Canada's favourable trade balance in 1927 was $123,900,000 less than in 1926, she led the world in favourable trade balance per capita with Argentina a close second and New Zealand a good third. The standing is—Canada $15.93, Argentina $14.22 and New Zealand $10.73. In 1927 among the chief commercial nations of the world, nine (9) had a favourable trade balance, six (6) in 1926, eight (8) in 1925 and 1924, six (6) in 1923 and only three (3) in 1913. Canada's favourable trade balance per capita has exceeded that of any other country for the past five years.

Canada's Share in World Import Trade.—Canada has made remarkable progress since 1913 in the expansion of her export trade in the world's markets. The following table of "Canada's Share in World Import Trade" shows that, in 1913, the value of the total imports into the twenty-six (26) leading countries listed amounted to $16,900,600,000, whereas in 1926 the value of imports for the same countries amounted to $25,037,600,000, the increase during the thirteen years amounting to $8,137,000,000. During the same period, however, imports into the identical countries from Canada increased from $346,300,000 to $1,100,600,000 or $754,300,000. From 1913 to 1926 total imports into these countries increased only about 48 per cent, whereas imports from Canada increased about 218 per cent. In 1913 Canada's share of the total imports into the twenty-six (26) countries was practically 2 per cent, while for the year 1926 it was about 4½ per cent. From 1913 to 1926 Canada's share of the total imports into the principal world markets increased as follows: British West India Colonies from 9.2 to 19.2 per cent; United States from 8.1 to 11.0 per cent; New Zealand from 2.1 to 7.1 per cent; United Kingdom from 4.4 to 5.7 per cent; Switzerland from 1.0 to 4.5 per cent; Japan from 0.3 to 2.8 per cent; Germany from 0.6 to 2.7 per cent; and Australia from 1.3 to 2.8 per cent.

Canada's Exports compared with Exports of other Countries.—Canada to-day ranks high among the leading nations of the world in production and export of many staple products. In production of printing paper, nickel, asbestos, and cobalt she leads the world, and in output of lead and gold she occupies third place, while in export trade she leads the world in wheat and printing paper, and occupies second place in wheat flour and wood pulp. These four staple products comprise almost fifty per cent of Canada's total export trade.

Wheat Exports.—The rapid increase in the production of wheat in the Prairie Provinces during the past fifteen years and the practical elimination of Russia, Roumania and other wheat producing countries of Europe as leading factors in the grain trade, have had the effect of establishing Canada in second place as a wheat producing country, the United States being in first place. With regard to exports, Canada, for the calendar year 1927, occupied first place with an export of 255,062,000 bushels, the United States being second with 168,307,000 bushels. For the past six calendar years, as also for the year 1913, Canada's exports of wheat have exceeded those of the United States. For the fiscal year 1900 Canada's exports of wheat were only 16,845,000 bushels; for 1910 they amounted to 49,741,000 bushels; for 1920 to 77,978,000 bushels; and for 1928 they were 266,902,000 bushels. It will be noted on reference to the following table showing "Exports of Wheat from Principal Wheat Producing Countries of the World" that even in 1913 Canada occupied first place as a wheat exporting country, with an export of 129,950,000 bushels, Russia being in second place with an export of 121,953,000 bushels, Argentina in third place with 103,300,000 bushels and the United States in fourth place with 99,509,000 bushels. In 1927 the order had been changed considerably, Canada, as in 1913, was in first place, United States in second, Argentina in third and Australia in fourth place. Wheat occupies first place among Canada's exports.

Wheat Flour Exports.—Canada ranks second among the countries of the world as a wheat-flour exporting country, the first place being occupied by the United States. Since the opening of the present century, Canada has made remarkable progress in the flour-milling industry. This development is reflected in the increase of flour exports. For the fiscal year 1900 Canada's exports of flour were only 768,000 barrels; ten years later they were 3,064,000 barrels; in 1920 they were 8,863,000 barrels; and in the last fiscal year (1928) they amounted to 9,387,000 barrels. It will be observed from the following table giving "Exports of Wheat Flour from Principal Flour Producing Countries of the World" that in 1927 Canada was in second place with an export of 9,263,000 barrels and the United States in first place with an export of 12,826,000 barrels, while Australia was in third place with 5,269,000 barrels and Argentina in fourth place with 1,908,000 barrels. The exports of flour from the United States in 1927 were only 548,000 barrels greater than in 1913, while the exports from Canada were 4,369,000 barrels greater, and from Australia 3,007,000 barrels greater. The exports of flour from the United States and Canada comprise about two-thirds of the flour exports of the world.

Newsprint Paper Exports.—During the calendar year 1927, Canada (according to statistics issued by the Newsprint Service Bureau) led the world as a producer of newsprint paper, with an output of 4,174,000,000 pounds; the United States was second with 2,972,000,000 pounds; the United Kingdom third with 1,440,000,000 pounds and Germany fourth with 1,130,000,000 pounds. The production of newsprint for the world in 1928 was estimated at not far from 13,000,000,000 pounds of which North America supplied 58 per cent, and Canada alone about 33 per cent. The estimated production of newsprint paper for sixteen of the leading producing countries of the world, in 1927, totalling 12,706,000,000 pounds, was as follows:—

Country	Pounds	Country	Pounds
Canada.....	4,174,000,000	Norway.....	381,000,000

During the fiscal year 1890 Canada's total exports of paper were valued at only $122; in 1900 they amounted to $29,741; while in 1910 the exports of newsprint alone were valued at $2,612,000. Exports of newsprint paper from Canada during the fiscal year 1920 amounted to 1,427,251,000 pounds, value $53,204,000, while during 1928 they increased to 3,941,752,000 pounds, value $128,507,000. The Dominion's exports of newsprint paper are now second only to its exports of wheat.

In 1927 Canada occupied first position by a very wide margin among the world's chief exporters of newsprint paper, her exports being over eight times as great as those for Germany, her next competitor. From the following table showing "Exports of Newsprint Paper from Principal Paper Producing Countries of the World" it will be noted that, even in 1913, Canada led the world as an exporter of newsprint paper, while Norway was in second place, the United Kingdom in third and Germany in fourth place. In 1927 the total quantity of newsprint paper exported by thirteen leading exporting countries was 6,220,947,000 pounds, compared with 5,642,464,000 pounds in 1926, of which Canada in 1927 contributed 3,763,731,000 pounds or 60·5 per cent, and the other twelve countries combined 2,457,216,000 pounds or 39·5 per cent. Canada's exports, therefore, exceeded those of the other twelve countries combined by 1,306,515,000 pounds. Canada's exports of newsprint paper are no doubt greater than those of all the rest of the world combined.

Wood Pulp Exports.—Canada's great advance as a newsprint paper producer and exporter, since the beginning of the twentieth century, has been based on the wonderful development of her wood pulp industry. Canada's exports of wood pulp during the fiscal year 1890 were valued at only $168,000, in 1900 at $1,816,000. (No quantity statistics are available prior to 1908.) In the year 1910 the Dominion's exports of wood pulp amounted to 590,346,000 pounds, valued at $5,205,000; in 1920 to 1,538,958,000 pounds valued at $41,383,000; and in 1928 to 1,788,640,000 pounds, valued at $47,261,000. According to statistics in the following table giving "Exports of Wood Pulp from Principal Wood Pulp Producing Countries of the World" Canada, during the calendar year 1927, occupied second position among the world's exporters of wood pulp, with an export of 1,758,308,000 pounds; the first place being held by Sweden with an export of 3,723,770,000 pounds; while Norway was in third place with 1,615,402,000 pounds. In exports of chemical pulp Canada occupied second position, the first place being held by Sweden, by a wide margin, and third place by Finland. With regard to exports of mechanical pulp Canada in 1927 stood in third position, the first places being held by Norway and Sweden. In 1913 Sweden occupied first place as an exporter of wood pulp, Norway second place and Canada third.

PREFACE

All features of previous issues of the Condensed Preliminary Trade Report are continued in the present number. It consists, as before, of two main sections—A Review of Canada's Foreign Trade during the fiscal year just closed (1928-29), and a series of statistical tables ("Condensed Statistical Record of Canadian Trade"), partly summary and historical, but mainly a presentation of the main items of the trade of Canada with the more important countries of the world.

In the first section, the external trade of Canada is examined from several angles and the outstanding features of the year explained in both text and tabular form.

In table No. 8 of the Statistical Record, numerous changes of classification will be found in the section dealing with the imports of "Fibres and Textiles." These were necessitated by the extensive revision of Customs tariff schedules inaugurated by the budget of February 16, 1928. This is the first trade report on a Fiscal year basis incorporating the revised textile classification.

All the tables have been revised and expanded to meet altered conditions of trade. Commercial exchange with eighty-three different countries is dealt with in detail.

Throughout the report, figures for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1929, are unrevised; those for earlier years are final.

The "Review of Canada's Foreign Trade for 1928-29" was written by Mr. W. A. Warne, B.A., chief of the External Trade Branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, while the "Condensed Statistical Record" was compiled by Mr. Ernest Green, F. R. Hist. S., assistant chief of the Branch, Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

DOMINION BUREAU OF STATISTICS,
OTTAWA, June 15, 1929,

REVIEW OF CANADA'S FOREIGN TRADE, 1928-29

Canada steadily maintains her high place among the leading commercial nations. During the calendar year 1928 she occupied fifth position in import and export trade, second place in export and total trade per capita, third position in favourable trade balance, and second position in favourable trade balance per capita. Canada also leads the world in exports of wheat, news-print paper, nickel and asbestos; occupies second place in exports of wheat-flour, and third place in exports of wood pulp; as well as occupying a very high place in the exports of many other stable products, such as lumber and timber, automobiles, fish, copper, barley, cheese, raw furs, whiskey, meats, rubber tires, farm implements, pulpwood, cattle, raw gold, silver, lead, rye, oats, rubber footwear, leather and hides. While the Dominion's total trade for the fiscal year 1929, compared with that for 1928, shows an increase of $295,040,000 (imports $156,723,000 and exports $138,317,000), there is every reason to anticipate that her position in international trade during the calendar year 1929 will be well maintained.

Canada's total trade for the fiscal year 1929 reached a declared value of $2,654,452,000, the largest for any twelve-months period on record. The largest previous yearly record was for the twelve months ended December 31, 1917, when the Dominion's total trade was valued at $2,639,726,000. The total trade for the fiscal year 1929, therefore, exceeded a similar trade for the calendar year 1917, a previous record year, by $14,726,000. Imports for the fiscal year 1929 ($1,265,679,000) exceeded a similar trade for any previous fiscal year, though the imports for the calendar year 1920 ($1,336,921,000) were greater than for the fiscal year 1929; while exports for 1929 ($1,388,773,000) were larger than for any previous fiscal year, except 1918 ($1,586,170,000). Since the outbreak of the war, price fluctuations have obscured the real changes in the physical volume of trade, and the growth as a whole during this period has been over-estimated. In view of the great deflation in prices in some commodities that has taken place since the record periods of 1918 and 1921, this is a truly remarkable achievement, and reflects a great expansion in the production of Canada and in the growth of foreign markets for her varied products.

Allowing for the price changes, however, the physical volume of Canada's imports and exports was greater for the fiscal year 1929 than for any previous year, the decrease in the declared value of imports compared with the calendar year 1920 and exports compared with the fiscal year 1918, being entirely due to lower average import and exports prices.

Analysis of Total Trade.—The total foreign trade of Canada during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1929, amounted to $2,654,452,000 compared with a similar trade in 1928 of $2,359,412,000 and in 1927 of $2,298,466,000; the increase over the year 1928 amounting to $295,040,000, or 12.5 per cent and over 1927 to $355,986,000 or 15.1 per cent. Imports as well as exports show an improvement over the years 1928 and 1927. During 1929 imports amounted to $1,265,679,000 compared with an import trade in 1928 of $1,108,956,000 and in 1927 of $1,030,893,000; the increase in imports in 1929 over 1928 amounting to $156,723,000, or 14.1 per cent and over 1927 to $234,786,000 or 22.7 per cent; while total exports (domestic and foreign combined) during 1929 were valued at $1,388,773,000 compared with a similar trade in 1928 valued at $1,250,456,000 and in 1927 at $1,267,573,000; the increase over the year 1928 being $138,317,000 or 11.1 per cent and over 1927 $121,200,000 or 9.6 per cent. Canada's domestic exports in 1929 were valued at $1,363,587,000, in 1928 at $1,228,208,000, and 1927 at $1,252,158,000; the increase in 1929 over 1928 amounting to $135,379,000 or 11.0 per cent, and over 1927 to $111,429,000 or 9.0 per cent.

Analysis of Commodity Trade.—The increase in the imports from 1928 to 1929, amounting to $156,723,000, occurred in eight of the nine main groups; while the increase in domestic exports, totalling $135,379,000, occurred in seven of the nine main groups. The increase for the eight main import groups that had increases totalled $161,778,000, while the decrease in one group was $5,055,000. In exports, the total increase for seven main groups amounted to $143,693,000, while the decrease in the other two totalled $8,314,000. The import groups arranged in order of importance of increases in 1929 compared with 1928 were: (1) Iron and Its Products, $346,611,000, increase $87,037,000; (2) Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products, $206,444,000, increase $19,448,000; (3) Non-Ferrous Metals and Their Products $75,438,000, increase $15,248,000; (4) Non-Metallic Minerals and Their Products, $166,964,000, increase $13,915,000; (5) Miscellaneous Commodities, $68,492,000, increase $8,643,000; (6) Wood, Wood Products and Paper, $59,215,000, increase, $7,464,000; (7) Animals and Animal Products, $71,662,000, increase $5,872,000; and (8) Chemicals and Allied Products, $37,723,000, increase $4,151,000. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group alone shows a decrease of $5,055,000, the imports under this group amounting to $233,130,000. The seven main export groups arranged according to importance of increases, 1929 compared with 1928, were: (1) Agricultural and Vegetable Products, $646,514,000, increase $91,403,000; (2) Non-Ferrous Metals and Their Products, $112,655,000, increase $21,815,000; (3) Iron and Its Products, $82,257,000, increase $19,503,000; (4) Wood, Wood Products and Paper, $288,622,000, increase $4,078,000; (5) Miscellaneous Commodities, $18,264,000, increase $3,227,000; (6) Chemicals and Allied Products, $19,438,000, increase $2,073,000; and (7) Non-Metallic Minerals and Their Products, $27,402,000, increase $1,594,000. The two main exports groups to show decreases were: (1) Animals and Animal Products, $158,757,000, decrease $7,088,000; and (2) Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products, $9,678,000, decrease $1,226,000. For details of commodity imports and exports, with increases or decreases, fiscal year 1929 compared with 1928, see the following table.

(a) This item appears for the first time in Canadian trade from April 1, 1928.

For further information respecting Canada's trade in principal commodities with all countries, fiscal years 1927, 1928 and 1929, for imports see Table No. 8, pages 60 to 78 and for exports see Table No. 9, pages 79 to 90.

Trade with United Kingdom.—The total trade of Canada with the United Kingdom during the year ended March 31, 1929, amounted to $625,690,000, compared with a similar trade in 1928 of $598,659,000 and in 1927 of $611,958,000; the increase in 1929 over 1928 being $27,031,000 or 4.5 per cent, and over 1927 $13,732,000 or 2.2 per cent. Imports from the United Kingdom in 1929 were valued at $194,021,000, in 1928 at $185,896,000 and in 1927 at $163,939,000 the increase in the imports in 1929 over 1928 amounting to $8,125,000 or 4.4 per cent and over the year 1927 to $30,082,000 or 18.3 per cent. Total exports from Canada to the United Kingdom for the year 1929 amounted to $431,669,000 compared with a total export in 1928 of $412,763,000 and in 1927 of $448,019,000; the exports for 1929 show an increase over the year 1928 of $18,906,000 or 4.6 per cent, but compared with 1927 a decrease of $16,350,000 or 3.6 per cent. The domestic exports from Canada to the United Kingdom in 1929 were valued at $429,730,000, in 1928 at $410,691,000 and in 1927 at $446,873,000; the increase over a similar export in 1928 amounted to $19,039,000 or 4.6 per cent, but compared with the year 1927, the 1929 exports show a decrease of $17,143,000 or 3.8 per cent. It should be noted that a large proportion of the exports to the United Kingdom, especially grain, and particularly wheat, is diverted from its stated destination (the United Kingdom) to other countries. This diversion takes place, as a rule, in the movement of goods from Canada to the United Kingdom via the United States. During the fiscal year 1929, the amount of Canadian wheat exported to the United Kingdom via the United States was 163,292,000 bushels, valued at $179,446,000. A portion of this wheat was re-routed from United States lake ports via Canadian ports, principally Montreal. With reference to the shipments of wheat to the United Kingdom via the United States, we know from United States intransit figures, that only about fifty per cent of such intransit wheat is shown as an export to the United Kingdom when it leaves United States ports. It is evident, therefore, as about fifty per cent of all exports to the United Kingdom are shipped via the United States, that the Canadian exports recorded as shipped to the United Kingdom are about eighty to one hundred million dollars in excess of the amount of Canadian products actually received by the United Kingdom, while stated exports to other European countries are short this amount.

During the fiscal year 1929 imports from the United Kingdom compared with 1928 show increases under six of the main groups and decreases under three, viz.: Animals and Animal Products; Non-Metallic Mineral Products and Miscellaneous Commodities. Imports under the main group of Agricultural and Vegetable Products increased from $51,134,000 to $53,671,000, or $2,537,000. (Under this group alcoholic beverages (chiefly whiskey) increased from $38,693,000 to $40,315,000 or $1,622,000; tea from $5,280,000 to $5,283,000, or $3,000; vegetable oil from $388,000 to $1,456,000, or $1,068,000; green coffee from $627,000 to $830,000, or $203,000; while tobacco decreased from $801,000 to $778,000, or $23,000; and rubber from $724,000 to $698,000, or $26,000). The main group of Animals and Animal Products decreased from $6,091,000 to $5,664,000 or $427,000. (Unmanufactured leather under this group decreased from $1,501,000 to $1,281,000 or $220,000; manufactured leather from $1,336,000 to $1,283,000, or $53,000; furs from $1,234,000 to $1,111,000, or $123,000; butter from $458,000 to $229,000, or $229,000; while animals, living, increased from $236,000 to $295,000, or $59,000). The Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products group increased from $71,464,000 to $77,021,000, or $5,557,000. (The chief increases under this group were: wool and its products from $37,364,000 to $41,116,000, or $3,752,000; flax, hemp and jute from $6,655,000 to $7,154,000, or $499,000; and artificial silk and products from $3,647,000 to $5,302,000, or $1,655,000; while the imports of the following show decreases: cotton and its products from $13,791,000 to $13,617,000 or $174,000; silk and its products from $2,281,000 to $1,616,000, or $665,000; and hats and caps from $1,439,000 to $1,247,000, or $192,000). The main group of Wood, Wood Products and Paper increased from $4,360,000 to $4,935,000, or $575,000. (Books and printed matter under this group increased from $2,181,000 to $2,449,000 or $268,000; paper from $1,452,000 to $1,532,000, or $80,000; and wood and its products from $726,000 to $953,000, or $227,000). Iron and Its Products group increased from $17,726,000 to $18,997,000, or $1,271,000. (The principal increases under this group were: rolling mill products from $5,329,000 to $6,737,000, or $1,408,000; wire from $1,170,000 to $1,488,000, or $318,000; hardware and cutlery from $1,002,000 to $1,133,000, or $131,000; engines and boilers from $965,000 to $1,119,000, or $154,000; vehicles from $698,000 to $778,000, or $80,000; while the imports of machinery decreased from $5,104,000 to $3,997,000, or $1,107,000). The main group of Non-Ferrous Metal Products increased from $5,795,000 to $6,654,000, or $859,000. (The commodities to show increases under this group were: electric apparatus from $1,740,000 to $1,927,000, or $187,000; tin in ingots from $948,000 to $1,113,000, or $165,000; and brass from $527,000 to $648,000, or $121,000). The Non-Metallic Mineral Products group decreased from $14,468,000 to $12,101,000, or $2,367,000. (Under this group the following commodities show decreases: coal from $6,688,000 to $4,159,000, or $2,529,000; and glass from $1,331,000 to $1,226,000, or $105,000; while the following show increases: clay and its products (chiefly tableware of china) from $3,909,000 to $3,958,000, or $49,000; diamonds, unset, from $987,000 to $1,086,000, or $99,000; and stone and its products from $522,000 to $606,000, or $84,000). The Chemicals and Allied Products group increased from $4,422,000 to $4,943,000, or $521,000. (The chief items to show increases under this group were: drugs and medicines from $909,000 to $1,044,000, or $135,000; paints and varnishes from $771,000 to $895,000, or $124,000; soap from $148,000 to $165,000, or $17,000; and dyeing and tanning materials from $138,000 to $153,000, or $15,000; while imports of soda and sodium compounds decreased from $727,000 to $534,000, or $193,000). The Miscellaneous Commodities group decreased from $10,436,000 to $10,035,000, or $401,000. (The principal decreases under this group were: settlers's effects from $1,179,000 to $760,000, or $419,000; vessels from $995,000 to $43,000, or $952,000; and tobacco pipes from $454,000 to $326,000, or $128,000).

Canada's domestic exports to the United Kingdom during 1929 compared with 1928 show increases under five of the main groups and decreases under four, viz: Animals and Animal Products; Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products; Non-Metallic Mineral Products; and Chemicals and Allied Products. The domestic exports from Canada to the United Kingdom under the main group of Agricultural and Vegetable Products from 1928 to 1929 increased from $310,211,000 to $325,106,000, or $14,895,000. (The chief commodities responsible for this increase were: wheat from $244,816,000 to $260,009,000, or $15,193,000; barley from $15,330,000 to $17,553,000, or $2,223,000; rye from $4,505,000 to $5,369,000, or $864,000; oats from $1,395,000 to $4,043,000, or $2,648,000; apples, fresh, from $3,568,000 to $3,885,000, or $317,000; oatmeal and rolled oats from $1,481,000 to $2,073,000 or $592,000; and cereal foods from $2,023,000 to $2,176,000, or $153,000; while the following commodities show decreases: wheat flour from $20,247,000 to $16,972,000, or $3,275,000; rubber goods from $6,740,000 to $5,724,000, or $1,016,000; tobacco from $2,213,000 to $1,928,000, or $285,000; vegetables from $1,731,000 to $1,454,000, or $277,000; and sugar from $3,046,000 to $733,000, or $2,313,000). The Animal and Animal Products group decreased from $48,683,000 to $47,645,000, or $1,038,000. (The main items under this group to show decreases were: meats from $11,742,000 to $7,591,000, or $4,151,000; fish from $5,417,000 to $3,718,000, or $1,699,000; unmanufactured leather from $2,453,000 to $2,012,000, or $441,000; and condensed milk from $1,138,000 to $895,000, or $243,000; while the exports of cheese increased from $17,828,000 to $22,640,000, or $4,812,000; and furs from $9,185,000 to $10,062,000, or $877,000). The Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products group decreased from $1,897,000 to $811,000, or $1,086,000. (The items responsible for this decrease were: raw wool from $720,000 to $211,000, or $509,000; cottons from $424,000 to $127,000, or $297,000 and artificial silk from $327,000 to $6,000, or $321,000). The exports under the Wood, Wood Products and Paper group increased from $17,171,000 to $22,351,000, or $5,180,000. (The principal commodities to account for this increase were; paper (chiefly newsprint) from $4,486,000 to $10,965,000, or $6,479,000; while the exports of unmanufactured wood (largely planks and boards) decreased from $8,637,000, to $8,502,000, or $125,000; and manufactured wood (mainly wood pulp) from $3,916,000 to $2,696,000, or $1,220,000). The main group of Iron and Its Products increased from $8,196,000 to $8,721,000, or $525,000. (The exports of the following items were largely responsible for this increase: vehicles (chiefly automobiles) from $4,804,000 to $5,588,000, or $784,000; machinery from $1,350,000 to $1,379,000, or $29,000; and hardware and cutlery from $502,000 to $678,000, or $176,000). The exports under the main group of Non-Ferrous Metal Products increased from $15,696,000 to $16,347,000, or $651,000. (The principal items under this group responsible for this increase were: lead in pigs from $4,256,000 to $4,747,000, or $491,000; zinc from $1,218,000 to $1,424,000 or $206,000; aluminium in bars, blocks, etc., from $846,000 to $1,421,000, or $575,000; while the exports of nickel decreased from $5,785,000 to $5,149,000, or $636,000; copper ore from $1,771,000 to $1,603,000, or $168,000; and brass from $787,000 to $676,000, or $111,000). The Non-Metallic Mineral Products group decreased from $1,934,000 to $1,771,000, or $163,000.

(The main commodities to account for this decrease were: asbestos from $823,000 to $539,000, or $284,000; and coal from $216,000 to $148,000, or $68,000; while crude petroleum increased from $304,000 to $493,000, or $189,000; and artificial abrasives from $183,000 to $239,000, or $56,000). The exports under the Chemicals and Allied Products group decreased from $4,234,000 to $4,037,000, or $197,000. (The chief commodities responsible under this group for the decreases were: acids from $2,235,000 to $2,156,000, or $79,000; soap from $878,000 to $524,000, or $354,000; and cobalt oxide and salts from $289,000 to $161,000, or $128,000; while exports of drugs and medicines increased from $157,000 to $296,000, or $139,000; and paints and varnishes from $144,000 to $196,000, or $52,000). The Miscellaneous Commodities group increased from $2,669,000 to $2,941,000, or $272,000. (The exports of films under this group increased from $1,341,000 to $2,050,000, or $709,000; and settlers' effects from $371,000 to $428,000 or $57,000; while the exports of cameras decreased from $401,000 to $6,000 or $395,000).

For further information respecting Canada's trade in principal commodities with the United Kingdom, fiscal years 1928 and 1929, for imports see Table No. 8, pages 60 to 78 and for exports see Table No. 9, pages 79 to 90.

Trade with United States.—The total trade of Canada with the United States for the year ended March 31, 1929, was valued at $1,389,870,000 compared with a similar trade in 1928 valued at $1,216,081,000 and in 1927 at $1,166,358,000; the increase in 1929 over 1928 being $173,789,000, or 14.3 per cent, and over 1927, $223,512,000, or 19.1 per cent. Canada's imports from the United States in 1929 were valued at $868,056,000, in 1928 at $719,436,000 and in 1927 at $687,023,000; the increase in 1929 compared with 1928 amounting to $148,620,000, or 20.7 per cent, and with 1927 to $181,033,000, or 26.3 per cent; whereas the total exports from Canada to the United States amounted to $521,814,000 in 1929, to $496,645,000 in 1928 and to $479,335,000 in 1927; the increase in 1929 over 1928 being $25,169,000, or 5.1 per cent, and over 1927 $42,479,000, or 8.8 per cent. The domestic exports from Canada in the United States in 1929 totalled $500,168,000, in 1928 $478,004,000 and in 1927 $466,423,000; the increase in 1929 compared with 1928 amounting to $22,164,000, or 4.7 per cent, and with 1927 to $33,745,000, or 7.2 per cent.

The imports from the United States in 1929 show increases in each of the main groups compared with 1928. The Agricultural and Vegetable Products group increased from $102,209,000 to $103,691,000, or $1,482,000. (The chief commodities to show increases under this group were: fruits (chiefly green fruit) from $30,087,000 to $31,185,000, or $1,098,000; grain and products (principally corn) from $12,784,000 to $16,390,000, or $3,606,000; vegetables from $6,496,000 to $7,338,000, or $842,000; tobacco (largely tobacco leaf) from $5,859,000 to $5,895,000, or $36,000; gums and resin from $2,908,000 to $2,957,000, or $49,000; nuts, edible, from $1,557,000 to $1,604,000, or $47,000; sugar and products from $1,298,000 to $1,556,000, or $258,000; and cocoa and chocolate from $957,000 to $1,020,000, or $63,000; while the following items show decreases: rubber (mainly crude rubber), from $23,775,000 to $21,332,000, or $2,443,000; vegetable oil from $9,822,000 to $7,287,000, or $2,535,000; and seeds from $1,079,000 to $1,011,000, or $68,000). The imports from the United States under the Animals and Animal Products group increased from $40,583,000 to $42,654,000, or $2,071,000. (The principal items under this main group to show increases were: furs (chiefly raw furs) from $12,304,000 to $13,243,000, or $939,000; unmanufactured leather from $4,398,000 to $4,637,000, or $239,000; meats from $3,609,000 to $4,283,000, or $674,000; animals, living, from $2,228,000 to $2,800,000 or $572,000; manufactured leather (largely footwear) from $2,446,000 to $2,598,000, or $142,000 and fish from $968,000 to $1,216,000, or $248,000; while chief decreases occurred in the following items: hides, raw, from $10,185,000 to $9,286,000, or $899,000; grease for soap and oil, $1,043,000 to $973,000, or $70,000; and eggs in the shell from $450,000 to $380,000, or $70,000). The Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products group increased from $69,431,000 to $81,890,000, or $12,459,000. (The commodities under this group to show increases were: cotton and its products (chiefly raw cotton) from $40,622,000 to $46,267,000, or $5,645,000; silk and its products (chiefly raw silk and silk fabrics) from $8,604,000 to $10,700,000, or $2,096,000; manila and sisal grass from $3,829,000 to $5,453,000, or $1,624,000; wool and its products from $2,676,000 to $3,601,000, or $925,000; binder twine from $866,000 to $1,566,000, or $700,000; and hats and caps from $947,000 to $1,091,000, or $144,000; while the imports of flax, hemp and jute decreased from $2,752,000 to $1,871,000, or $881,000). The main group of Wood, Wood Products and Paper increased from $43,992,000 to $50,564,000, or $6,572,000. (The principal commodities to account for this increase were: unmanufactured wood (mainly lumber and timber) from $13,909,000 to $16,246,000, or $2,337,000; books and printed matter from $11,955,000 to $13,383,000, or $1,427,000; paper from $9,168,000 to $10,678,000, or $1,510,000; and manufactured wood from $8,960,000 to $10,258,000, or $1,298,000). Iron and Its Products group increased from $233,991,000 to $317,089,000, or $83,098,000. (The imports under this group responsible for this increase were: automobile parts from $33,104,000 to $55,467,000, or $22,363,000; machinery from $42,343,000 to $54,614,000, or $12,271,000; rolling mill products from $36,227,000 to $49,812,000, or $13,585,000; automobiles from $34,017,000 to $42,619,000, or $8,602,000; farm implements from $29,133,000 to $39,826,000, or $10,693,000; engines and boilers (chiefly automobile engines) from $15,928,000 to $18,033,000, or $2,105,000; tubes and fittings from $3,052,000 to $3,884,000, or $832,000; iron ore from $2,227,000 to $3,425,000, or $1,198,000; hardware and cutlery from $2,339,000 to $2,869,000, or $530,000; tools and implements from $1,865,000 to $2,427,000, or $562,000; pigs, ingots and blooms from $1,364,000 to $2,264,000, or $1,100,000; and wire from $1,825,000 to $1,997,000, or $172,000). The Non-Ferrous Metal Products group increased from $48,386,000 to $62,105,000, or $13,719,000. (The chief increases occurred in the following items: electrical apparatus from $16,762,000 to $24,411,000, or $7,649,000; copper from $7,062,000 to $12,716,000, or $5,654,000; brass from $4,264,000 to $5,699,000, or $1,435,000; nickel-plated ware from $1,751,000 to $2,269,000, or $518,000; and clocks and watches from $1,219,000 to $1,333,000, or $114,000; while the imports of aluminium (chiefly alumina, bauxite and cryolite) decreased from $7,521,000 to $5,454,000, or $2,067,000; and tin in ingots from $1,763,000 to $1,307,000, or $456,000). The Non-Metallic Mineral Products group increased from $117,448,000 to $135,154,000, or $17,706,000. The main imports responsible for this increase were: crude petroleum oil from $23,580,000 to $27,824,000, or $4,244,000, refined petroleum oil from $15,701,000 to $23,397,000, or $7,696,000; stone and its products from $5,378,000 to $7,307,000, or $1,929,000; coke from $4,594,000 to $6,448,000, or $1,854,000; glass from $4,070,000 to $4,861,000, or $791,000; and clay and products (chiefly bricks) from $3,831,000 to $4,479,000, or $648,000; while imports of coal decreased from $59,356,000 to $55,661,000, or $3,695,000). The imports under the main group of Chemicals and Allied Products increased from $22,246,000 to $26,225,000, or $3,979,000. (The main items under this group to show increases were: paints and varnishes from $3,728,000 to $4,136,000, or $408,000; fertilizers from $2,921,000 to $3,659,000, or $738,000; dyeing and tanning materials from $2,555,000 to $2,963,000, or $408,000; soda and sodium compounds from $2,241,000 to $2,839,000, or $598,000; cellulose products (chiefly celluloid in sheets) from $2,146,000 to $2,274,000, or $128,000; drugs and medicines from $1,447,000 to $1,947,000, or $500,000; while soap decreased from $893,000 to $866,000, or $27,000). The Miscellaneous Commodities group increased from $41,150,000 to $48,685,000, or $7,535,000. (The chief increases occurred in the following items under this group: settlers' effects from $7,737,000 to $9,343,000, or $1,606,000; scientific equipment from $3,466,000 to $3,638,000, or $172,000; articles for exhibition from $2,098,000 to $3,130,000, or $1,032,000; vehicles (except chiefly iron) from $1,418,000 to $2,643,000, or $1,225,000; musical instruments from $1,897,000 to $2,273,000, or $376,000; containers (usual outside coverings) from $1,380,000 to $2,045,000, or $765,000; jewellery from $1,145,000 to $1,408,000, or $263,000; refrigerators from $672,000 to $1,319,000, or $647,000; works of art from $557,000 to $1,140,000, or $583,000; and toys and dolls from $838,000 to $1,096,000, or $258,000; while articles re-imported decreased from $3,002,000 to $2,581,000, or $421,000).

From 1928 to 1929 the domestic exports from Canada to the United States show increases in seven of the main groups and decreases in two, viz.: Animals, and Animal Products and Wood, Wood Products and Paper. The main group of Agricultural and Vegetable Products increased from $56,099,000 to $58,527,000, or $2,428,000. (The chief increases under this group were: wheat from $9,504,000 to $12,381,000, or $2,877,000; seeds (chiefly flaxseed) from $6,439,000 to $7,503,000, or $1,064,000; bran and shorts from $2,626,000 to $5,352,000, or $2,726,000; sugar from $1,274,000 to $1,423,000, or $149,000; while the exports of alcoholic beverages decreased from $24,132,000 to $24,051,000, or $81,000; and vegetables (largely potatoes) from $5,811,000 to $2,411,000, or $3,400,000). The Animals and Animal Products group decreased from $92,244,000 to $84,994,000, or $7,250,000. (The following commodities under this group show decreases: furs (principally raw furs) from $14,336,000 to $13,281,000, or $1,055,000; meats, $11,289,000 to $10,383,000, or $906,000; hides, raw, from $11,417,000 to $9,244,000, or $2,173,000; unmanufactured leather from $8,240,000 to $7,091,000, or $1,149,000; milk and cream, fresh, from $7,840,000 to $6,059,000, or $1,781,000; and cheese from $2,444,000 to $1,870,000, or $574,000; while the exports of fish increased from $13,821,000 to $14,804,000, or $983,000; and cattle from $13,527,000 to $14,463,000, or $936,000). The main group of Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products increased from $4,922,000 to $4,931,000, or $9,000. (Under this group wool and its products (chiefly raw wool) increased from $2,414,000 to $2,626,000, or $202,000; while the exports of binder twine decreased from $823,000 to $573,000, or $250,000). The Wood, Wood Products and Paper group decreased from $238,986,000 to $235,665,000, or $3,321,000. (The principal items to account for this decrease under this group were: unmanufactured wood (chiefly planks and boards, pulp wood, and laths) from $79,884,000 to $72,312,000, or $7,572,000; manufactured wood (mainly wood pulp) from $38,088,000 to $37,488,000, or $600,000; while paper (largely newsprint) increased from $120,209,000 to $124,898,000, or $4,689,000). The exports of Iron and Its Products increased from $8,831,000 to $11,157,000, or $2,326,000. (The leading commodities to show increases were: farm implements from $3,523,000 to $4,367,000, or $844,000; pigs, ingots and blooms from $2,735,000 to $3,809,000, or $1,074,000; scrap iron and steel from $547,000 to $911,000, or $364,000; and tubing and pipe from $667,000 to $745,000, or $78,000). The exports under the group Non-Ferrous Metal Products increased from $44,115,000 to $63,777,000, or $19,662,000. (The commodities under this group to account for this increase were: copper from $13,433,000 to $23,829,000, or $10,396,000; nickel from $7,132,000 to $13,489,000, or $6,357,000; raw gold from $8,990,000 to $12,371,000, or $3,381,000; and silver from $4,499,000 to $5,970,000, or $1,471,000; while the exports of aluminium in bars, blocks, etc., decreased from $7,919,000 to $4,323,000, or $3,596,000). The Non-Metallic Mineral Products group increased from $16,037,000 to $17,995,000, or $1,958,000. (The following items show increases under this group: asbestos $6,535,000 to $7,380,000, or $845,000; and stone and its products (chiefly abrasives and gypsum) from $4,699,000 to $5,712,000, or $1,013,000; while the exports of coal decreased from $2,115,000 to $2,077,000, or $38,000). The main group of Chemicals and Allied Products increased from $8,151,000 to $10,779,000, or $2,628,000. (The principal items under this group to show increases were: fertilizers (principally cyanamid) from $4,776,000 to $5,536,000, or $760,000; soda and sodium compounds from $1,363,000 to $2,023,000, or $660,000; and acids from $1,030,000 to $2,021,000, or $991,000). The exports under the main group of Miscellaneous Commodities increased from $8,619,000 to $12,343,000, or $3,724,000. (The chief increases under this group were: electrical energy from nil to $3,938,000, or $3,938,000; settlers' effects from $5,148,000 to $5,197,000, or $49,000; while exports of films decreased from $1,397,000 to $1,330,000, or $67,000). With reference to the exports of electrical energy it should be noted that it appears as an item in Canadian export statistics for the first time from April 1, 1928. For further information respecting Canada's trade in principal commodities with the United States, fiscal years, 1928 and 1929, for imports see Table No. 8, pages 60 to 78 and for exports see Table No. 9, pages 79 to 90.

Trade with Other Countries.—The British Preferential Tariff enacted in 1897, as well as trade treaties and agreements negotiated with British and Foreign Countries have had the effect of stimulating Canada's external trade. When the British preference became effective in 1897 Canada's total imports from the United Kingdom in that year only amounted to $29,401,000, compared with an import in 1887 valued at $44,741,000, and in 1873 at $67,997,000, the decrease in 1897 compared with 1887 amounting to $15,340,000 and with 1873 to $38,596,000. From 1873 to 1897 imports from the United Kingdom decreased $38,596,000 or 56·7 per cent, while from 1897 to 1929 they increased $164,620,000 or 559·9 per cent. The British Preferential Tariff was no doubt largely responsible for the increase in imports, not only from the United Kingdom but also from other parts of the Empire. By reference to the statistics in the following table giving "Trade of Canada with the British Empire and Foreign Countries" it will be noted that in the fiscal year 1914, imports from "Other British Empire", i.e., British Empire except United Kingdom, amounted to $22,456,000, in 1922 to $31,974,000, but in 1929 they had increased to $63,378,000; while imports from "Other Foreign Countries", i.e., Foreign Countries except United States, in 1914 totalled $68,365,000, in 1922 to $82,737,000 and in 1929 they were $140,224,000. Exports, however, during the same years show a greater improvement. In 1914 exports to "Other British Empire" were valued at $23,388,000, in 1922 at $46,474,000 and in 1929 they had advanced to $106,296,000, while exports to "Other Foreign Countries" were valued at $29,573,000 in 1914, at $101,817,000 in 1922, and in 1929 they were $327,393,000.

From 1914 to 1929 imports from "Other British Empire" increased $40,922,000, or 182·2 per cent, and from "Other Foreign Countries" $71,859,000, or 105·1 per cent, while the exports to "Other British Empire" from 1914 to 1929 increased $82,908,000, or 354·5 per cent, and to "Other Foreign Countries" $297,820,000, or 1,007·0 per cent.

With further reference to the trade of Canada with other countries than the United Kingdom and the United States, attention is directed to tables Nos. 10-36, pages 91 and 124, giving the trade of Canada in leading commodities with 81 British and foreign countries for the fiscal years 1928 and 1929.

Relation between Trade in Raw and Manufactured Products.—For some years after Confederation Canada was not engaged to any great extent in manufacturing processes, and consequently her imports consisted very largely of manufactured goods and her exports of raw and semi-manufactured products. Since the beginning of the present century there has been a marked expansion in the manufacturing industries of the country, which is reflected in the character of its imports and exports. During this period Canada has passed through much the same stages of development in her economic life as did the United States from 1870 to 1900. The imports of raw materials into the United States, from 1870 to 1900, increased from 25.2 to 44.0 per cent of the total imports, and fully manufactured products decreased from 62.1 to 40.2 per cent; while exports of raw materials from the United States during the same period decreased from 67.7 to 40.2 per cent of the total exports, and fully manufactured products increased from 28.6 to 48.6 per cent. Statistics for 1928 show a further improvement. Compared with 1900, the 1928 statistics show that imports of raw materials into the United States increased from 44.0 to 50.3 per cent of the total imports, and exports decreased from 40.2 to 32.3 per cent; whereas imports of fully manufactured products decreased from 40.2 to 31.7 per cent, and exports increased from 48.6 to 52.8 per cent.

While Canada has not made as great progress as the United States, in increasing imports of raw materials and curtailing exports, while curtailing imports of fully manufactured products and increasing exports, she has made some advance in this respect. From 1910 to 1928 the percentage of imports of raw materials into Canada increased from 24.2 to 25.6 per cent of the total imports, and exports decreased from 51.2 to 47.2 per cent of the total exports; while the percentage of imports of fully manufactured goods decreased from 65.8 to 64.8 per cent, and exports increased from 32.7 to 37.4 per cent. Further, it will be noted from the statistics in the following table that from 1910 to 1928 the imports of raw materials into Canada increased from $90,900,000 to $283,800,000 or 212 per cent, and exports from $143,100,000 to $580,000,000 or 305 per cent; while imports of fully manufactured products increased from $241,900,000 to $718,800,000, or 194 per cent, and exports from $91,200,000 to $458,800,000, or 403 per cent.

In Canada grains, chiefly wheat, and in the United States raw cotton, grains, principally wheat, and raw tobacco are the leading commodities which comprise the bulk of the exports of raw materials. It is of interest to note the results in Canada and the United States when certain staple raw materials, of farm origin, which are reproducible annually, are eliminated; such as grains, fresh fruits and vegetables, seeds and raw tobacco, for both countries, as also raw cotton for the United States. The results, for the years 1900 to 1928, are set forth in the following table:—

According to the statistics in the above table Canadian and the United States exports of "Other raw materials", from 1900 to 1928 (i.e., total exports of raw materials less certain raw materials which are reproducible annually), increased as follows: Canada from $48,500,000 to $165,600,000, or 237 per cent, and the United States from $82,700,000 to $229,100,000, or 177 per cent. In the case of Canada the percentage of the exports of "Other raw materials" of the total domestic exports, from 1900 to 1928, decreased from 28.8 to 13.5 per cent and in the case of the United States from 6.0 to 4.8 per cent.

It will be observed from the statistics in the following table, showing "Canada's Imports and Exports by Leading Countries, according to Degree of Manufacture" that Canada's imports from those countries with highly developed manufacturing industries consist of manufactured products, and her exports to those countries are made up largely of raw and semi-manufactured products; while on the other hand Canada's trade with countries whose industries are not so highly developed consist chiefly, in the case of imports, of raw and semi-manufactured products and in the case of exports, of manufactured products.

A further analysis of the statistics in the foregoing table, relative to Canada's imports and exports according to degree of manufacture, indicates: (1) that 87.6 per cent of Canada's imports from Europe in 1928 consisted of fully manufactured goods, 7.3 per cent of raw materials and 5.1 per cent of semi-manufactured products; while 69.6 per cent of her exports to Europe was made up of raw materials, 23.7 per cent of fully manufactured goods and 6.7 per cent of semi-manufactured products; the proportion of the trade with the United Kingdom being: imports, fully manufactured goods 88.1 per cent, raw materials 7.3 per cent and semi-manufactured products 4.6 per cent; and exports, raw materials 71.4 per cent, fully manufactured goods

23.1 per cent and semi-manufactured products 5.5 per cent; (2) that 60.2 per cent of the imports from North America consisted of fully manufactured goods, 30.3 per cent of raw materials and 9.5 per cent of semi-manufactured products; while 45.1 per cent of the exports to North America comprised fully manufactured goods, 30.8 per cent raw materials, and 24.1 per cent semi-manufactured products; the proportion of the trade with the United States being: imports, fully manufactured goods 61.9 per cent, raw materials 30.8 per cent and semi-manufactured products 7.3 per cent; and exports, fully manufactured goods 42.1 per cent, raw materials 32.1 per cent and semi-manufactured products 25.8 per cent; (3) that 75.9 per cent of the imports from South America was made up of raw materials, 21.1 per cent of semi-manufactured products and 3.0 per cent of fully manufactured goods; while 93.5 per cent of the exports to that continent consisted of fully manufactured goods, 4.8 per cent of raw materials and 1.7 per cent of semi-manufactured products; (4) that 66.4 per cent of the imports from Asia were fully manufactured goods, 21.2 per cent raw materials and 12.4 per cent semi-manufactured products; while 40.9 per cent of the exports to Asia consisted of fully manufactured goods, 34.2 per cent of semi-manufactured products and 24.9 per cent of raw materials; (5) that the proportion of the trade with Oceania was: imports, semi-manufactured products 50.4 per cent, fully manufactured goods 35.7 per cent and raw materials 13.9 per cent; and exports, fully manufactured goods 89.8 per cent, semi-manufactured products 7.8 per cent, and raw materials 2.4 per cent; and (6) that the proportion of the imports from Africa was: raw materials 61.1 per cent, semi-manufactured products 29.8 per cent and fully manufactured goods 9.1 per cent; while the proportion of the exports to Africa was, fully manufactured goods 87.9 per cent, raw materials 7.8 per cent, and semi-manufactured products 4.3 per cent.

The following table shows how Canada's imports and exports, analysed into the three categories of raw materials, partly manufactured goods, and fully or chiefly manufactured goods, are distributed among the United Kingdom, other British Empire countries, the United States and other foreign countries:—

Seasonal Fluctuations.—The seasonal movement of Canada's external trade for 1929 shows no abnormal tendencies except in the exports for the months of May, June and July, principally due to heavy exports of wheat in those months. The table of "Canada's Monthly Imports and Exports" shows that the imports for the summer months are usually greater than for the other months of the year, though the monthly variations are not as marked as the lack of direct shipping facilities via the St. Lawrence in winter would indicate. Exports, however, as a result of the influence of agricultural products, especially wheat, reach a low point during the summer months, rise to a peak during the autumn, gradually decline during the winter, and with the opening of navigation on the St. Lawrence in the spring, show an upward tendency. The very large increase in recent years of the exports of pulp and paper and other manufactured products, the export of which is not seasonal but almost constant, has had the effect of reducing the proportionate seasonal fluctuations of Canada's total exports. The trade figures for March in each year are greater for imports than for any other month, while in the case of exports they are not, as a rule, as large as those for the spring and fall months, when large quantities of grains, especially wheat, are being shipped. The totals for March are always greater than those for April. March figures must include all entries at all ports to the close of the fiscal year (March 31). In all other months the records are closed at Ottawa on the last day of the month. Late import and export entries (which in the case of the great, but distant, port of Vancouver, may cover four or five days' business at the end of each month) are regularly included in totals for the succeeding month. April totals include nothing for March, while they are short some amounts carried forward into May.

Trade by Continents.—During the fiscal year 1929 Canada sold more products to Europe than to any other continent, her sales amounting to $642,800,000, compared with $543,100,000 to the continent of North America; while her purchases from Europe only amounted to $286,700,000 compared with $894,300,000 from the North American continent. During 1929 the continents of Europe and North America took 86.9 per cent of the Dominion's total exports, as compared with 89.1 per cent in 1928, and 90.7 per cent in 1925. The proportion of products shipped to Europe in 1929 was 47.1 per cent, compared with 46.9 per cent in 1928, and 47.9 per cent in 1925; while the proportion sent to North America in 1929 was 39.8 per cent, compared with 42.2 per cent in 1928, and 42.8 per cent in 1925. From 1925 to 1929 the proportion of Canada's exports to the United Kingdom decreased from 37.0 to 31.5 per cent, while the proportion from other Europe during the same period increased from 10.9 to 15.6 per cent; whereas the proportion exported to the United States from 1925 to 1929 decreased from 39.1 to 36.7 per cent and to other North America from 3.7 to 3.1 per cent. The continents of Europe and North America in 1929 furnished Canada with 93.3 per cent of her total imports, compared with 92.2 per cent in 1928 and 93.3 per cent in 1925. The proportion of goods received from Europe in 1929 was 22.6 per cent, compared with 24.5 per cent in 1928, and 25.4 per cent in 1925; while the proportion received from North America was 70.7 per cent in 1929, 67.7 per cent in 1928, and 67.9 per cent in 1925. From 1925 to 1929 the proportion of Canada's imports furnished by the United Kingdom decreased from 19.0 to 15.3 per cent, while the proportion from other Europe during the same interval increased from 6.4 to 7.3 per cent; whereas the proportion furnished by the United States from 1925 to 1929 increased from 64.0 to 68.6 per cent, while the proportion from other North America decreased from 3.9 to 2.1 per cent. Canada purchased more goods from every continent in 1929 than in the years 1925 to 1928, except in the cases of South America and Africa, purchases from South America being larger in 1928, while those from Africa were greater in 1927 as well as in 1928. During 1929 Canada sold more goods to every continent than in the years 1925 to 1928, except in the cases of Europe and South America, the sales to Europe being larger in 1926, while those to South America were larger in 1927. From 1925 to 1929 imports from South America increased from $20,100,000 to $26,500,000, from Asia from $27,500,000 to $33,500,000, from Oceania from $4,600,000 to $22,500,000, and from Africa from $1,300,000 to $2,200,000; whereas exports to South America from 1925 to 1929, increased from $20,600,000 to $32,600,000, to Asia from $39,500,000 to $87,200,000, to Oceania from $27,700,000 to $37,600,000, and to Africa from $12,200,000 to $20,300,000. For further details respecting Canada's trade by continents, 1925 to 1929, see statistics in the following table.

Imports from Principal Countries.—Imports into Canada in 1929 compared with 1928 show increases from sixteen of the thirty-five leading countries. Of the total increase in imports in 1929, amounting to $156,722,000, the British Empire accounted for only $8,311,000 and foreign countries for $148,411,000. The principal countries to show increases were: United States $148,620,000; United Kingdom $8,125,000; New Zealand $4,509,000; Germany $3,742,000; Belgium $2,116,000; Fiji $1,380,000; Trinidad and Tobago $1,277,000; and British India $1,127,000; while the following show decreases: Argentina, $2,422,000; Australia $1,817,000; British West Indies, Other $1,475,000; San Domingo $1,317,000; British Guiana $1,199,000; and Barbados $1,017,000. The statistics in the following table showing "Canada's Imports from Thirty-five Leading Countries, 1929" indicate that the United States and the United Kingdom supplied Canada with 83.9 per cent of her total imports. The United States has supplied Canada with the largest amount of her imports since 1882, the United Kingdom being second by a wide margin. With reference to supplies from other countries, France has occupied third place for the past four years, though Germany is fast overhauling her, having more than double her exports to Canada since 1926. Germany occupied fourth position as in 1927 and 1928, while Japan, as in 1927 and 1928, is in fifth position. The Dominion of New Zealand has made great progress in her exports to Canada, having moved up to sixth position from eleventh position last year and eighteenth two years ago. In 1926 imports from New Zealand were $2,725,000, while in 1929 they were $12,771,000, increase in three years $10,046,000. Belgium was in seventh position this year, having moved down from sixth position, while British India, the Netherlands and Switzerland occupied eighth, ninth and tenth positions, respectively, this year as last year. Argentina has moved from seventh down to eleventh position. Colombia occupies twelfth position, as last year, while Fiji has moved from nineteenth up to thirteenth position.

In 1868, 89.9 per cent of Canada's imports was obtained from the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion from the United Kingdom being 56.1 per cent and the United States 33.8 per cent. In 1900, 84.9 per cent of the Dominion's imports were supplied by the same two countries, the proportion from the United Kingdom being 25.7 per cent, or less than one-half of what it was in 1868, while the proportion from the United States almost doubled during the same period, being 59.2 per cent; whereas in 1929, 83.9 per cent of Canada's total imports came from the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion from the former falling to 15.3 per cent and from the United States rising to 68.6 per cent. From 1868 to 1929 the percentage of the imports into Canada from the United Kingdom fell from 56.1 to 15.3, while the percentage from the United States rose from 33.8 to 68.6 per cent.

There has been a more gradual growth in the percentage of imports from "Other Countries" than from the United Kingdom and the United States, the proportion in 1868 amounting to 10.1 per cent; in 1900 to 15.1 per cent; and in 1929 to 16.1 per cent. In 1868 the 10.1 per cent of imports from "Other Countries" represented a declared value of $6,813,000; in 1900 the 15.1 per cent a declared value of $26,146,000 and in 1929 the 16.1 per cent represented a declared value of $203,600,000. Of this amount Europe, except the United Kingdom, supplied $92,700,000; North America, except the United States, $26,200,000; South America $26,500,000; Asia $33,500,000; Oceania $22,500,000; and Africa $2,200,000.

Exports to Principal Countries.—During the fiscal year 1929 Canada's domestic exports compared with similar exports in 1928 show an increase of $135,379,000. Increases occurred in exports to thirty-three of the forty principal countries, the decreases in only seven. The increases in most cases were quite marked, while the decreases were not very large. Of the total increase in the exports, from 1928 to 1929, the British Empire accounted for $36,738,000 and foreign countries for $98,641,000. The principal countries to show increases were: United States $22,164,000; United Kingdom $19,039,000; China $10,255,000; Japan $9,132,000; the Netherlands $8,829,000; Greece $7,568,000; Belgium $6,520,000; France $6,185,000; New Zealand $5,991,000; Australia $5,281,000; Spain $5,095,000; Portugal $4,793,000; Germany $4,465,000; Italy $4,282,000; British South Africa $3,507,000; and Argentina $3,407,000; while the principal countries to show decreases were: Cuba $944,000; Newfoundland $501,000; Denmark $410,000; and the Irish Free State $181,000.

It will be noted by reference to the statistics in the following table showing "Canada's Domestic Exports to Forty Leading Countries, 1929" the United Kingdom and the United States took 68.2 per cent of the Dominion's exports, the percentage for each being,—United Kingdom 31.5 and the United States 36.7. The United States occupied first place in 1929, as in 1927 and 1928, though she was in second place in 1926: while the United Kingdom was in first place in 1926, but in second place in the last three fiscal years. Of the other leading markets for Canadian products, Germany occupied third place in 1927, 1928 and 1929, but fourth place in 1926; while the Netherlands was in fourth position in 1928 and 1929, but in fifth position in 1927 and sixth in 1926. Japan was in third place in 1926, moved down to fourth place in 1927, and up to fifth place in 1928 and 1929; while Belgium was in seventh position during the years 1926 and 1927, but advanced to sixth position in 1928 and 1929. The Dominion's exports to China have changed materially during the past four years, due no doubt to the unsettled conditions of the country. In 1926 China occupied fifth position, in 1927 she moved down to eleventh position, in 1928 she was in ninth position and in 1929 she had advanced to seventh position. In 1929 Italy, Australia, New Zealand and France occupied eight, ninth, tenth and eleventh places, respectively, though in 1928 Italy was in seventh place, Australia in eighth, New Zealand in eleventh and France in fourteenth, while Argentina was in twelfth position during each of the past four fiscal years.

In the fiscal year 1868 the exports to the United Kingdom and the United States combined were 89.2 per cent of the total exports of domestic produce, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 36.9 per cent, and the United States 52.3 per cent. In 1900 similar exports to the United Kingdom and the United States were 91.3 per cent of the total domestic exports, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 57.1 per cent and the United States 34.2 per cent; while for the year 1929 the domestic exports from Canada to the United Kingdom and the United States were 68.2 per cent, the proportion for the United Kingdom being 31.5 per cent and for the United States 36.7 per cent. From 1868 to 1929 Canada's domestic exports to the United Kingdom fell from 36.9 to 31.5 per cent, to the United States from 52.3 to 36.7 per cent, while the exports of similar products to "Other Countries" increased from 10.8 to 31.8 per cent, whereas from 1900 to 1929 the proportion of Canada's domestic exports to the United Kingdom fell from 57.1 to 31.5 per cent, while the proportions to the United States and "Other Countries" rose from 34.2 to 36.7 per cent and 8.7 to 31.8 per cent, respectively. At Confederation the proportion of Canada's exports to "Other Countries" amounting to 10.8 per cent of her total domestic exports, represented a declared value of $5,249,000; in 1900 the proportion of 8.7 per cent, a declared value of $14,413,000, while in 1929 the proportion of 31.8 per cent represented a declared value of $433,689,000; which amount exceeds the Dominion's total domestic exports prior to 1916. The increase in Canada's domestic exports to "Other Countries" from 1868 to 1900 was $9,164,000 or 174 per cent, while from 1900 to 1929 the increase was $419,276,000 or 2,909 per cent. During 1929 the exports to "Other Countries", amounting to $433,700,000, were distributed by Continents as follows: Europe, except the United Kingdom, $213,100,000; North America, except the United States, $42,900,000; South America, $32,600,000; Asia, $87,200,000; Oceania, $37,600,000; and Africa, $20,300,000.

Trade Balances.—Canada's visible trade balance was unfavourable to the amount of $29,730,000 on March 31, 1921, but since then, as well as during the war and post-bellum boom, it has been favourable. During the past four years there has been a marked decline in the favourable trade balance, until on March 31, 1929, it was only $123,094,000 compared with $401,371,000 in 1926. The principal factors responsible for the decline in the trade balance are (1) lower prices received for staple products exported, (2) increase in imports of products for use in Canadian industries and of equipment for Canadian factories, and (3) improvement in the general prosperity of the country, resulting in a greater purchasing power, not only at home but also abroad.

There have been marked changes in the trade balances with the leading commercial countries of the world in recent years. In 1914 Canada had a favourable trade balance with Europe of $65,032,000, which had increased to $358,698,000 in 1929, while the number of countries in Europe with which Canada had a favourable trade balance increased from seven to eighteen. From 1914 to 1929 the Dominion's annual credit balance with the United Kingdom increased from $90,252,000 to $237,648,000; with Germany from a debit balance of $10,152,000 to a credit balance of $26,081,000; with the Netherlands from credit balance of $2,494,000 to $35,449,000; with Italy from a debit balance of $1,435,000 to a credit balance of $18,769,000; with Belgium from a credit balance of $330,000 to $15,437,000; with Greece from a debit balance of $433,000 to a credit balance of $11,480,000; with Norway from a credit balance of $359,000 to $6,448,000; with Denmark from a credit balance of $525,000 to $5,831,000. In 1914 Canada had a debit balance with France of $10,466,000, which amounted to $9,972,000 in 1929; while the debit balance with Switzerland during the same period increased from $4,268,000 to $7,357,000.

These trade balances with European countries do not represent the true situation, as a very large quantity of the grain, especially wheat, shown in Canadian export statistics as for the United Kingdom is diverted from its original destination, the United Kingdom, to other destinations. As a result of this diversion the credit balance with the United Kingdom would be materially reduced and the balances with other European countries increased by a corresponding amount.

Canada's trade balance with the continent of North America has been unfavourable since 1882, the debit balance with the United States being responsible for this situation. In 1914 the debit balance with North America amounted to $221,963,000 and in 1929 it had increased to $328,802,000, while the number of countries in North America with which Canada had a debit balance was reduced from eight to four. The Dominion's debit trade balance with the United States from 1914 to 1929 increased from $219,354,000 to $346,241,000, being $123,450,000 greater than for last year; with Newfoundland the credit balance increased from $2,900,000 to $9,049,000; St. Pierre and Miquelon from a credit balance of $117,000 to $2,697,000; with Bermuda from a credit balance of $397,000 to $1,612,000; with Mexico from a debit balance of $1,419,000 to a credit balance of $1,507,000; with the British West Indies from a credit balance of $143,000 to $493,000; while the debit balance of Cuba in 1914 of $2,124,000 was reduced to $384,000 in 1929. If the trade with the United States is eliminated from North America, the trade balance with "Other North America" increased from a debit balance of $2,609,000 in 1914 to a credit balance of $17,439,000 in 1929.

With the Continent of South America the debit balance of $4,770,000 in 1914 was converted into a credit balance of $6,157,000 in 1929, the most notable change occurring in the trade with Colombia.

The most notable change in the trade balance with any continent, from 1914 to 1929, occurred with the continent of Asia, a debit balance of $8,118,000 being converted into a credit balance of $53,904,000. The principal countries responsible for this change were Japan and China, the trade balance of the former increasing from a debit balance of $1,015,000 to a credit balance of $29,186,000; and of the latter from a debit balance of $440,000 to a credit balance of $20,595,000.

The credit trade balance with Oceania from 1914 to 1929 increased from $2,603,000 to $15,073,000 and with Africa from $3,459,000 to $18,064,000. From 1914 to 1929 the credit balance with Australia increased from $3,993,000 to $15,995,000; with British South Africa from $3,358,000 to $11,965,000; and with New Zealand from a debit balance of $1,256,000 to a credit balance of $4,597,000. The large butter import from New Zealand was responsible for the decrease in the credit balance since 1926, the credit balance in that year amounting to $13,855,000.

Principal Commodity Imports.—The statistics in the following table showing "One Hundred Leading Commodities Imported into Canada, 1929" indicate that the total declared value of the commodities amounted to $1,044,391,000 or 82.5 per cent of the total imports into Canada. Of the one hundred commodities listed, eighty-one show increases in value and nineteen decreases. Of the fifty-one commodities for which there were quantity statistics, six show increases in the quantity imported but decreases in the value; six show decreases in the quantity but increases in the value; while thirty-three show increases in both quantity and value; and six decreases in both quantity and value. Of the forty-nine commodities for which there were no quantity statistics, being entered at value only, forty-three show increases and six decreases. The commodities imported, which show increases in quantity but decreases in value and decreases in quantity but increases in value, 1929 compared with 1928, were:

Imports for Canadian Industries.—An analysis of the statistics in the following table showing "Imports of Sixty-two Leading Commodities for Canadian Industries, 1929" indicates that about one-third of Canada's total imports are for use in the various industries of the country. The increase in the imports for Canadian industries was only partially responsible for the total increase in its import trade, amounting to $156,723,000. The value of the imports of the raw, semi-manufactured and fully or chiefly manufactured products listed for Canadian industries in 1929 was $391,831,000, the proportions of this amount classified according to degree of manufacture, 1929 compared with 1928, being:—

Degree of Manufacture	Imports, 1929		Increase (+) or Decrease (−) 1929 compared with 1928
	Value $	Per cent of Total %	Value $	Per cent of Total %

A further analysis will show that forty-four of the commodities listed as for Canadian industries show increases and eighteen show decreases; while thirty-two of the forty-eight commodities for which there are quantity statistics show increases and sixteen show decreases. Of the forty-eight commodities for which there are quantity statistics, six show increases in the quantity imported, but decreases in the value, viz.: Bituminous coal, raw rubber, automobile engines, raw tobacco, alumina, bauxite and cryolite, and oxide of manganese; four show decreases in the quantity imported, but increases in the value, viz.: Raw coffee, dyeing and tanning materials, gums and resins, and sulphur; twenty-eight show increases in both quantity and value; and ten decreases in both quantity and value. Of the fourteen commodities entered at value only, twelve show increases and two decreases.

In the case of commodities that show an increase or decrease in both quantity and value, it will be found on investigation that twenty-eight commodities, valued at $198,287,000, were imported at a lower average import price in 1929 than in 1928, and twenty commodities, valued at $93,246,000, at a higher average import price, while in the case of commodities entered at value only, twelve, of a value of $96,886,000, show increases in 1929 compared with 1928, and two, valued at $3,412,000, show decreases. In other words, the Canadian manufacturer obtained his imported raw materials, as a rule, at a lower price per unit in 1929 than in 1928. The twenty-eight commodities which entered Canada for Canadian industries at a lower average import price in 1929 than in 1928 were: Crude petroleum, sugar for refining, bituminous coal, raw rubber, automobile engines, lumber, (rough sawn), raw tobacco, tin plate, alumina, bauxite and cryolite, crude cotton seed oil, raw wool, raw silk, skelp iron for pipe, manila and sisal grass, tin in blocks, cotton yarn, raw cocoa, oil for soap industry, artificial silk yarn and tops, hard rubber, hemp, oxide of manganese, locomotive and car wheel tires, sulphate of soda, logs, crude peanut oil, zinc in sheets, and glycerine for explosives; while the twenty commodities which entered Canada at a higher average import price in 1929 than in 1928 were: Raw cotton, raw hides, raw coffee, wool tops, woollen yarn, copper bars and rods, dyeing and tanning materials, gums and resins, sulphur, iron ore, pigs, ingots and blooms, rolled iron and steel for agricultural implements, dress goods (wool) to be dyed, grease for soap and leather, wire rods for wire rope, ores of metal, sulphate of alumina, boiler plate, bristles, and silica sand for industries.

Principal Commodity Exports.—The following table giving "Seventy Leading Canadian Commodities Exported from Canada, 1929" shows that the total value of these commodities was $1,291,893,000 or 94·7 per cent of the Dominion's domestic exports. Forty-two of the commodities listed show increases in value and twenty-eight decreases. Two of the commodities for which there are quantity statistics show increases in quantity, but decreases in value; four show decreases in quantity, but increases in value; twenty-eight show increases in both quantity and value; and twenty show decreases in both quantity and value. Ten of the commodities for which there are no quantity statistics show increases and six show decreases. An analysis also shows that of the fifty-four commodities for which there were quantity statistics, twenty-seven were exported at a lower average export price per unit in 1929 than in 1928 and twenty-seven at a higher average export price. The total value, however, of the twenty-seven commodities for which the average export price was lower in 1929 than in 1928 amounted to $874,764,000, while the total value of the twenty-seven commodities for which the average export price was higher amounted to $303,355,000.

A preliminary survey of the statistics in this table reveals that Canada's domestic exports for 1929 re-valued at 1928 average export prices amounted to $1,458,000,000, being about $95,000,000 in excess of the declared values in 1929, and about $230,000,000 greater than the declared values in 1928. The above statistics indicate that, when price changes have been eliminated, the physical volume of the Dominion's exports in 1929 was the greatest on record. The declared value of Canada's domestic exports in 1929 ($1,363,587,000) was not as large as the declared value of her exports during the war year 1918 ($1,540,028,000), though greater than for any other fiscal year; but it will be found, when adjustments for the price changes in wheat exports alone are made, that if the average export price for this commodity in 1929 had been the same as in 1918, the Dominion's domestic exports in 1929 would have totalled $1,837,131,000 compared with $1,540,028,000 in 1918. The outstanding feature in Canadian trade in 1929 was the enormous increase in her wheat exports. For the fiscal year 1929, total exports of wheat reached 370,459,551 bushels, valued at $428,524,326, the largest twelve months on record. The largest previous yearly record was for the twelve months ended September 30, 1924, when the total was 294,158,561 bushels, value $301,656,684.

Trade via the United States.—Canada's imports from overseas countries via the United States have steadily declined in recent years, especially those from the British Empire. This decrease has resulted from: (1) general propaganda to utilize Canadian sea and river ports; (2) additional concessions to goods imported under the British Preferential tariff if imported direct; and (3) provision in trade treaties and agreements negotiated with foreign countries that goods must be imported direct in order to obtain the full benefits of special rates of duty. There was a decrease in imports from overseas countries via the United States during the fiscal year 1929 compared with similar imports in 1926 of $3,177,000; the decrease in the imports from the British Empire amounting to $5,480,000, while the imports from foreign countries show an increase of $2,303,000. The statistics in the following table provide an analysis of this feature of Canada's import trade for the last five fiscal years:—

The exports from Canada to overseas countries via the United States continue to remain about stationary, the proportions for the fiscal years 1925 to 1928 being about 39 per cent and for 1929 36.7 per cent of the total exports to overseas countries. From 1925 to 1929 the proportion of the Dominion's exports to the United Kingdom via the United States increased from 43.7 to 50.6 per cent; to Other British Empire from 23.1 to 28.9 per cent; while the proportion to Other Foreign Countries decreased from 36.9 to 21.0 per cent. When adjustments are made for the re-routing of Canadian barley, oats, rye and wheat from United States lake ports via the St. Lawrence route for ocean shipment at Montreal, it will be found that the proportions of Canada's exports to overseas countries via the United States will be considerably decreased and those via Canadian sea or river ports increased by a similar amount. The total value of commodities exported to overseas countries via the United States in 1929 was $25,582,000 more than for the fiscal year 1926, wheat accounting for $18,506,000 or 72 per cent of the increase. Comparisons for the past five fiscal years were as follows:—

The statistics in the following table giving "Principal Commodities exported from Canada to Overseas Countries via the United States and via Canadian Sea or River Ports, 1929" illustrate the details of this movement. The 37 commodities listed are representative of the Dominion's exports to overseas countries, as they comprise 89.9 per cent of the total exports to overseas countries; and they also represent 93.7 per cent of all goods shipped to overseas countries via the United States, and 87.7 per cent of those going via Canadian sea or river ports. During the past four fiscal years a considerable amount of Canadian grain exported from Fort William and Port Arthur to overseas countries via the United States has been re-routed from United States lake ports for shipment at Montreal. The amount of Canadian grain re-routed for export at Montreal during the calendar years 1925 to 1928 was:—

Grains	1925	1926	1927	1928
	Bushels	Bushels	Bushels	Bushels
Barley.....	1,439,000	361,000	2,533,000	3,085,000

Rye.....	1,170,000	370,000	2,052,000	2,589,000
Wheat.....	17,779,000	15,794,000	34,025,000	51,172,000
Total.....	22,783,000	17,222,000	39,207,000	57,240,000

This re-routed Canadian grain was not recorded as an export at Montreal because it had already been recorded as an export at Fort William or Port Arthur. It was recorded, however, as "intransit" grain from the United States via the Port of Montreal. In order to obtain the actual amount of barley, oats, rye and wheat shipped via Canadian sea or river ports, this re-routed Canadian grain should be added to the quantity already thus recorded and deducted from the quantity shown as exported via United States channels. When adjustments are made the actual quantities of barley, oats, rye and wheat exported to overseas countries via the United States (indirect) and via Canadian sea or river ports (direct) during the fiscal years 1926 to 1929, were:—

Canada's Share in World Import Trade.—Since 1913 Canada has made remarkable progress in the expansion of her export trade to the world's markets. The following table of "Canada's Share in World Import Trade" shows that, in 1913, the value of the total imports into the thirty-seven leading countries listed amounted to $18,199,509,000, which by 1927 had increased to $28,546,670,000, a gain of $10,347,161,000. During the same period, however, imports into the same countries from Canada increased from $356,762,000 to $1,103,375,000, or $746,613,000. That is, the total increase was about 57 per cent, while imports from Canada increased about 209 per cent. In 1913 Canada's share of the total imports into these countries was about two per cent, while in 1927 it was about four per cent.

In 1927 Canada's stated exports to the thirty-seven countries totalled $1,186,963,000, but import statistics of those countries showed $1,103,375,000 only from Canada, the difference between the two sets of figures being $83,588,000. This discrepancy is due to the fact that a very large proportion of Canada's exports to overseas countries is shipped via the United States, and when they reach their destination are credited to the United States and not to Canada. This is especially true of countries in Europe, South America and Asia. The particulars are set out in the following table:—

Canada's Position in International Trade.—Canada continues to hold her position in international trade, as indicated by the following table giving "Comparison of the Trade of the Principal Countries of the World." In 1913 the Dominion occupied eighth place in imports among the leading trading countries, being exceeded in value of imports by the United Kingdom, Germany, the United States, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Italy, but in 1928 she occupied fifth place displacing the Netherlands, Belgium and Italy. In 1913 Germany occupied second position in import trade, the United States being in third position, but in 1928 the United States had moved into second position, Germany moving down to third. In export trade, Canada in 1913 was in tenth position, being exceeded by the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, France, the Netherlands, British India, Belgium, Italy and Argentina, but in 1928 she had moved up to fifth position, displacing the Netherlands, British India, Belgium, Italy and Argentina. In 1913 the United Kingdom occupied first place in export trade, the United States being in second place, but in 1928, the United States was in first place in export trade and the United Kingdom in second place. In aggregate trade, Canada in 1913 was in ninth position, but in 1928, as in 1926 and 1927, she was in fifth position, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany and France. In 1913, in aggregate trade, the United Kingdom was in first position, Germany in second and the United States in third, but in 1928, the United States had moved into first position, the United Kingdom into second and Germany into third, while France was in fourth position in 1928 and in 1913.

Canada has also made remarkable progress in proportionate increase in trade, both in amount and percentage, from 1913 to 1928. In the amount of increase in imports she occupied fifth position, being exceeded by the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany and Japan; in exports, third place, being exceeded by the United States and the United Kingdom; and in aggregate trade, third position, being exceeded by the United States and the United Kingdom. In percentage of increase in trade from 1913 to 1928, Canada occupied eighth place in imports, first place in exports, and second place in aggregate trade, being exceeded by Japan.

In trade per capita, Canada has made a very creditable showing since 1913. In that year she occupied fifth place in imports per capita and in 1928 she occupied fifth place, being exceeded by New Zealand, the Netherlands, Switzerland and Denmark. In exports per capita Canada in 1913 occupied seventh place, but in 1928 she had advanced to second place, being exceeded by New Zealand. In aggregate trade per capita Canada in 1913 was in sixth place among the leading commercial nations of the world, but in 1928 she had moved up to second place, New Zealand being in first place as in 1926 and 1927. In 1928 the aggregate trade of New Zealand per capita amounted to $330.64, imports amounting to $148.07 and exports to $182.57; while that for Canada amounted to $263.78, imports totalling $124.03 and exports $139.75.

With regard to visible trade balance Canada in 1913 occupied seventeenth position among the principal trading countries of the world, it being unfavourable in that year to the extent of $222,900,000, or $29.61 per capita, but in 1928 she was in third position, with a favourable trade balance of $151,800,000 or $15.72 per capita. In 1928 as in 1913, the United States was in first place and British India in second place in amount of favourable trade balances. Although Canada's favourable trade balance in 1928 was $241,100,000 less than in 1925, she occupied second place in favourable trade balance per capita in 1928, New Zealand being in first place and Argentina in third place. The standing per capita in 1928 was; New Zealand $34.50, last year $10.73; Canada $15.72, last year $15.93; and Argentina $10.52, last year $14.22. In 1928 among the leading commercial nations of the world six had a favourable trade balance, nine in 1927, six in 1926, eight in 1924 and 1925, six in 1923 and only three in 1913.

CANADA'S EXPORTS COMPARED WITH EXPORTS OF OTHER COUNTRIES

Canada to-day in the production and exportation of many staple products ranks high among the leading nations of the world. In the production of printing paper, nickel, asbestos and cobalt she leads the world, occupies second place in the production of wheat, and in output of lead and gold she occupies third place; while in export trade she leads the world in exports of wheat, printing paper, nickel and asbestos, occupies second place in exports of wheat flour and third place in exports of wood pulp. The exports of these staple products from Canada make up about fifty per cent of the Dominion's total domestic exports.

Wheat Exports.—The rapid increase in the production of wheat in the Prairie Provinces during the past fifteen years or so and the practical elimination of Russia, Roumania and other wheat producing countries of Europe as leading factors in the grain trade, have had the effect of establishing Canada in second place as a wheat producing country, the first place being held by the United States. With reference to exports of wheat, Canada, for the calendar year 1928, occupied first place with an export of 365,429,000 bushels, Argentina being second with 186,968,000 bushels and the United States third with 96,290,000 bushels. Canada's exports of wheat for the past seven years, as also for the year 1913, have exceeded those of the United States. The Dominion's exports of wheat for the fiscal year 1900 amounted to only 16,845,000 bushels; in 1910 they totalled 49,741,000 bushels; in 1920 77,978,000 bushels; while for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1929, they had reached the magnificent amount of 370,460,000 bushels. It will be noted by reference to the statistics in the following table showing "Exports of Wheat from Principal Wheat Producing Countries of the World" that even in 1913 Canada occupied first place as a wheat exporting country, with an export of 129,950,000 bushels, Russia being in second place with an export of 121,953,000 bushels, Argentina in third place with 103,300,000 bushels, and the United States in fourth place with 99,509,000 bushels. In 1929 the order had been changed considerably, Canada, as in 1913, was in first place, Argentina in second, the United States in third and Australia in fourth place. Wheat occupies first place among Canada's exports.

Wheat Flour Exports.—Canada, since the opening of the twentieth century, has made remarkable progress in the flour-milling industry. This development is reflected in the increase in her flour exports. To-day Canada ranks second among the countries of the world as a wheat-flour exporting country, the first place being occupied by the United States. Canada's exports of wheat-flour for the fiscal year 1900 amounted to only 768,000 barrels; ten years later they totalled 3,064,000 barrels; in 1920 they amounted to 8,863,000 barrels; while for the last fiscal year (1929) they amounted to 11,406,000 barrels. It will be observed from the statistics in the following table showing "Exports of Wheat-Flour from Principal Flour-Producing Countries of the World" that in 1929 Canada was in second place with an export of 10,737,000 barrels, the United States being in first place with an export of 11,848,000 barrels; Australia in third place with 4,879,000 barrels; Hungary in fourth place with 2,209,000 barrels; and Argentina in fifth place with 1,916,000 barrels. The exports of flour from the United States in 1928 were 430,000 barrels less than in 1913, while the exports from Canada in 1928 were 5,843,000 barrels greater than in 1913, and from Australia 2,617,000 barrels greater. From 1927 to 1928 Canada's exports of wheat flour increased from 9,263,000 to 10,737,000 barrels, while those from the United States decreased from 12,826,000 to 11,848,000 barrels.

Newsprint Paper Exports.—Canada, according to statistics issued by the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association and from other sources, led the world as a producer of newsprint paper during the calendar year 1928, with an output of 4,762,000,000 pounds; the United States was second with 2,830,000,000 pounds; the United Kingdom third with 1,260,000,000 pounds, and Germany fourth with 1,200,000,000 pounds. The production of newsprint paper for the world in 1928 was estimated at not far from 13,500,000,000 pounds, of which North America supplied 60 per cent, and Canada alone about 35 per cent. The estimated production of newsprint paper for sixteen of the leading paper producing countries of the world was: 1926, 12,092,000,000 pounds; 1927, 12,706,000,000 pounds; and in 1928, 13,221,000,000 pounds. The estimated production for the calendar years 1926, 1927 and 1928 for the sixteen leading countries, arranged in order of importance of output in 1928, were:

During the fiscal year 1890 Canada's total exports of paper were valued at only $122; in 1900 they amounted to $29,741; while in 1910 the exports of printing paper alone were valued at $2,612,000. Exports of newsprint paper from Canada for the fiscal year 1920 amounted to 1,427,251,000 pounds, value $53,204,000, while for 1929 they amounted to 4,526,458,000 pounds, value $142,343,000. The Dominion's exports of newsprint paper rank second in importance, wheat being in the first place.

In 1928 Canada occupied first position by a wide margin among the world's chief exporters of newsprint paper, her exports being over ten times as great as those for Newfoundland, her next competitor. From the statistics in the following table showing "Exports of Newsprint Paper from Principal Paper Producing Countries of the World" it will be noted that, even in 1913, Canada led the world as an exporter of newsprint paper, Norway being in second place, the United Kingdom in third place and Finland in fourth place. In 1928 the total quantity of newsprint paper exported by the thirteen leading exporting countries was 6,896,475,000 pounds, compared with 5,642,464,000 pounds in 1926 and 6,220,947,000 pounds in 1927, of which Canada in 1926 contributed 3,463,972,000 pounds or 61.3 per cent, in 1927, 3,763,731,000 pounds, or 60.5 per cent, and in 1928, 4,413,175,000 pounds or 63.9 per cent. Canada's exports of newsprint paper, therefore, exceeded the exports of the other twelve leading countries combined by 1,285,480,000 pounds in 1926, 1,306,515,000 pounds in 1927, and by 1,929,875,000 pounds in 1928. Canada's exports of newsprint paper are greater than those of the rest of the world combined.

Wood Pulp Exports.—Canada's great advance as a newsprint paper producer and exporter since the opening of the present century, has been based on the great expansion of her wood pulp industry. Canada's exports of wood pulp during the fiscal year 1890 were valued at only $168,000 and in 1900 at $1,816,000. In the year 1910 the Dominion's exports of wood pulp amounted to 590,346,000 pounds, value $5,205,000; in 1920, or ten years later, they amounted to 1,538,958,000 pounds, value $41,383,000; and in 1929 to 1,695,016,000 pounds, value $44,896,000. The very small increase in the exports of wood pulp from Canada, from 1920 to 1929, is due to the fact that year by year larger quantities of wood pulp are used in the Canadian paper industry in the manufacture of newsprint and other forms of paper, and consequently the product is being exported in a manufactured form (paper) rather than in a semi-manufactured form (wood-pulp). According to statistics in the following table giving "Exports of Wood Pulp from Principal Countries of the World," Canada, during the calendar year 1928, occupied third position among the world's exporters of wood pulp, with an export of 1,727,602,000 pounds; the first place being held by Sweden, with an export of 3,453,265,000 pounds; while Norway was in second place with an export of 1,751,909,000 pounds. In exports of chemical pulp in 1928 Canada occupied second position, with an export of 1,299,133,000 pounds; the first place being held by Sweden, by a wide margin, with an export of 2,346,191,000 pounds; and third place by Finland with an export of 1,106,612,000 pounds. With regard to exports of mechanical pulp, Canada occupied fourth place in 1928 with an export of 428,469,000 pounds; the first, second and third places being held by Norway with 1,152,813,000 pounds; Sweden, 1,107,074,000 pounds; and Finland 461,877,000 pounds. In 1913 Sweden occupied first place as an exporter of wood pulp, Norway second place, and Canada third.
